The Elementary School Teacher and the Course of Study, 1908 Cinema & Counter-History Marcia Landy, 2015-04-15 Despite claims about the end of history and the death of cinema visual media continue to contribute to our understanding of history and history making. In this book Marcia Landy argues that rethinking history and memory must take into account shifting conceptions of visual and aural technologies. With the assistance of thinkers such as Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari Cinema and Counter History examines writings and films that challenge prevailing notions of history in order to explore the philosophic aesthetic and political stakes of activating the past. Marshaling evidence across European African and Asian cinema Landy engages in a counter historical project that calls into question the certainty of visual representations and unmoors notions of a history firmly anchored in truth
