My Sonmy Son A Guide To Healing After A Suicide In The Family:

My Son, My Son Iris Bolton, Curtis Mitchell, 1984 Suicide in Schools Terri A. Erbacher, Jonathan B. Singer, Scott Poland, 2014-11-20 Suicide in Schools provides school based professionals with practical easy to use guidance on developing and implementing effective suicide prevention assessment intervention and postvention strategies Utilizing a multi level systems approach this book includes step by step guidelines for developing crisis teams and prevention programs assessing and intervening with suicidal youth and working with families and community organizations during and after a suicidal crisis The authors include detailed case examples innovative approaches for professional practice usable handouts and internet resources on the best practice approaches to effectively work with youth who are experiencing a suicidal crisis as well as those students families school staff and community members who have suffered the loss of a loved one to suicide Readers will come away from this book with clear step by step guidelines on how to work proactively with school personnel and community professionals think about suicide prevention from a three tiered systems approach how to identify those who might be at risk and how to support survivors after a traumatic event all in a practical user friendly format geared especially for the needs of school based professionals Grief After Suicide John R. Jordan, John L. McIntosh, 2011-01-19 A suicide leaves behind more victims than just the individual And yet there are very few professional resources that provide the necessary background research and tools to effectively work with the survivors This edited volume addresses the need for an up to date professionally oriented summary of the clinical and research literature on the impact of suicide bereavement on survivors Suicidology Ronald W. Maris, 2019-03-04 Integrating research from multiple disciplines this text provides a comprehensive perspective on suicide and examines what works in prevention and intervention The author is a pioneering researcher and clinician who addresses the classification prevalence and assessment of suicide and self destructive behaviors and explores risk factors at multiple levels from demographic variables personality traits psychiatric diagnoses and neurobiological factors to the social and cultural context Student friendly features include text boxes that dive deeply into specific issues instructive figures and tables thought provoking clinical cases and engaging examples from literature and popular culture The text reviews medical and psychosocial treatment and prevention approaches discusses ways to help those bereaved by suicide and considers issues of professional liability Not With My Life I Don't Howard Rosenthal, 2015-10-23 Discusses the causes of suicide and how it may be prevented Also examines suicidal behavior and how a person s will may be used to save his or her life Helping Bereaved Parents Richard G. Tedeschi, Lawrence G. Calhoun, 2004-03-01 This book provides a concise yet comprehensive guide to effective work with bereaved parents combining a broad overview of current research theory and practice with the authors own extensive clinical experience Transcripts of individual couple and group meetings illustrate the delicate subtleties of this work giving the reader helpful insights into more effective clinical practice The authors emphasize the importance of approaching each parent as a unique person while also considering the socio cultural context of the bereaved This book helps clinicians approach work with bereaved parents with a less scripted format suggesting an alternative role as expert companion to the bereaved allowing for a more uplifting experience for both parties Postvention in Action Karl Andriessen, Karolina Kryszynska, Onja Grad, 2019-12-09 A unique and comprehensive handbook presenting the state of the art in suicide bereavement support Suicide is not merely the act of an individual it always has an effect on others and can even increase the risk of suicide in the bereaved The International Association for Suicide Prevention the World Health Organisation and others have recognized postvention as an important strategy for suicide prevention This unique and comprehensive handbook authored by nearly 100 international experts including researchers clinicians support group facilitators and survivors presents the state of the art in suicide bereavement support The first part examines the key concepts and the processes that the bereaved experience and illustrates them with illuminating clinical vignettes The second and third parts look in detail at suicide bereavement support in all the relevant settings including general practices the workplace online and many others as well as in specific groups such as health care workers In the concluding section the support provided for those bereaved by suicide in no less than 23 countries is explored in detail showing that postvention is becoming a worldwide strategy for suicide prevention These chapters provide useful lessons and inspiration for extending and improving postvention in new and existing areas This unique handbook is thus essential reading for anyone involved in suicide prevention or postvention research and practice
