Copyright Office, 1945 Includes Part 1 Books Group 1 Nos 1 12 1944     My Home is Far Away Dawn Powell, 2011-11-08 My Home is Far Away is the most precisely autobiographical of Powell's fifteen novels In this family chronicle set in early twentieth century Ohio young Marcia Willard's family struggles to keep up with the rapidly changing times and Marcia endures disillusionment cruelty and betrayal to forge a survivor's sense of independence John Updike has compared Powell with Theodore Dreiser Willa Cather Sherwood Anderson and those other Midwestern writers who felt something epic in the national shift from rural to urban from provincial sequestration to metropolitan liberation By 1941 when Powell set to work on My Home Is Far Away she was better known for the smart boozy bawdy hilarious send ups of Manhattan high and low life She had begun to attain a reputation for high sophistication and nothing could be less sophisticated in the glittering all knowing furiously present tense big city manner Powell had perfected than My Home Is Far Away This was the month of cherries and peaches of green apples beyond the grape arbor of little dandelion ghosts in the grass of sour grass and four leaf clovers of still dry heat holding the smell of nasturtiums and dying lilacs This was the best month of all and the best day It was not birthday Easter Christmas or picnic but all these things and something else something wonderful something utterly unknown The two little girls in embroidered white Sunday dresses knew no way to express their secret joy but by whirling each other dizzily over the lawn crying We're moving we're moving We're moving to London Junction My Home Is Far Away is one of the very few examples of a book written for adults with an adult command of the language that maintains the vantage point of a hungry serious child throughout It might be likened to a memoir that has been penned not with the usual tranquility of distance but rather with the sense that everything happening to the characters is happening right now without any promise of eventual escape without any assurance that childhood too shall pass away My Home is Far Away had been out of print for sixty years when Steerforth reissued it in 1995 It received immediate widespread acclaim and was featured on the cover of the New York Times Book Review where Terry Teachout called it one of the permanent masterpieces of childhood comparable with David Copperfield What Maisie Knew and the early reminiscences of Colette and where he proclaimed Powell to be one of this country's least recognized great novelists     Furnishings at Faraway David H. Homer Rodeheaver and the Rise of the Gospel Music Industry Kevin Mungons, Douglas Yeo, 2021-06-15 From tent revivals to radio and records with a gospel music innovator Homer Rodeheaver merged evangelical hymns and African American spirituals with popular music to create a potent gospel style Kevin Mungons and Douglas Yeo examine his enormous influence on gospel music against the backdrop of Christian music history and Rodeheaver's impact as a cultural and business figure Rodeheaver rose to fame as the trombone playing song leader for evangelist Billy Sunday As revivalism declined after World War I Rodeheaver leveraged his place in America's newborn celebrity culture to start the first gospel record label and launch a nationwide radio program His groundbreaking combination of hymnal publishing and recording technology helped define the early Christian music industry In his later years he influenced figures like Billy Graham and witnessed the music's split into southern gospel and black gospel Clear-eyed and revealing Homer Rodeheaver and the Rise of the Gospel Music Industry is an overdue consideration of a pioneering figure in American music

The Lord Gives and I Take Rosalie Cowick, 2023-03-17 God is so so good He never stops showering his love his mercy and his compassion on us in so many many ways The Lord gives and I take It doesn't sound too good for us does it I could spend the rest of my life writing about what God gives to each one of us even to those who do not walk with the Lord His hand is continually pouring out Most of us do not think about it or we ignore it And if we do we look at it with very dim-sighted eyes Much of our time is spent on the expectations of what we want from him But he gives and he gives and he gives And the reality is we take and we take and we take We take all that God supplies with very little thankfulness to him We are greedy and we expect so much and the truth is we are so undeserving Can we ever pay God back Never never never But we can recognize appreciate embrace and be thankful for what he has done is doing and will do by honoring him and living our lives in his love and in service to him worshipping and giving him all the glory and bringing to light his word to those who don't know him I stand in awe and amazement at the Lord's grace for humankind He holds all together for us Be brought back to the beauty the awe and the wonder of God May we change the casualness in our hearts and minds that we take toward him and begin to develop a view of his awesome mercy and grace Join me in plunging into the depths of his goodness
