My Life As A Fake:

My Life as a Fake Peter Carey, 2010-08-06 Following the triumph of his Booker Prize winning True History of the Kelly Gang Peter Carey ventures into the Far East with a novel shot through with mysteries at once historical literary and personal Sarah Wode Douglass the editor of a London poetry magazine had grown up knowing the famous and infamous John Slater And because he figured prominently in the disaster that was her parents marriage when Slater proposes that she accompany him to Malaysia Sarah embarks out of curiosity on a journey that becomes instead a lifelong obsession Her discoveries spiral outward from Christopher Chubb a destitute Australian she meets by chance in the steamy fetid city of Kuala Lumpur He is mad Slater warns her explaining the ruinous hoax Chubb had committed decades earlier But lurking behind the man s peculiarity and arrogance Sarah senses is artistic genius in the form of a manuscript he teases her with and which she soon would do anything to acquire The provenance of this work she gradually learns is marked by kidnapping exile and death a relentless saga that reaches from Melbourne to Bali Sumatra and Java and that more than once compels her back to Malaysia without ever disclosing all of its secrets only the power of the imagination and the price it can exact from those who would wield it Astonishing mesmerizing and ultimately shocking My Life as a Fake is the most audacious novel yet in Peter Carey s extraordinary career finest creative writers much admired by both literary critics and a worldwide reading public While academia has been quick to see his fictions as exemplars of postcolonial and postmodern writing strategies his general readership has been captivated by his deadpan sense of humour his quirky characters the outlandish settings and the grotesqueries of his intricate plots After three decades of prolific writing and multiple award winning Carey stands out in the world of Australian letters as designated heir to Patrick White Fabulating Beauty pays tribute to Carey s literary achievement It brings together the voices of many of the most renowned Carey critics in twenty essays sixteen commissioned especially for this volume an interview with the author as well as the most extensive bibliography of Carey criticism to date The studies represent a wide range of current perspectives on the writer s fictions My Life as a Refugee Odu Kpwere Amari'di,2020-10-30 Sadly refugees are some of the most traumatized people in the world Although their backgrounds vary all share a commonality of determination and perseverance to overcome their complex challenges both in the past and in the future while attempting to move forward into a new chapter Odu Kpwere Amari di a South Sudanese immigrant living in Canada details his journey through life to date beginning with his birth in Uganda to refugee parents who fled Sudan during war and eventually returned to their homeland with him to build a new life As he reveals a compelling look into his humble African background through relatable anecdotes about his childhood memories regrets missed opportunities and other experiences intertwined with historical narratives Amari di explains why he is a refugee the continuing plight of refugees and the struggles as their fight continues to shun the perceptions and judgments and bear a burden of shame for allegedly abandoning their home countries in pursuit of a better life My Life as a Refugee is the memoir of a South Sudanese immigrant that chronicles his life from birth to date as he learned valuable lessons about life love and inclusion while persevering through his challenges Rewriting/Reprising Georges Letissier,2009-10-02 This volume comprises sixteen essays preceded by an introductory chapter focusing on the diverse modalities of textual and more widely artistic transfer Whereas the first Rewriting Reprising volume coord by C Maisonnat J Paccaud Huguet its subversive potential is perceptible notably through its many attempts at emancipating the genre from the ideological fetters of gender Over the past two decades Victorian literature and culture has become an inescapable field of investigations to any study on intertextuality in the English speaking world In a second part diversity has been preferred to any single specific angle to approach the Victorian neo Victorian tropism The purpose is to provide as complete a spectrum as is reasonably possible in such a volume The practice of rewriting in the Victorian age is thus studied alongside contemporary appropriations of the Victorian canon The question is raised of whether literary fetishism may not result in a form of counterfeit classicism while the more challenging neo Victorian rewritings would make a claim for the need to choose one s literary heritage and ancestors This is where the post colonial agenda comes in Precisely the third part investigates the question of rewriting reprising as a way of writing back The myth of Frankenstein s creature bent on wreaking vengeance on his creator is of course seminal as it offers a myth of transgression which in its turn becomes a foundation myth Not only are post colonial responses to their disclaimed parent texts highly theory informed but they also evince an awareness of such contemporary issues which are direct consequences of the colonial past In the last section of this volume the scope of what comes within the range of intertextuality per se is widened to cover artistic dialogism In the exchanges between theatrical texts reprise may be construed as a metaphor standing for the pleasure inherent in the process of recreation The interaction between embedded paintings and the embedding canvas offers yet another variation on the reprise motif as does the meta aesthetic discourse of the critic on the work of art What begins as mere repetition is soon colored by the personal inflections of the interpreter In operatic performances updating a classical text to make it suitable to contemporary audiences and in close harmony with the role assigned to music is liable to spur on the creativity of recreation occupy opposite ends of the earth they have never been that far from each other conceptually The United States and Australia both began as British colonies and mutual entanglements continue today when contemporary cultures of globalization have brought them more closely into juxtaposition Taking this transpacific kinship as his focus Paul Giles presents a sweeping study that spans two continents and over three hundred years of literary history to consider the impact of Australia and New Zealand on the formation of U S literature Early American writers such as Benjamin Franklin Thomas Jefferson Joel Barlow and Charles Brockden Brown found the idea of antipodes to be a creative resource but also an alarming reminder of Great Britain s increasing sway in the Pacific The southern seas served as inspiration for narratives by Washington Irving Edgar Allan Poe and Herman Melville For African Americans such as Harriet Jacobs Australia represented a haven from slavery during the gold rush era while for E D E N Southworth its convict legacy offered an alternative perspective on the British class system In the 1890s Henry Adams and Mark Twain both came to Australasia to address questions of imperial rivalry and aesthetic topsy turvyness The second half of this study considers how Australia s political unification through Federation in 1901 significantly altered its relationship to the United States New modes of transport and communication drew American visitors including novelist Jack London At the same time Americans associated Australia and New Zealand with various kinds of utopian social reform particularly in relation to gender politics a theme Giles explores in William Dean Howells Charlotte Perkins Gilman and Miles Franklin He also considers how American modernism in New York was inflected by the Australasian perspectives of Lola Ridge and Christina Stead and how Australian modernism was in turn shaped by American styles of iconoclasm After World War II Giles examines how the poetry of Karl Shapiro Louis Simpson Yusef Komunyakaa and others was influenced by their direct experience of Australia He then shifts to post 1945 fiction where the focus extends from Irish American cultural politics Raymond Chandler Thomas Keneally to the paradoxes of exile Shirley Hazzard Peter Carey and the structural inversions of postmodernism and posthumanism Salman Rushdie Donna Haraway Ranging from figures like John Ledyard to John Ashbery from Emily Dickinson to Patricia Piccinini and J M Coetzee Antipodean America is a truly epic work of transnational literary history

Coetzee examines how his novels create and unsettle literary authority Its unique contribution is to show how Coetzee provokes us into reconsidering certain basic formal and existential questions such as the nature of literary realism the authority of the author and the constitution of the human self in a posthumanist setting by consciously revealing the literary theoretical seams of his work Strong Opinions makes the innovative claim that Coetzee s work is driven not by a sense of scepticism or nihilism but rather by a form of controlled exposure that defines the literary The essays in the volume variously draw attention to three of Coetzee s most recent and significant experiments in controlled exposure The first is the exposure of place Coetzee s decision to set his novels in his newly adopted country of Australia The second is the exposure of form Coetzee s direct almost essayistic address of literary philosophical topics within his novels And the third is the exposure of limits Coetzee s explicit deconstruction of the traditional limits of human life
