My Journey The Autobiography Of An Immigrant:

An Immigrant's Memoir Abdullahi M Arale, 2021-06-07 The book is a nonfiction storytelling memoir narrated by the author himself from his personal immigration dilemmas in terms of early migration experiences to Canada his ensuing struggles for establishing legal status and equally striving to fit into the Canadian society through the process of integration Through this chronicle the book emphasizes the need for social justice that is equality before the law equal opportunity for employment and equal justice and treatment for all Canadians irrespective of their skin color national origin faith and sexual orientation It strives in this historical and experiential narrative to expose the undeclared racial and religious battles percolating in Canada since its inception manifesting themselves in racist and discriminatory public displays often organized and carried out by a racist white nationalist section of society against immigrants about which no one specifically white Canadians do not want to talk about never mind taking a clear position against it The book strives as well to shed light on the European superiority myth Hughes 08 2015 and Why Europe is the superior civilization why not China Landes spring 2006 which both authors ascribe the principle causes of bondage death disease crimes against humanity to this very Eurocentric mindset Equally as reported by Andrea Smith the author of Indigeneity Settler Colonialism White Supremacy is attributable to the genocide against Indigenous Peoples of the African Australian and North American continents Smith A The author as a new Canadian experiences prejudice and stereotype in a university classroom He envisioned that white supremacists must not use university venues as a platform for their bigoted views Hence he decides to write a book addressing the myth of euro superiority In this work the author disposes cruelties used by north American white settlers to enslave black people massacre humiliate and dispossess Indigenous peoples lands Notwithstanding of its defeat in WWII Euro superiority thrives to this day causing social disunity here in North America and elsewhere Five point proposals are put forward to empower Canadian institutions as well as citizens against white supremacy ideology

Women, Autobiography, Theory Sidonie Smith, Julia Watson, 1998 The first comprehensive guide to the burgeoning field of women's autobiography Essays from 39 prominent critics and writers explore narratives across the centuries and from around the globe A list of more than 200 women's autobiographies and a comprehensive bibliography provide invaluable information for scholars teachers and readers Lim Chong Yah: An Autobiography - Life Journey Of A Singaporean Professor Chong Yah Lim, 2017-01-18 Why are some nations rich and others poor Why do the citizens of some countries lead a happy prosperous life while others struggle in terrible want This book takes the reader through the eventful life journey of one of Singapore's best known economists and educators Professor Lim Chong Yah Born in Malacca the author planted tapioca to feed himself and his family caught fish in paddy fields and was thrown in jail as a 10 year old during the war He fought to win a Commonwealth scholarship to get a decent education met the love of his life at a Chinese New Year party became a Professor at two of the best universities in Asia and went on to write one the most widely used economics textbooks of the time Elements of Economic Theory At 84 Lim Chong

Yah is as feisty indomitable and curious as when he was a small cheeky boy catching fighting fish in those paddy fields And he still asks the fundamental question of how each of us can make a difference

Transculturating Auto/Biography Rosalia Baena,2013-10-18 Rosalia Baena's theoretically challenging analytical volume of essays explores the diversity of shapes that transcultural life writing takes demonstrating how it has become one of the most dynamic and productive literary forms of self inscription and self representation Expanding much of the contemporary criticism on life writing which tends to centre on content the essays highlight that reading contemporary forms of life writing from a literary perspective is a rich field of critical intervention that has been overlooked because of recent cultural studies concerns with material issues To read life writing as primarily cultural texts undercuts much of its value as a complex dynamic of cultural production where aesthetic concerns and the choice and manipulation of form serve as signifying aspects to experiences and subjectivities This book was previously published as a special issue of Prose Studies

Memories: Journey into an Immigrant'S Mind Emanuel Paparella,2018-08-10 As its title powerfully suggests this book while being a personal memoir a narration of one's life journey from sunrise to sunset transcends the personal Its uniqueness lies in the fact that these memories are the memories of an immigrant who has lived in the country as a US citizen with an American born father for some sixty years It is much more than a list of events and anecdotes of an immigrant experience It is written in a Dantesque and Vichian spirit and as such it goes beyond the listing of historical events and people More than a physical journey it is an intellectual journey into the mind of an immigrant in search of one's self and one's ethnic identity As such it is a universal journey with which nonimmigrants even native born can easily empathize Our common humanity makes it universal As Dante well put it when he began the narration of his life's journey In the middle of the journey of our lives I found myself in a dark wood As Dante begins the journey guided by Virgil and Beatrice he finds out that indeed the journey is universal beyond the purely personal As Michelangelo said Ancor imparo I am still learning He uttered such a statement at the venerable age of eighty nine a few days before he died He was still sculpting and learning Likewise if we dare to begin the journey at whatever age we may find ourselves we may soon find out that we too are still learning and the journey may well have a common purpose and destination

Hawaiian History Richard Lightner,2004-08-30 Hawaii has been referred to as the crossroads of the Pacific This book illustrates how many world cultures and customs meet in the Hawaiian Islands providing a chronological overview highlighted by extracts from important works that express Hawaii's unique history This work starts with chronological chapters on general and ancient Hawaiian history and continues through early Western contact the 19th century and Hawaii's annexation to the United States Topics include politics religion social issues business ethnic groups and race relations

