unforgettable story comes to vivid life in Callaghan's lucid compassionate prose Ontological Necessities Priscilla Uppal, 2006 Written with the verve of the uninhibited artist but with a clarity of thought and expression more akin to the scientist or scholar these poems investigate the emotional and philosophical struggles of contemporary life Often sparked by the horrors depicted in today's news the poems combine surrealist images with spare and lyrical language to grapple with an increasingly absurd world The most ambitious piece in the collection is a radical post 9/11 translation of the Anglo Saxon elegy The Wanderer and other poems include Don Quixote You Sure Can Take One Helluva Beating Film Version of My Hatred Never Held a Gun and The Romantic Impulse Hits the Schoolyard Midnight Stroll Janice Kulyk Keefer, Nataalka Husar, Claire Weissman Wilks, Goran Petkovsky, 2006 A unique collaboration that explores themes of love and family this collection features poems that are based on works of art placed alongside the very works that inspired them It includes paintings by Nataalka Husar drawings monotypes and lithographs by Claire Weissman Wilks and photographs by Goran Petkovsky Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies: A-J Gaetana Marrone, 2007 Publisher description Asterisks David Wevill, 2007 Poems written with clarity and craftsmanship this collection contemplates what is real and observable versus what is not The verses are like asterisks that refer to somewhere else and they strike with meditative depth and spiritual strength Drawn from experiences in Burma England Spain and the United States these words depict moments in time and step back into silence Human Aude, 2006 Using delicate prose and intense imagery this translation explores the relationship and struggle of the human body and its inner being Completely paralyzed by Lou Gehrig's disease Magali is imprisoned in her own body able to communicate only by blinking her eyes Feeling mentally free but physically trapped she reflects on her past and regards her present physical existence as a prison A relationship formed between Magali and her doctor gives one of them the hope to live and the other the grace to die A Little Tour Through European Poetry John Taylor, 2017-09-08 This book is both a sequel to author John Taylor's earlier volume Into the Heart of European Poetry and something different It is a sequel because this volume expands upon the base of the previous book to include many more European poets It is different in that it is framed by stories in which the author juxtaposes his personal experiences involving European poetry or European poets as he travels through different countries where the poets have lived or worked Taylor explores poetry from the Czech Republic Denmark Lithuania Albania Romania Turkey and Portugal all of which were missing in the previous gathering analyzes heady verse written in Galician and presents an important poet born in the Chuvash Republic His tour through European poetry also adds discoveries from countries whose languages he reads fluently Italy Germany and German speaking Switzerland Greece and France Taylor's model is Valery Larbaud to whom his criticism with its liveliness and analytical clarity is often compared Readers will enjoy a renewed dialogue with European poetry especially in an age when translations are rarely reviewed present in literary journals or studied in schools This book along with Into the Heart of European Poetry motivates a dialogue by bringing foreign poetry out of the specialized confines of foreign
