 Richard P. Olson,2022-10-17 Many grandparents experience a surge of joy with the birth or adoption of a grandchild For years afterward time together is eagerly coveted pictures are treasured and displayed and multiple gifts along with various kinds of support are gladly provided Richard Olson a retired minister professor of theology and grandparent many times over presents the unconditional love of a grandparent as indicative of a vocation a calling from God He explores the vocation of grandparent in all of its multiple dimensions of being and doing Informed by a biblical perspective the book explores the author s personal journey of grandparenting and includes conversations with a diverse set of other grandparents Olson examines biblical examples of grandparenting and suggests that the grandparent vocation has possibilities that often go unnoticed These include care enjoyment and response to issues throughout a grandchild s growth He also addresses concerns for our grandchildren s future world and how grandparents can engage in mutual conversation about faith morals and values in a changing world In addition Olson discusses increasingly common relationship types such as grandparents serving as primary caregivers adults becoming step grandparents through marriage interreligious family systems and grandparents handling children with special needs The book includes questions for personal or group reflection Finding Your Purpose When You Retire L. Richard Bradley PH.D.,2024-06-04 Imagine that you are an ancient mariner standing on a cliff overlooking the ocean at sunrise You are staring at the edge the place where the ocean and the sky meet and wondering What lies beyond Your answer would have been Thar be dragons Using this analogy imagine you are about to retire or have recently retired and wondering What s out there What do I do now Buy that new sports car take a long vacation play golf or fish every day or try to continue working What s going to get me up in the morning excited to have another day Is there a purpose for my life If so how do I find it There is a lot of information about the financial and medical aspects of retirement but very little about the emotional and spiritual impacts of retiring Retirement is a major life transition which changes everything about how you think about yourself One day your identity is defined by what you do for a living the next day that identity is gone You may feel lost as if the rug has been pulled out from underneath you Who are we now The good news is this feeling is normal you are not going crazy It is part of the normal life cycle Another piece of good news using a process known as guided journaling you will better understand how you got to where you are in your life today and then create your own personal best fit retirement one that gets you up every morning excited for another day to live and serve others