A Memoir of an Educational Biographer Gerald L. Gutek,2024-09-01 In his interdisciplinary memoir Gerald Gutek applies history and philosophy of education to educational biography The author was guided by his focusing goals of exploring his path to becoming an educational biographer and working generalizations with his colleagues in the field Gutek's narrative begins with the author's childhood experiences that inclined him to a career in education followed by chapters on his doctoral program in the College of Education at the University of Illinois in Champaign Urbana his teaching of history and philosophy and education in the School of Education at Loyola University Chicago his research and writing of biographies of Johann Heinrich Pestalozzi and Joseph Neef and his textbook Historical and Philosophical Foundations of Education a Biographical Introduction and issues and strategies in writing about Maria Montessori Throughout the book Gutek analyzes concepts and applications he developed as an educational biographer such as parallel biographies slice of life writing reconsidering overlooked and understudied educators and the role of place and space in telling life stories

ENDORSEMENTS

Readers both new to educational biography or familiar with the discipline will find a valuable account of the author's long and varied career as a biographer From his childhood memory of listening to neighbors' stories in his grandfather's grocery store to encounters with the important teachers in his life Gutek brings his own story to life As he recounts the influences on his personal intellectual history and the processes of his research and writing readers gain valuable insights into the methods of an experienced educational biographer Larry Prochner University of Alberta For fifty years Gerald Gutek has been and remains one of the seminal and leading voices in the field of educational biography thus it only makes sense for him to create something new an intellectual memoir From his work on Counts in 1970 to his work on Montessori 2016 and her acolytes in the US 2020 Gutek has reliably bridged the worlds of educational history educational biography and philosophical foundations of education this work cements his legacy Gutek skillfully interweaves personal and family history with movements in educational history both formal and informal then explains how these impacted his thinking and writing Throughout this eminently readable memoir Gutek also includes political and historical context without engaging in divisiveness Scholars of life writing should give this a close reading as Gutek sprinkles nuggets of methodological brilliance throughout the manuscript Junior scholars would do well to read Gutek's more substantive sections on the methods used to write each of his books it is the academic equivalent of Master Class in textual form Ed Janak University of Toledo

Never Alone Natan Sharansky, Gil Troy, 2020-09-01 A classic account of courage integrity and most of all belonging In 1977 Natan Sharansky a leading activist in the democratic dissident movement in the Soviet Union and the movement for free Jewish emigration was arrested by the KGB He spent nine years as a political prisoner convicted of treason against the state Every day Sharansky fought for individual freedom in the face of overt tyranny a struggle that would come to define the rest of his life Never Alone reveals how Sharansky's years in prison many spent in harsh solitary confinement prepared him for a very public life after his release As an Israeli politician and the head of the Jewish Agency Sharansky brought extraordinary moral clarity and uncompromising often uncomfortable honesty His story is suffused with reflections from his time as a political prisoner from his seat at the table as history unfolded in Israel and the Middle East and from his passionate efforts to unite the Jewish people Written with frankness affection and humor the book offers us profound insights from a man who embraced the essential human struggle to find his own voice his own faith and the people to whom he could belong The Little Immigrants Kenneth Bagnell, 2001-11-01 The Little Immigrants is a tale of compassion and courage and a vivid account of a deep and moving part of Canadian heritage In the early years after Confederation the rising nation needed workers that could take advantage of the abundant resources Until the time of the Depression 100 000 impoverished children from the British Isles were sent overseas by well meaning philanthropists to solve the colony's farm labour shortage They were known as the home children and they were lonely and frightened youngsters to whom a new life in Canada meant only hardship and abuse This is an extraordinary but almost forgotten odyssey that the Calgary Herald has called One of the finest pieces of Canadian social history ever to be written Kenneth Bagnell tells an affecting tale of Dickensian pathos Vancouver Sun that is excellent well organized logical clearly written and suspenseful The Edmonton Journal Voices of Asian Americans in Higher Education Festus E. Obiakor, Ying Hui-Michael, 2018-10-01 Voices of Asian Americans in Higher Education Unheard Voices is a unique and historical book Asian Americans are often portrayed as model minority yet their personal and educational experiences are often unheard In this book 10 Asian American educators and scholars present realistic pictures of America's higher education using personal narratives The contributors in this book come from different regions and teach in different colleges and universities and coincidentally they all endure the outsider category formerly as students and now as professors and leaders This outsider status can be emotionally overwhelming and psychologically unnerving This status hampers opportunities for Asian Americans to grow and maximize their fullest potential Though they develop different strategies to address their outsider label it does not make it comfortable But time and time again they have proven that they can succeed In this technological age we must value unending truths as we educate ourselves and others We hope that this book will be an educational and informational resource for students administrators and faculty in higher education and also educational policy makers and stakeholders The Value of Worthless Lives Ilaria Serra, 2007 Publisher description Life Stories Maureen O'Connor, 2011-08-23 Memoirs autobiographies and diaries represent the most personal and most intimate of genres as well as one of the most abundant and popular Gain new understanding and better serve your readers with this detailed genre guide to nearly 700 titles that also includes notes on more than 2 800 read alike and other related titles The popularity of this body of literature has grown in recent years and it has also diversified in terms of the types of stories being told and persons telling them In the past readers advisors have depended on access by names or Dewey classifications and subjects to help readers find autobiographies they will enjoy This guide offers an alternative organizing the literature according to popular genres subgenres and themes that reflect common reading interests Describing titles that range from travel and adventure classics and celebrity autobiographies to foodie memoirs and environmental reads Life Stories A Guide to Reading Interests in Memoirs Autobiographies and Diaries presents a unique overview of the genre that specifically addresses the needs of readers advisors and others who work with readers in finding books Catalog of
