Chimpanzee Memoirs Stephen Ross,Lydia Hopper,2022-05-10 Chimpanzees fascinate people for many reasons We are struck by the apes resemblance to humanity as seen in their use of tools and their complex social lives and we are moved by the threats that human activity poses to them Our awareness of our closest living relatives testifies to the efforts of the remarkable people who study these creatures and work to protect them What motivates someone to dedicate their lives to chimpanzees How does that reflect on our own species This book brings together a range of chimpanzee experts who tell powerful personal stories about their lives and careers It features some of the world's preeminent primatologists including Jane Goodall and Frans de Waal as well as representatives of a new generation from varied backgrounds In addition to field scientists the book features anthropologists biologists psychologists veterinarians conservationists and the director of a chimpanzee sanctuary Some grew up in the English countryside others in villages in Congo some first encountered chimpanzees in a zoo others in the forests surrounding their homes All are united by a common purpose to study and understand chimpanzees in order to protect them in the wild and care for them in zoos and sanctuaries Contributors share what inspired them what shaped their career choices and what motivates them to strive for solutions to the many challenges that chimpanzees face today

MEMOIR OF AN ARTIST Amitabh SenGupta,2014-06-26

Memoir of an Artist is a compelling account of an unpredictable life that stretches through India Nigeria and Paris As a student he was a witness to the student revolt in Paris in 1968 in the seventies he was in Nigeria observing the post Biafra scenario as a teacher in the university As a product of institutional education that shaped and groomed the new artists he realizes the impact of Eurocentric dialogue on Indian art so imposing that it makes Indian art in perpetual transit Again in the process of creating dialogue within Kolkata life author discovers contemporary art indeed has no social connectivity thus the educated progressive is unable to dialogue with the progressing art Indian modernism has become a manufactured brand within art commerce aligned to global marketing Meanwhile life has many spectrums and the author has observed the modernistic agenda exists in contemporary art as in many activities of Indian life but each is like an island without connectivity

This Shared Dream Kathleen Ann Goonan,2024-08-06 Kathleen Ann Goonan introduced Sam Dance and his wife Bette and their quest to alter our present reality for the better in her novel In War Times winner of the John W Campbell Memorial Award for Best Novel and ALA's Best Science Fiction Novel of 2008 Now in This Shared Dream she tells the story of the next generation The three Dance kids seemingly abandoned by both parents when they were younger are now adults and are all disturbed by memories of a reality that existed in place of their world The older girl Jill even remembers the disappearance of their mother while preventing the assassination of John F Kennedy Goonan has created a new kind of utopian Science Fiction novel in which the changes in history have created a present world that is in many ways superior to our own while in other worlds people strive to prevent their own erasure by restoring the ills to ours This Shared Dream is certainly the most provocative Science Fiction speculation of the year and perhaps the decade At the Publisher's request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied

