Unsettling Narratives Clare Bradford, 2007 Children's books seek to assist children to understand themselves and their world Unsettling Narratives Postcolonial Readings of Children's Literature demonstrates how settler society texts position child readers as citizens of postcolonial nations how they represent the colonial past to modern readers what they propose about race relations and how they conceptualize systems of power and government Clare Bradford focuses on texts produced since 1980 in Canada the United States Australia and New Zealand and includes picture books novels and films by Indigenous and non Indigenous publishers and producers From extensive readings the author focuses on key works to produce a thorough analysis rather than a survey Unsettling Narratives opens up an area of scholarship and discussion the use of postcolonial theories relatively new to the field of children's literature and demonstrates that many texts recycle the colonial discourses naturalized within mainstream cultures English for the Australian Curriculum Book 1 Brenton Doecke, Pam Macintyre, Graham Parr, Natalie Bellis, Scot Bulfin, Kelli McGraw, Lisa McNeice, Karen Moni, Gary Simmons, 2011-04 English for the Australian Curriculum Book 1 privileges student experience creative engagement with texts moments of reflection and deep thinking Drawing on an inquiry model of learning it provides opportunities for students to write and create their own texts Written for the Australian Curriculum English for the Australian Curriculum Book 1 provides a fully balanced and integrated approach to the study of language literature and literacy It actively engages students with texts at a variety of levels Develops language skills at word sentence and text level with activities in reading writing viewing creating listening and speaking Encourages student writing across a variety of contexts for a variety of purposes and for a variety of audiences Underlines the importance of visual literacy Provides opportunities for students to create their own multimodal texts My Girragundji 20th Anniversary Edition Meme McDonald, Boori Monty Pryor, 2018-05-23 The 20th anniversary edition of the award winning much loved story that tells how a little tree frog helps a boy find the courage to face his fears Reading Race Clare Bradford, 2013-05-09 How do children's books relate to the cultures that produce them and how do they influence those cultures In Reading Race Clare Bradford looks at representations of Australia's indigenous peoples in texts for children She shows how these varying representations have helped to colour the attitudes beliefs and assumptions of different generations of Australians To what extent have children's books enabled readers to understand Aboriginal culture relations between Aboriginal and non Aboriginal people and relationships between Aboriginality and national identity Bradford draws on examples from popular and literary children's books of all genres fiction non fiction picture books and school texts She reveals that many children's books display the tensions and uncertainties inherent in relations between Aboriginal and non Aboriginal people Bradford also uncovers the different ideologies of race that have informed Australian children's texts from the nineteenth century to currently popular writers demonstrating cultural shifts in the representation of Aboriginality over time The result is a ground breaking and intelligent picture of how Australian children's books by both white and Aboriginal writers have negotiated the matter of race. Reading Race will enhance the ways in which we come to read and understand the complex and delicate issues around Aboriginal-white relations. It will be an invaluable resource in the fields of post-colonial studies, Indigenous and Aboriginal studies, literary and cultural studies and children's literature. My Girragundji Meme McDonald, Boori Monty

BOORI MONTY PRYOR AUSTRALIA'S CHILDREN'S LAUREATE 2012-13 I wake with a start The doorknob turns It's him The Hairyman There's a bad spirit in our house He's as ugly as ugly gets and he stinks You touch this kind of Hairyman and you lose your voice or choke to death It's hard to sleep when a hairy wrinkly old hand might grab you in the night And in the day you've got to watch yourself It can be rough Words come yelling at you that hurt Alive with humour My Girragundji is the vivid story of a boy growing up between two worlds With the little green tree frog as a friend the bullies at school don't seem so big anymore And Girragundji gives him the courage to face his fears Literacy for the 21st Century Gail Tompkins, Rod Campbell, David Green, Carol Smith, 2014-08-01 Literacy for the 21st Century 2e gives students the strategies and ability to teach literacy effectively in Australian classrooms Linking the theory and research to classroom practice and with a greater emphasis on the use of digital literacies students will gain a practical understanding of teaching reading and writing multimedia hypertext weblinks and e books none of which lessens the enduring enthusiasm of practitioners and readers for books Bush city cyberspace is not meant to be an encyclopedic volume Rather well known recent and or award winning works have been emphasised with the addition of others where these help to illuminate particular points The book is similar in coverage and approach to Australian Children s Literature An Exploration of Genre and Theme written by the same three authors and published by the Centre for Information Studies in 1995 In the intervening period much has changed in the field notable examples including the blurring of the dividing line between quality and popular literature the blending of genres the rise of a truly indigenous literature the demise to a significant extent of Outbackery in fiction the acceptance of multiculturalism as the norm and the advent of the literature of cyberspace with new methods and the sheer speed of communication between writer and reader All these trends and others are reflected in this work
