The Eclectic Library Catalog ,1910 Think Red Larry Stoess,2021-09-27 Have you ever wondered what the church would look like if Christians began to take the words of Jesus seriously the words some Bibles print in red What if Jesus actually meant for us to do the things he said What if those who believe in Jesus really did value the things he valued Would the church look different Would your neighborhood stay the same In Think Red Larry Stoess takes a close look at the values the vision and the mission of Jesus and then holds up a mirror for us to see if our communities look anything like Jesus If we dare look in the mirror we may be inspired to leave behind our obsession with consumer based religion and follow the way of Jesus Those who do will be set free to imagine creative and whimsical expressions of community The Quotable Henry Ford Michele Wehrwein Albion,2013-03-05 An illuminating collection of quotes offering new insights on Henry Ford s sweeping achievements as one of America s greatest industrialists The World in the Making Hermann Graf von Keyserling,1927 Sherman - Volume 1 - The Promise: New York Stephen Desberg,2018-06-20T00:00:00+02:00 The bill always comes due Jay Sherman is the American Dream come true a self made man who worked himself up from the streets to the upper echelons of moneyed society But when his son Robert a promising Democratic presidential candidate is shot before his eyes Sherman s world spins into chaos Threats on his life and that of his estranged daughter soon follow An old mentor turned FBI chief steps up to offer his protection but lacking any real leads they can only look into Sherman s past which has more than its share of skeletons A political thriller with Gatsbyesque overtones Exploring the Psychosocial and Psycho-spiritual Dynamics of Singleness Among African American Christian Women in Midlife Christina Hicks,2017-08-09 Exploring the Psychosocial and Psycho spiritual Dynamics of Singleness Among African American Christian Women in Midlife examines the complexities and realities of singleness in individual familial and communal contexts These realities that are emotional psychological spiritual sexual and social are narrated by three African American women who have reached a critical midlife juncture and they give first hand accounts of what it means to be Black single and Christian in the 21st century This book provides a much needed discourse on single African American women and the challenging social mythical sexual and religious perceptions that are endemic to this specific population of women Moreover Exploring the Psychosocial and Psycho spiritual Dynamics of Singleness Among African American Christian Women in Midlife gives insight and voice to the many pastoral concerns of single African American Christian women in the Black church and is purposeful in helping them navigate to a place of health and wholeness Health and Wellness Gordon Edlin,Eric Golanty,2015-08-04 Preceded by Health and wellness Gordon Edlin and Eric Golanty c2014 The Freshman and His College Frank Cummins Lockwood,1913 Educational Experience as Lived: Knowledge, History, Alterity William F. Pinar,2015-02-11 In this volume Pinar enacts his theory of curriculum detailing the relations among knowledge history and alterity The introduction is Pinar's intellectual life history naming the contributions he has made to understanding educational experience. Study is the center of educational experience as he demonstrates in the opening chapter. The alterity of educational experience is evident in his conceptions of disciplinarity and internationalization, interrelated projects of historicization, dialogical encounter, and recontextualization. By reactivating the past not by instrumentalizing the present, we can find the future explicated in his studies of the Eight Year Study, the Tyler Rationale, and the gendering and racialization of U.S. school reform. The interrelation of race and gender is emphasized in the chapters on Ida B. Wells and Jane Addams. The technologization of education is critiqued through analysis of the achievements of George Grant and Pier Paolo Pasolini. The educational project of subjective and social reconstruction is explored through study of Musil's essayism, a genre that corrects the problems accompanying ethnography and created by identity politics.

B.H. Blackwell B.H. Blackwell Ltd, 1928 Tolstoy's Diaries Volume 1: 1847-1894 Reginald F. Christian, Leo Tolstoy, 2015-01-29. An important and long overdue contribution to our knowledge of Tolstoy. D.M. Thomas. Sunday Times. Volume 1 of Tolstoy's Diaries covers the years 1847-1894 and was meticulously edited by R.F. Christian so as to reflect Tolstoy's preoccupations as a writer, his views on his own work and that of others, his development as a person and as a thinker, and his attitudes to contemporary social problems, rural life, industrialisation, education, and later to religious and spiritual questions. Christian introduces each period with a brief and informative summary of the main biographical details of Tolstoy's life. The result is a unique portrait of a great writer in the variegation of his everyday existence. As a picture of the turbulent Russian world which Tolstoy inhabited, these diaries are incomparable: the raw stuff not yet processed into art. Anthony Burgess. A model of scholarship. One of the most important books to be published in recent years. A.N. Wilson. Spectator.

Fighting Prosaic Messages Henry C. Amoroso Jr, 2018-04-11. Part historical fiction, part memoir, part philosophy of education, this book begins with a story about a woman's immigration into the U.S. and how three of her generations struggled in the U.S. school system. The book ends with an analysis of why many students fail in school and what we can do about it. Through story and analysis, this book offers a critique of the U.S. education system in 3 parts. Part one imagines what the immigration experience was like in the past and reads like historical fiction. Part two looks at the ensuing three generations in the present and reads like a memoir. Part three gleans lessons from the story as a whole for what we can do better in the future. In the historical fiction part, a Sicilian woman named Rose emigrates to the U.S. at the turn of the twentieth century. Knowing no English and illiterate but armed with a moral intelligence, she struggles in this strange world of the free rubs shoulders with some of the great thinkers of her day and discusses the nature of education with them. She's one of the many prosaic heroes. History books and schools sometimes forget. In the memoir part, Rose's son Henry, the author's father, drops out of school in the eighth grade to help his single mom by selling newspapers; he never thought he was smart enough for school anyway. His son Henry Jr goes all the way in school to obtain a PhD but struggles to find a voice along the way. Henry Jr's son Justin was seemingly born with an expressive voice but in his shuffle to conform to the school system almost lost it In these 3 cases we see 3 types of students who often fail in school in general In the final analysis part the book reflects on these prosaic cases to understand why so many U S students fail The theme that emerges parallels the traditions of Rousseau Dewey and Montessori students at heart are good and educators are most effective when they treat them as such students learn best by doing and this includes moral doing and students become intrinsically motivated to learn if allowed to think critically creatively and to find their voices If democracy depends on an informed citizenry the questions this book raises about school failure are critical to the future of our nation J A Disruptive Innovation in a Digitally Connected Healthy World Rogier van de Wetering, Remko Helms, Ben Roelens, Samaneh Bagheri, Yogesh K.
