

My Brother, My Friend

By Barbara D. MacAdam

I feel there is a yearning, deep within my heart, to let you know how much I care - together or apart.

I know I can rely on you to pick up any slack.
In times when I can't lift the load, you always have my back.

Your caring disposition always guides the things you do,
and I feel blessed to be the one who gets the best of you.

You set the highest standards for yourself and others too, showing honor, pride and dignity, and I'm so proud of you!

There are times we fight each other, and times you fight for me,
but at the end of the day, we stand together, a stronger family.

So, if I could turn one wish to prayer, it would be that you could see, how amazing you are in my eyes, and how you'll always be.

Barbara D. MacAdam

For no matter where life leads us, from now until the end, I pray you'll feel
my love for you, my brother,
my best friend!
