Coming to My Senses Alice Waters, 2018-05-22 The New York Times bestselling and critically acclaimed memoir from cultural icon and culinary standard bearer Alice Waters recalls the circuitous road and tumultuous times leading to the opening of what is arguably America's most influential restaurant When Alice Waters opened the doors of her little French restaurant in Berkeley California in 1971 at the age of 27 no one ever anticipated the indelible mark it would leave on the culinary landscape Alice least of all Fueled in equal parts by naiveté and a relentless pursuit of beauty and pure flavor she turned her passion project into an iconic institution that redefined American cuisine for generations of chefs and food lovers In Coming to My Senses Alice retraces the events that led her to 1517 Shattuck Avenue and the tumultuous times that emboldened her to find her own voice as a cook when the prevailing food culture was embracing convenience and uniformity Moving from a repressive suburban upbringing to Berkeley in 1964 at the height of the Free Speech Movement and campus unrest she was drawn into a bohemian circle of charismatic figures whose views on design politics film and food would ultimately inform the unique culture on which Chez Panisse was founded Dotted with stories recipes photographs and letters Coming to My Senses is at once deeply personal and modestly understated a quietly revealing look at one woman's evolution from a rebellious yet impressionable follower to a respected activist who effects social and political change on a global level through the common bond of food

Coming to My Senses James P. Kain, 2008-10-08 Book Description Coming to My Senses is a collection of old and new poems written over many years in many places So it is a kind of anthology of my works to date In putting it together I looked for common elements in order to group the poems and found five directions that the poems take Seeking Passage is about moving through changes in life looking forward or backward and recognizing the need for change Of Love and Loss is self explanatory poems responding to the heartache of love and memories gone Diversions if this is not the stuff of poetry I don't know what is Poetry for me then is a search and a celebration a revelation not an explanation or a comment on the world but rather a discovery of the inner life of thought and consciousness a coming to my senses and a reawakening of something with reverence The poetic moment is a moment that begins and ends in the minds silence and within that silence is a wide world of timeless utterances subtle responses and the feeding roots of new ideas The poetic moment is what ties philosophy to the real world what demands religion from the questing soul and what unveils the deeper values in an otherwise common and habitual world These poems are records of some of these moments They are meditations and reflections more than they are compositions The form each poem takes arises from the moment that still point of the turning world from the attempt to dissolve the outer consciousness and reach a pure state of cognition the origin of the question What is it in this life that seeks for something more There is something wistful in each attempt to find an answer and though the answer is in the end a mystery we must not forget that moment of illumination in which we first discovered that mystery gives birth to imagination who like a child gleams at every new thing
