Approaches to Food in Children's Literature Kara K. Keeling,Scott T. Pollard,2012-03-20 This book is the first scholarly volume to connect children s literature to the burgeoning discipline of food studies Spanning genres and regions the essays utilize a variety of approaches including archival research cultural studies formalism gender studies post colonialism post structuralism race studies structuralism and theology      Re-living the American Frontier Nancy Reagin,2021-12-01 The historic and mythic elements of the American Old West covered wagon trains herds of buffalo teepee villages Indigenous warriors on horseback cowboys on open ranges and white settlers taming a wilderness with their plows and log cabins have exerted a global fascination for more than 200 years and became the foundation for fan communities who have endured for generations This book examines some of those communities particularly German fans inspired by the authors of Westerns such as Karl May and American enthusiasts of Laura Ingalls Wilder s Little House on the Prairie series But the Old West like all visions of the past proved to be shifting cultural terrain In both Germany and the U S Western narratives of white settlement were once seen as apolitical and were widely accepted by white people But during the Nazi period in Germany and in East Germany after 1945 the American West was reevaluated and politically repurposed Then during the late twentieth century understandings of the West changed in the U S as well while the violence of white settler colonialism and the displacement of Indigenous peoples became a flashpoint in the culture wars between right and left Reagin shows that the past that fans seek to recreate is shaped by the changing present as each new generation adapts and relives their own West
