Tribune Fresh Air Fund Aid Society, 1918. Feeding My Mother Jann Arden, 2019-03-05. This edition of the inspirational 1 bestseller draws on a new year of Jann's diaries and her mother's final days. When beloved singer and songwriter Jann Arden's parents built a house just across the way from her, she thought they would be her refuge from the demands of her career. And for a time that was how it worked. But then her dad fell ill and died, and just days after his funeral, her mom was diagnosed with Alzheimer's. In Feeding My Mother, Jann shares what it is like for a daughter to become her mother's caregiver in her own frank and funny words and in recipes she invented to tempt her mom. Full of heartbreak but also full of love and wonder.

The Year of Finding Memory Judy Fong Bates, 2011-03-29. In the tradition of The Concubine's Children and Paper Shadows, a probing memoir from the author of the acclaimed novel Midnight at the Dragon Cafe. An elegant and surprising book about a Chinese family's difficult arrival in Canada and a daughter's search to understand remarkable and terrible truths about her parents' past lives. Growing up in her father's hand laundry in small town Ontario, Judy Fong Bates listened to stories of her parents' past lives in China, a place far removed from their every day life of poverty and misery. But in spite of the allure of these stories, Fong Bates longed to be a Canadian girl. Fifty years later, she finally followed her curiosity back to her ancestral home in China for a reunion that spiralled into a series of unanticipated discoveries. Opening with a shock as moving as the one that powers The Glass Castle, The Year of Finding Memory explores a particular yet universal world of family secrets, love, loss, courage, and shame. This is a memoir of a daughter's emotional journey and her painful acceptance of conflicting truths. In telling the story of her parents, Fong Bates is telling the story of how she came to know them, of finding memory.

A Mother's Memory Jean Meikle, 2016-02-24. My choice to keep my son at home during his illness seemed like the only option due to my son's aversion to staying in a hospital. It was a hard decision with lasting consequences. The choices were either hospital or home, as hospices were not offered as an option at that time. This is his story, my memories.

Cajun Literature and Cajun Collective Memory Mathilde Köstler, 2022-12-19. How does Cajun literature emerging in the 1980s represent the dynamic processes of remembering in Cajun culture? Known for its hybrid constitution and deeply ingrained oral traditions, Cajun culture provides an ideal testing ground for investigating the collective memory of a group. In particular, francophone and anglophone Cajun texts by such writers as Jean Arceneaux, Tim Gautreaux, Jeanne Castille, Zachary Richard, Ron Thibodeaux, Darrell Bourque, and Kirby Jambon reveal not only a shift from an oral to a written tradition.

They also show hybrid perspectives on the Cajun collective memory Based on recurring references to place the texts also reflect on the Acadian past and reveal the innate ability of the Cajuns to adapt through repeated intertextual references The Cajun collective memory is thus defined by a transnational outlook a transversality cutting across various ethnic heritages to establish and legitimize a collective identity both amid the linguistic and cultural diversity in Louisiana and in the face of American mainstream culture Cajun Literature and Cajun Collective Memory represents the first analysis of the mnemonic strategies Cajun writers use to explore and sustain the Cajun identity and collective memory Noisy Memory Brian Harnetty,2025-08-26 Composer and sound artist Brian Harnetty explores the remarkable everyday stories of sound recordings and shows us a new way to listen to the past From murder ballads and oral histories in Appalachian Ohio to the Afrofuturistic music of Sun Ra in Chicago to the recorded thoughts of monk and writer Thomas Merton in Kentucky Harnetty reveals rich historical contexts of the recordings and introduces us to the people and places connected to them The result is a new interdisciplinary approach to sound archives listening creative practice and community engagement Drawing on his two decade career as an artist and researcher Harnetty builds upon and expands the tradition of composers and artists writing about their work A unique combination of ethnography memoir philosophical text and meditation on the creative process Noisy Memory presents both scholarly and innovative approaches to ethically working with sound archives The Ladies' Home Journal ,1921 Memory Work Nina Fischer,2015-09-27 Memory Work studies how Jewish children of Holocaust survivors from the English speaking diaspora explore the past in literary texts By identifying areas where memory manifests Objects Names Bodies Food Passover 9 11 it shows how the Second Generation engage with the pre Holocaust family and their parents survival The Memory Weaver Jane Kirkpatrick,2015-09-01 Eliza Spalding Warren was just a child when she was taken hostage by the Cayuse Indians during a massacre in 1847 Now the young mother of two children Eliza faces a different kind of dislocation her impulsive husband wants them to make a new start in another territory which will mean leaving her beloved home and her departed mother s grave and returning to the land of her captivity Eliza longs to know how her mother an early missionary to the Nez Perce Indians dealt with the challenges of life with a sometimes difficult husband and with her daughter s captivity When Eliza is finally given her mother s diary she is stunned to find that her own memories are not necessarily the whole story of what happened Can she lay the dark past to rest and move on Or will her childhood memories always hold her hostage Based on true events The Memory Weaver is New York Times bestselling author Jane Kirkpatrick s latest literary journey into the past where threads of western landscapes family and faith weave a tapestry of hope inside every pioneering woman s heart Readers will find themselves swept up in this emotional story of the memories that entangle us and the healing that awaits us when we bravely unravel the threads of the past Westward Harold Alexander Munnings Jr.,2009-09-21 1 This is unusual a memoir written by someone under fifty years of age What made you write My parents were growing old and I wanted to record their stories for my children My father who is halfway through his
