Brownstone,Irene M. Franck,2001 The massive worldwide emigration to the United States has been a major feature of world history for more than five centuries and into the present day Facts About American Immigration explores this extraordinary saga focusing on who came to the U S and from where their reasons for coming the nature of their journey and where they settled starting with the earliest Americans who crossed the Bering Land Bridge into Alaska between 12 000 and 15 000 B C

The volume is a practical resource for historians and sociologists as well as a boon to genealogical researchers. The work opens with an overview including extensive statistical materials to place the process of immigration in a wide historical context. This section also includes a survey of the efforts to restrict immigration, a portrait of the immigrant journey over the centuries, a discussion of Native Americans and immigration, and a chronology of immigration. The main section of the book delves into immigration experiences, numbers, and motives by region of emigration: Europe, Africa, Asia, the Americas, and Oceania. Each section begins with a brief introduction to the region followed by a series of articles focusing on specific countries or groups of countries. Articles include tables and graphs that summarise and portray statistical information relating to immigration as well as related Internet and print resources. Each regional section ends with tables and graphs summarising the pattern of immigration from the region plus general Internet and print resources.