Gloria - a Student'S Memoir of Intended Paths Priscilla Jacobson,2014-10-13 A speech professor and her student make a unique connection that changes each others lives Mrs Noble encourages Priscilla to engage in public speaking yet discovers in her student that where spoken words faltered writing flourished Priscilla driven to profess God in her speech is unsure what her professor believes When Mrs Noble approves a persuasive speech about Ronald Reagans character and values Priscilla begins an in depth research project on the Cold War The research reveals that Reagan was a former pacifist and Mikhail Gorbachev was a secret believer in God This memoir contains analogies and metaphors that thread the research into the research experience At the Reykjavik Summit an agreement could not be made because neither Reagan nor Gorbachev revealed their beliefs Both leaders were misunderstood A misunderstanding which must be clarified as the research is prepared for the symposium presentation A serendipitous path leads Priscilla to interview Mrs Noble only to discover her professors intended path was not the path on which she ended up Priscilla writes about unexpected detours Then Mrs Noble reveals a paper she formerly wrote quoting A Road Less Traveled By This intuitive student later analyzes the two papers How will Priscilla present Ronald Reagan in the Undergraduate Research Symposium when she soon discovers her professor is battling cancer Gloria A Students Memoir of Intended Paths is a message of hope and faith In it Priscilla looks up to God and Mrs Noble during a brief crossroads and an unforgettable experience      The Collected Memoirs Volume One Doris Grumbach,2018-11-20 Three memoirs about isolation aging and death from an author whose private self is as intelligent and generous as her public persona Publishers Weekly Fifty Days of Solitude Faced with a rare opportunity to experiment with true solitude Doris Grumbach decided to live in her coastal Maine home without speaking to anyone for fifty days A New York Times Notable Book the result is a quiet elegantly written recollection about what it means to write to be alone and to come to terms with mortality Publishers Weekly The Pleasure of Their Company As her eightieth birthday approaches Doris Grumbach uses the event as an opportunity both to look backward and to grow She weaves a delightful tapestry of surprising and meaningful observations allowing readers a glimpse into her life and the characters that have peopled her nearly eight decades on Earth Library Journal Extra Innings This New York Times Notable Book follows a year in Doris Grumbach s life beginning with the release of her memoir Coming into the End Zone and revealing that she possesses as keen an eye in her seventies as she did when she wrote The Spoil of Flowers thirty years earlier In this clear honest picture of her own old age Grumbach details each passing month with their trials and triumphs Library Journal      The Memoir and the Memoirist Thomas Larson,2007-05-15 The memoir is the most popular and expressive literary form of our time Writers embrace the memoir and readers devour it propelling many memoirs by relative unknowns to the top of the best seller list Writing programs challenge authors to disclose themselves in personal narrative Memoir and personal narrative urge writers to face the intimacies of the self and ask what is true In The Memoir and the Memoirist critic and memoirist Thomas Larson explores the craft and purpose of writing this new form Larson guides the reader from the autobiography and the personal essay to the memoir a genre focused on a particularly emotional relationship in the author s past an intimate story concerned more with who is remembering and why than with what is remembered The Memoir and the Memoirist touches on the nuances of memory of finding and telling the truth and of disclosing one s deepest self It explores the craft and purpose of personal narrative by looking in detail at more than a dozen examples by writers such as Mary Karr Frank McCourt Dave Eggers Elizabeth Wurtzel Mark Doty Nuala O Faolain Rick

Bragg and Joseph Lelyveld to show what they reveal about themselves Larson also opens up his own writing and that of his students to demonstrate the hidden mechanics of the writing process For both the interested reader of memoir and the writer wrestling with the craft The Memoir and the Memoirist provides guidance and insight into the many facets of this provocative and popular art form

Memoirs of Oysters Eli, 2025-08-07 What do people and oysters have in common Both carry something precious within In this evocative collection of short stories Human Oysters explore some of the profound memories and defining moments that are nurtured in the secret chambers of minds and hearts Each story offers a glimpse into the lives of ordinary people caught in extraordinary moments of longing love regret and reflection Come meet the people behind the stories and the stories within the people From a father preparing to part with his daughter on her wedding day to a mother awaiting her son's visit during her final moments from unexpected reunions to a chance encounter from a meet cute experience to a journey of fulfilling promises these tales take us into the quiet that unveils pure emotions Step into the world of human oysters and witness the love beauty pain and extraordinary resilience of the stories we carry within

