My Name Is Steven And I Am An Alcoholic:

Angels Hour Tom Renz, 2008-12 Angels Hour tells of a recovering alcoholic's therapy with a suicidal adolescent female Steven Renaldi age 40 is two years sober and employed as a clinical therapist at a mental health agency Jackie Sorrentino age 17 is referred to the agency after a suicide attempt The novel is structured in such a fashion as to demonstrate the parallels between the therapeutic process and the hero's journey as outlined in Joseph Campbell's The Hero With a Thousand Faces The central theme of the novel is that a good life must be earned Jackie initially responds to The Call to Adventure with resistance She is confrontational and often resorts to intellectualization as a means to thwart Steven's clinical interventions Crossing The Threshold is the next stage of Jackie's therapy Here she begins to uncover unconscious memories They are of such trauma that a second suicide attempt occurs When Jackie ventures Beyond The Watcher in her therapy she experiences a level of psychic unease that results in several cancelled sessions Dream analysis becomes an integral part of therapy Entering The Belly Of The Whale Jackie becomes immersed in unconscious energy that yields clues to childhood mysteries The Road Of Trials is the stage of Jackie's therapy where the work of processing losses in her life commences More clues are revealed A precipice in therapy is reached when Jackie faces her Dark Satori the secret of her past She must now decide what to do with this knowledge Jackie's therapeutic journey ends and she achieves A Freedom To Live by moving beyond loss and into new adventures A subtext of the novel is Steven's own journey His gradual ascension from sarcastic struggling alcoholic to one who can see the beauty and wonder of life is illustrated in chapters alternating with Jackie's journey The author is fifty four years old He possesses a B A in psychology and an M A in Child Development He has been employed as a clinical social worker for the past twenty five years specializing in the treatment of adolescents and their families He is the author of The Tao of Creative Caddying

A Vicious Cycle Justin Witte, 2003 This book is about my relationship with another addict I am an alcoholic and I have used every drug there is People told me at times in my life that I was incapable of getting sober but I eventually did but this book is about how I was just as powerless over another person as I was over my own drinking I was an extremely hostile person for a big part of my life and I was someone who could either be extremely loving or extremely cruel My cruelty was all with my words I have had doctors and psychiatrists ask me how I think of the insults that I think of but this book is about my definition of love wanting the best for someone and taking the necessary steps to carry that out and because of what I learned in this story I try and practice that with everyone today

My Name Is Steven and I Am an Alcoholic Steven M. Berez, 2004-07 Steven Berez was born in Los Angeles California in 1955 When Steven reached 14 years of age he began to participate in the 1960s glamour of drugs and alcohol This continued until he was brought to his knees by the disease of addiction at the age of 28 Steven checked into a drug rehab program and began his one day at a time lifelong battle with addiction This book is a rare deep insight into the thought process of those who suffer from addiction

That Un-Presentable Dark Scene Tim Gilson,2012-10-29 So do you know the other side of the story of This Present Darkness by Frank Peretti Do you know how things really happened in that small college town Well let me tell you the other side of the story of how things really happened there Things that both worlds would rather that you didnt know Things that could be wellembarassing for both the dark side as well as the light Prepare yourself for That Un Presentable Dark Scene Between Boyfriends Michael Salvatore,2010 Having lived the single life for four years since a relationship gone wrong gay Italian Catholic soap opera producer Steven Ferrante finally strikes out to find love again A first novel Original To Hell and Back Steven B. Heird,2014-07-01 A candid and enlivening story of one surgeon s path from addiction to recovery Take time to nurture your soul with this honest account Gay Hendricks PhD New York Times bestselling author of The Big Leap To Hell and Back chronicles the life of Dr Steven B Heird and the battle with addiction that put his loving family booming medical practice and years of education at risk After a spiritual awakening in a rehabilitation hospital he began to see light and love in all places finally able to identify the things that made him experience true happiness In addition to sharing his own harrowing yet hope filled journey Heird offers twelve unique prescriptions intended to guide readers on their own path to awareness Once you read this book you will have something refillable that will never run out for a life you absolutely love living This book is medicine for your soul Mary Morrissey bestselling author of Brave Thinking Maggie Terry Sarah Schulman,2018-09-11 Maggie Terry is the most beautiful most bitter most sweet and all around best detective novel I ve read in years Precise insightful heartbreaking and page turning Sara Gran author of The Infinite Blacktop Post rehab Maggie Terry is single mindedly trying to keep her head down in New York City There s a madman in the White House the subways are constantly delayed summer is relentless and neighborhoods all seem to blend together Against this absurd backdrop Maggie wants nothing more than to slowly re build her life in hopes of being reunited with her daughter But her first day on the job as a private investigator lands her in the middle of a sensational new case actress strangled If Maggie is going to solve this mystery she ll have to shake the ghosts dead NYPD partner vindictive ex steadfast drug habit that have long ruled her life Sarah Schulman is a literary chronicler of the marginalized and subcultural focusing on queer urban life She is the author of several books including The Gentrification of the Mind Conflict Is Not Abuse and The Cosmopolitans She is Distinguished Professor of the Humanities at CUN Y and teaches creative writing at the College of Staten Island Not Just an Alcoholic Clare Elizabeth Midgley,Steven Midgley ,2025-03-08 I promised Steven his story would be told and this is it Steven is a highly intelligent and distinctive young man who evolves into an anxious teenager and a mentally struggling adult Throughout his life he is labelled with a variety of diagnoses Asperger s Obsessive Compulsive Disorder Bipolar Disorder Personality Disorder and simply an alcoholic each one reflecting his ongoing battle for consistent effective and comprehensive care His story told with unflinching honesty and dark humour chronicles the many harrowing moments of his journey suicide attempts a hospital stay where he is handcuffed to a bed and periods of disappearing without a trace Through these vivid accounts Steven shares the painful path of his descent into mental illness and addiction He describes his experiences with mental health professionals many of whom failed to engage with him or earn his trust His mother fills in the gaps recounting the parts of Steven s story he cannot remember and providing the final poignant pieces to this narrative of grief struggle and loss Compelling and brilliantly crafted Steven s voice his pain frustration anger and raw honesty pierces through offering a rare glimpse into the depths of mental illness This book is both heartbreaking and enlightening and I expect it to profoundly impact anyone who reads it Congratulations on your courage to share Steven s story Mike McInnes Author This book offers a unique and invaluable insight into the lives of those who suffer from Bipolar Disorder and the families who stand beside them Its powerful messages are a must read for anyone in the mental health field from students to professionals Jane Maffey Senior Lecturer Teesside University How I Got To Hope Steven R. Adelman,2012-12-15 All my life included feeling awkward not fitting in low self esteem bullying mental illness arson theft vandalism special education depression marijuana addiction alcoholism drug abuse sexual promiscuities suicide encounters with the law accidents illnesses and more The different paths taken over the years led me down an even more destructive cycle experiencing despair loss of meaning fear and insanity I finally realized for myself that I had a huge problem No longer did I feel any doctor medicine or drug could ever help me manage anything in my life My chance at any future was hopeless The last little bit of power I thought within me was extinguished There were a few horrible ways this could have ultimately ended Luckily I found the road to recovery including the 12 steps This part of my story explains in great detail the very beginning of my new life and the first five years afterward That takes me to the point of writing this book Doing this was my way of expressing gratitude and trying to carry a message to others who feel alone and without hope like I once did There is hope
