Grandmothers Adriana Trigiani, 2012-02-02 Adriana Trigiani's two remarkable grandmothers Lucia and Viola lived through the 20th century from beginning to end as working women who juggled careers and motherhood. From the factory line to the family table, the two of them, the very definition of modern women, cut a path for their granddaughter by demonstrating courage and skill in their fearless approach to life, love, and overcoming obstacles. Trigiani visits the past to seek answers to the essential questions that define the challenges women face today: how we hold on to the values that make life rich and beautiful; how we can take risks and reap the rewards; how to stand resilient in the face of tragedy. Be bold, be direct, be different.

Grandmothers' Stories Olympia Dukakis, 2006 When Heena came out of her house, Rainbow was waiting in her garden glowing like a pearl in the light of the Blessing Moon.

Songs of My Grandmother Sara Surani, 2025-03-11 A collection of poetry and prose that offers comfort, community, and belonging through stories of love, loss, change, and rebirth. In this collection of poetry and prose, Sara Surani weaves together the universal songs of her ancestors' voices of women she has met across the world and her own reflections. These are not songs with music but melodies of memory and spirit of love and laughter. Of curiosity and wonder. Of healing and hope. Of the little moments when time slows down. The daughter of Pakistani Muslim immigrants who moved to South Texas to give their daughter a better life, Surani draws on her roots to create a tapestry of stories, comforting and deeply familiar. Throughout the book, she braids shared struggles with collective joy, reminding us of all that we hold in common while conjuring a deep sense of belonging, one that is needed now more than ever.

My Grandma Died Lory Britain, 2003 This gentle story of a child reacting to a grandparent's death is written for the very young. It uses simple, honest language to clarify that death is permanent, that the child will never again be able to bake cookies or rock with Grandma. This loss, the child acknowledges, is far greater than the loss of a toy or a pet's disappearance. This book assures the young child that it's normal to feel angry, frightened, and sad when grieving. It also helps a child distinguish between the emotional pain of grief and the physical pain children have already experienced in such routine activities as outdoor play. Carefully researched and reviewed by therapists who work with pre-school and primary age children, offers practical, age-appropriate suggestions for coping with loss. Introduction by a clinical psychologist.

Gumption: A grandmother's story Constance J. Corcoran, 2014-04-24 A granddaughter explores the stark contrasts in her grandmother's life before and after the Great Depression. The author blends family lore, memoir, and research to investigate the mystery of the banished father her grandmother never met. The Mother Lode region of California is featured in one section, set in Calaveras County from 1948-1959. Other prominent settings are 19th and early 20th century Galesburg, Illinois; northwestern Nebraska; Drayton, North Dakota; Wellington County, Ontario; and Saskatchewan.