Memoirs of An Unfit Mother Anne Robinson, 2001-12-18 Who is Anne Robinson She's the notorious grand inquisitor of the television sensation The Weakest Link She's the first woman in nearly half a century to host a prime time game show She's the highest paid female journalist in British history She warrants fan mail and death threats fear and loathing unqualified admiration and unabashed hatred But what you don't know about the Host from Hell could fill a book From pioneering journalist to overnight pop culture phenomenon Anne Robinson tells all with the same bar nothing candor that won her the honor of rudest woman on TV Britain's TVTimes But now Anne Robinson trains her steely eyed focus on her own past With unblinking honesty she shares the events of her formative upbringing by a sensitive father and a driven hardworking mother who was part magic part monster With unreserved pride she reveals the headline making battles to carve out her own career as a journalist a controversial consumer reporter and a BBC anchor a calling that took its toll on a troubled marriage and a sensational highly publicized custody battle And with biting humor Anne Robinson explores what brought her to her latest level of infamy the autocratic style withering glance and stinging lash of the lady in black landing her in the unique position of being both the most popular and unpopular television personality in history This is Anne Robinson Are you game Seasons and Memories Stanley Evans Abbott, 2017-04-20 My autobiography begins in 1939 It illustrates a rather exciting journey However writing this in my seventies some events and parts of my life have been forgotten or just plain omitted due to the fact that I thought them either boring or unnecessary As you read through these memoirs you may discover a new awareness that every person has their own individual journeys and quests May mine have an impact on you I hope your own journey is as enlightening as mine was The two most important days in your life are the day you are born and the day you find out why Mark Twain Birthright Mark David Gerson, 2024-03-22 YOU HAVE A BOOK IN YOU IT'S TIME TO LET IT OUT 10th Anniversary Edition of an Enduring Classic Revised Expanded Intimate informative and infused with Gerson's unmistakable passion Birthright is a must read for anyone who has ever felt the call to share their stories with the world Let this book be your trusted companion illuminating the path as you navigate the exhilarating and transformative process of birthing a book 82% of Americans say they plan to write a book someday Will you be one of the few who does Let Mark David Gerson show you how simple it can be with dynamic tools to get you started and keep you writing surefire techniques to spark new ideas and fresh content and compelling inspiration to keep you motivated committed and impassioned Start Birthright Today You don't even have to know what it's about From Miman, With Love: A Grandmother's Memoir Metty Vargas Pellicer, 2015-10-01 Writing with a robust and steady voice this memoir written by a grandmother to her granddaughter has a unique frame that is emotionally compelling It will appeal to readers interested in personal accounts of immigration particularly stories from the Philippines Her sense of humor and love of the Philippines infuse the book with a sense of wonder She writes about overcoming challenges in gender and racial discrimination making it in America and the importance of believing in oneself Her vivid description is enthralling as she takes the reader along to see hear smell and touch her world She speaks eloquently of her late husband of being in love and of the displacement and pain of losing him In the end she offers closure and continuation of her journey dreaming new adventures and following a different road Fifty Sounds: A Memoir of Language, Learning, and Longing Polly Barton, 2022-03-15 For anyone who has ever yearned to master a new language Fifty Sounds is a visionary personal account and an indispensable resource for learning to think beyond your mother tongue

The language learning I want to talk about is sensory bombardment. It is a possession, a bedevilment, a physical takeover writes Polly Barton in her eloquent treatise on this profoundly humbling and gratifying act. Shortly before graduating with a degree in philosophy from the University of Cambridge, Barton on a whim accepted an English teaching position in Japan. With the characteristic ambivalence of a twenty-one-year-old whose summer and life stretched out almost infinitely before her, she moved to a remote island in the Sea of Japan unaware that this journey would come to define not only her career but her very understanding of her own identity. Divided into fifty onomatopoeic Japanese phrases, Fifty Sounds recounts Barton's path to becoming a literary translator fluent in an incredibly difficult vernacular. From min min, the sound of air screaming, to jin jin, the sound of being touched for the first time, Barton analyzes these and countless other foreign sounds and phrases as a means of reflecting on various cultural attitudes, including the nuances of conformity and the challenges of being an outsider in what many consider a hermetically sealed society. In a tour de force of lyrical, playful prose, Barton recalls the stifling humidity that first greeted her on the island, along with the incessant hum of peculiar new noises. As Barton taught English to inquisitive middle school children, she studied the basics of Japanese in an inverse way, beginning with simple nouns and phrases such as cat dog and Hello my name is. But when it came to surrounding herself in the culture, simply mastering the basics wasn't enough. Japanese Barton learned has three scripts: the phonetic katakana and hiragana, collectively known as kana, and kanji, characters of Chinese origin. Despite her months-long immersion in the language, a word would occasionally produce a sinking feeling and send her sifting through her dictionaries to find the exact meaning. But this is precisely how Barton has come to define language learning: It is the always bruised but ever-renewing desire to draw close to a person, a territory, a culture, an idea, an indefinable feeling. Engaging and penetrating, Fifty Sounds chronicles everything from Barton's most hilarious misinterpretations to her new friends and lovers in Tokyo and even the influence of Ludwig Wittgenstein's transformative philosophy. A classic in the making in the tradition of Anne Carson and Rachel Cusk, Fifty Sounds is a celebration of the empowering act of learning to communicate in any new language.

The Mole: The Cold War Memoir of Winston Bates Peter Warner, 2013-10-22. A fictitious account of an untrained spy's pivotal role in many of the 20th century's significant political happenings.

The Top Books of the Year My Serendipity Memoirs The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the captivating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. My Serendipity Memoirs : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. My Serendipity Memoirs : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
