My Rhodesia:

Utopia/Dystopia Michael D. Gordin, Helen Tilley, Gyan Prakash, 2010-08-23 The concepts of utopia and dystopia have received much historical attention. Utopias have traditionally signified the ideal future large scale social political ethical and religious spaces that have yet to be realized. Utopia Dystopia offers a fresh approach to these ideas. Rather than locate utopias in grandiose programs of future totality the book treats these concepts as historically grounded categories and examines how individuals and groups throughout time have interpreted utopian visions in their daily present with an eye toward the future. From colonial and postcolonial Africa to pre Marxist and Stalinist Eastern Europe from the social life of fossil fuels to dreams of nuclear power and from everyday politics in contemporary India to imagined architectures of postwar Britain this interdisciplinary collection provides new understandings of the utopian dystopian experience. The essays look at such issues as imaginary utopian perspectives leading to the 1856 57 Xhosa Cattle Killing in South Africa the functioning racist utopia behind the Rhodesian independence movement the utopia of the peaceful atom and its global dissemination in the mid 1950s the possibilities for an everyday utopia in modern cities and how the Stalinist purges of the 1930s served as an extension of the utopian dystopian relationship. The contributors are Dipesh Chakrabarty Igal Halfin Fredric Jameson John Krige Timothy Mitchell Aditya Nigam David Pinder Marci Shore Jennifer Wenzel and Luise White Rhodesia's Hangover

Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1969 Where Leopards Cough Trevor Frost, 2014-07-21 A true story of life in Africa under extreme conditions where there's nothing to depend on other than your wits and an ability to improvise. A man his dog Major and a small group of helpers trucked across seemingly insurmountable mountainous terrain laden with drilling equipment and supplies to survive off the land in isolation for months. Extreme danger and excitement at times life threatening abounds coupled with the beauty of nature and her wildlife. The author provides his readers with a slice of colonial life in the 1960s describing progress through childhood enduring army training discovering pleasures of the opposite sex exploring career options and finally settling into what became a long career in exploration diamond drilling. It is also a story of love. Shortly after the contract in Ruangwa Valley the author's isolated and lonely life changed dramatically. He married a beautiful city girl who had never experienced camping let alone the tough life in remote areas in the bush. Their two sons were born living under these conditions. The book ends as the young family leaves Zimbabwe settling in Botswana.

The sequel Scorched Sands of the Kalahari will tell the story of their adventures in that country The Great Mystery Nick Salvo, 2014-07-29 This book highlights why creation is more likely than evolution How Noah's Flood is most probably responsible for certain natural phenomena like earthquakes volcanoes comets and the Grand Canyon just to name a few Why Satan is so effective Where we will end up according to the Book of Revelation These are just a few of the interesting facts covered in this book The Parliamentary Debates (official Report). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords, 1927 AF Press Clips, 1979 The Last Will and Testament of Cecil John Rhodes Cecil Rhodes, 1902 Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Purchase, H. Graham Purchase, 2008 A fascinating book covering fourteen generations of the extended Purchase family The Purchase ancestors from England were related to Rev Charles Haddon Spurgeon from London and were missionaries to Southern Africa They settled in Northern Rhodesia and raised their families under very primitive conditions In addition to instilling Christian principles into local Africans they taught them common farming and building skills The descriptions of confrontations with wild animals and interactions with native Africans are at times riveting Successive generations of Purchases spread out all over the world The Parliamentary Debates Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords, 1923 So Far and No Further! Jrt Wood, 2012-05 So Far and No Further Rhodesia's Bid for Independence during the Retreat from Empire 1959-1965 Ian Smith's unilateral declaration of independence for Rhodesia now Zimbabwe on 11 November 1965 was seen by many as the act of a rebellious white minority seeking to preserve their privileged position in defiance of Britain's determination to shed her Empire and introduce rule by the African majority as soon as possible However the drama of UDI has long overshadowed and oversimplified the complexities of the preceding years In this account of that time based on sole access to the hitherto closed papers of Ian Douglas Smith and Sir Roy Welensky as well as extensive research at London's Public Record Office and in government and private collections elsewhere Dr J R T Wood chronicles the collision course on which Britain and Rhodesia were set after 1959 complementing his study of the fate of the Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland in his definitive The Welensky Papers A History of the Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland 1953-1963 Britain Wood shows was intent on shedding her Empire as quickly as possible against a backdrop of the Cold War and the rise of Chinese and Soviet sponsored African nationalism She delivered some 600 one man one vote constitutions to her fledgling nations and had no intention of granting Rhodesia independence on different terms Unlike Britain's other African possessions however Rhodesia had enjoyed self governance since 1923 The largely white Rhodesian electorate wary of the consequences of premature and ill prepared majority rule sought instead dominion status akin to that of Canada Australia and New Zealand Their intention was gradually to pave the way for majority rule since 1923 Rhodesia's electoral qualifications had excluded race. It was always understood that the African majority would acquire power; the concern was the speed and smoothness of that acquisition. Culminating in those dramatic days of November 1965 when Ian Smith concluded in the face of resolute British stonewalling that he had no alternative but UDI, this unique account is the first in a series which chronicles the course of events that ultimately led to Robert Mugabe's accession to power in 1980 and all that entailed.

Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature, 1905 Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature Anna Lorraine Guthrie, Bertha Tannehill, Neltje Marie Tannehill Shimer, 1910 Cold War in Southern Africa Sue Onslow, 2009-09-10. This edited volume examines the complexities of the Cold War in Southern Africa and uses a range of archives to develop a more detailed understanding of the impact of the Cold War environment upon the processes of political change. In the aftermath of European decolonization, the struggle between white minority governments and black liberation movements encouraged both sides to appeal for external support from the two superpower blocs. Cold War in Southern Africa highlights the importance of the global ideological environment on the perceptions and consequent behaviour of the white minority regimes, the Black Nationalist movements and the newly independent African nationalist governments. Together they underline the variety of archival sources on the history of Southern Africa in the Cold War and its growing importance in Cold War Studies. This volume brings together a series of essays by leading scholars based on a wide range of sources in the United States, Russia, Cuba, Britain, Zambia and South Africa. By focussing on a range of independent actors, these essays highlight the complexity of the conflict in Southern Africa: a battle of power blocs, of systems and ideas which intersected with notions and practices of race and class. This book will appeal to students of cold war studies, US foreign policy, African politics and International History. Sue Onslow has taught at the London School of Economics since 1994. She is currently a Cold War Studies Fellow in the Cold War Studies Centre, IDEAS.
