My Movie Business A Memoir:

My Movie Business John Irving, 2012-05-08 John Irving's memoir describes the author's involvement and lack thereof in five of the films that have and have not been made from his nine novels. My Movie Business focuses primarily on the thirteen years Mr Irving spent writing and rewriting his screenplay of The Cider House Rules for four different directors. A Miramax production, the film was finally shot in the fall of 1998, directed by the Swedish director Lasse Hallström. My Life as a Dog with Michael Caine in the role of Dr Larch. The Cider House Rules is a November 1999 release. Mr Irving also writes about the failed effort to make his first novel, Setting Free the Bears, into a movie, about two of the films that were made from his novels but not from his screenplays, The World According to Garp and The Hotel New Hampshire, and about his ongoing struggle to shepherd his screenplay of A Son of the Circus into production. In addition to its qualities as a memoir, anecdotal comic, affectionate, and candid, My Movie Business is an insightful essay on the essential differences between writing a novel and writing a screenplay. Never have the two forms of storytelling been so lucidly compared and contrasted. The details are memorable, the examples clarifying. My Movie Business includes photos by Stephen Vaughan, the still photographer on the film set of The Cider House Rules.

The House of Redgrave Tim Adler, 2011-09-22 From the landmark films of Tony Richardson to the untimely death of Natasha Richardson, this is the saga of one of the greatest dynasties in British film and theatre. In 1928, at the end of a production of Hamlet at the Old Vic, Laurence Olivier strode to the front of the stage to hush the audience and announced, pointing at his co-star Michael Redgrave, "Tonight a great actress has been born. Laertes has a daughter." He meant Vanessa Redgrave. That is where this dramatic book's story begins. It concludes in 2009 with the sudden and tragic death in a skiing accident of Vanessa's daughter, Natasha Richardson, and further family sorrow soon to follow with the deaths of both Corin and Lynn Redgrave. The story of this amazing family is explosive throughout, from the tangled private life of Tony Richardson, Natasha's father, who directed major films such as Look Back in Anger to Vanessa and Corin's complicated involvement with the Workers Revolutionary Party to the emergence of a fourth generation of fine actors with Natasha and Joely. There is truly never a dull moment, but plenty of scandal, melodrama, tragedy, and intrigue in the story of this remarkable dynasty whose contribution to British drama and film has been immense.

K. Patell,Deborah Lindsay Williams,2024-03-05 The Oxford History of the Novel in English is a twelve volume series presenting a comprehensive global and up to date history of English language prose fiction written by a large international team of scholars The series is concerned with novels as a whole not just the literary novel and each volume includes chapters on the processes of production distribution and reception and on popular fiction and the fictional sub genres as well as outlining the work of major novelists movements and tendencies This book offers an account of US fiction during a period demarcated by two traumatic moments the eve of the entry of the United States into the Second World War and the onset of the Covid 19 pandemic The aftermath of the Second World War was arguably the high point of US nationalism but in the years that followed US writers would increasingly explore the possibility that US democracy was a failure both at home and abroad For so many of the writers whose work this volume explores the idea of nation became suspect as did the idea of national literature as the foundation for US writing Looking at post 1940s writing the literary historian might well chart a movement within literary cultures away from nationalism and toward what we would call cosmopolitanism a perspective that fosters conversations between the occupants of different cultural spaces and that regards difference as an opportunity to be embraced rather than a problem to be solved During this period the novel has had significant competition for the US public's attention from other forms of narrative and media film television comic books videogames and the internet and the various forms of social media that it spawned If however the novel becomes a residual form during this period it is by no means archaic The novel has been reinvigorated over the past eighty years by its encounters with both emergent forms such as film television comic books and digital media and the emergent voices typically associated with multiculturalism in the United States Encyclopedia of the American Novel Abby H.
