My Soul Looks Back Journeys In Faith:

My Soul Looks Back James H. Cone, 1986 What is the relationship James Cone asks between my training as a theologian and the black struggle for freedom For what reason has God allowed a poor black boy from Bearden to become a professional systematic theologian As I struggled with these questions I could not escape the overwhelming conviction that God's spirit was calling me to do what I could for the enhancement of justice in the world especially on behalf of my people My Soul Looks Back chronicles the author's grappling with these questions as well as his formulation of an answer an answer that would lead to the development of a black theology of liberation Firmly rooted in the black church tradition James Cone relates the formative features of his faith journey from his childhood experience in Bearden Arkansas and his father's steadfast resistance to racism through racial discrimination in graduate school to his controversial articulation of a faith that seeks to break the shackles of racial oppression In describing his more recent encounters with feminist Marxist and Third World thinkers James Cone provides a compelling description of liberation theology and a vivid portrayal of what it means to profess a faith that does justice Back cover

Baring My Soul - A Journey of Faith Julie Roberts, 2004 Ten days after one's son has been killed may seem to be a strange time to start writing a book It is a time of raw emotion and intense pain but for the author this was combined with an unyielding feeling that there was a story to be told This is the true story of a life unfolding of events coming together in the most unlikely ways and an increasing awareness of God in everyday life The situations encountered illness redundancy a new career and a tragic bereavement light the way of a spiritual path and invite readers to consider their own spiritual journey The disappointments the insights and the grief are shared with readers in a compelling book which written from the heart offers hope and inspiration to anyone facing the challenges of life My Soul

Looks Back in Wonder Juan Williams, 2005 One of the most pivotal moments in American history is brought to light through stirring thought provoking eyewitness accounts from people who have played active roles in the civil rights movement over the past 50 years

My Soul Look Back in Wonder Geneva Napoleon Smitherman, 2022-01-31 This is the story of Dr Geneva Smitherman aka Dr G the pioneering linguist often referred to as the Queen of Black Language In a series of narrative essays Dr G writes eloquently and powerfully about the role of language in social transformation and the academic intellectual linguistic and societal debates that shaped her groundbreaking work as a Black Studies O G and a Womanist scholar activist of African American Language These eleven essays narrate the development of Dr G's race gender class and linguistic consciousness as a member of the Black Power Generation of the 1960s and 70s In My Soul Look Back In Wonder Dr G links the personal to the professional and the political situating the struggles and successes of a Black woman in the Academy within the historical experiences and development of her people As Dr G enters her eighth decade in this Black Lives Matter historical moment she seeks to share the meaning and purpose of a life of study and struggle and its significance for all those who seek racial and social justice today The Oxford Handbook of African American Theology

Katie G. Cannon, Anthony B. Pinn, 2014-07-01 Named an Honor Book for Nonfiction by the Black Caucus of the American Library Association African American theology has a long and important history With modern roots in the civil rights movements of the 1960s African American theology has gone beyond issues of justice and social transformation to participate in broader dialogues of theological inquiry The Oxford Handbook of African American Theology brings together leading scholars in the field to offer a critical and comprehensive analysis of this theological tradition in its many forms and contexts Using an interdisciplinary approach this Oxford Handbook examines the nature structures and functions of African American Theology The volume surveys the field by highlighting its sources doctrines internal debates current challenges and future prospects in order to present key topics related to the wider palette of Black Religion in a sustained scholarly format This formative collection presents current scholarship on African American Theology and scripture eschatology Christology womanist theology sexuality ontology the global economy and much more The contributors represent a diverse set of faith perspectives adding to the layered discourses within the volume These essays further important discussions on the pressing debates and challenges that shape black and womanist theologies Handbook on Postconservative Theological Interpretation Ronald T. Michener, Mark A. Lamport, 2024-10-24 Postconservative theology may be said to parallel with postliberal theology at its best Orthodox biblical but open to new insights about how to interpret Scripture But the new insights must be faithful as well as fresh Postconservative theology is not the same as progressive theology which tends to lean toward indeterminant faith expressions whereas postconservative allows for particular faith commitments and expressions but understands that the constructive task of theology is never finished Authors emphasize various interpretive theological lenses used for doing theology among various postconservative theologians rather than emphasizing the philosophical background to hermeneutical theory present in other works such as past influential thinkers including Gadamer Grondin Ricoeur Heidegger etc This resource could also function as a companion to Evangelical Theological Method Five Views 2018 This emphasis of the chapters will not be on the nuts and bolts of how to interpret but rather on the theological impulses that govern various lenses Bible cultural context etc for doing theology and the way Scripture functions with respect to the practice of interpretation The Divided Mind of the Black Church Raphael G Warnock, 2023-11-21 An altar call to action from the U S senator and senior pastor at Atlanta s Ebenezer Baptist Church Publishers Weekly What is the true nature and mission of the church Is its proper Christian purpose to save souls or to transform the social order This question is especially fraught when the church is one built by an enslaved people and formed from its beginning at the center of an oppressed community s fight for personhood and freedom Such is the central tension in the identity and mission of the Black church in the United States For decades the Black church and Black theology have held each other at arm s length Black theology has emphasized the role of Christian faith in addressing racism and other forms of oppression arguing that Jesus urged his disciples to seek the freedom of all peoples Meanwhile the Black church even when focused on social concerns has often emphasized personal piety rather than social protest With the rising influence of white evangelicalism biblical fundamentalism and the prosperity gospel the divide has become even more pronounced This book traces the historical significance of the rise and development of Black theology as an important conversation partner for the Black church Calling for honest dialogue between Black and womanist theologians and Black pastors this fresh theological treatment demands a new look at the church's essential mission An informative work for historians theologians and humanities scholars interested in debating what the Black Church needs to be doing in the 21st century Journal of African American History As a person who is not Black reading this book provided a learning experience for me I could also see this book serving as a way to spark discussion involving all ethnic groups as to how we can all as fellow Christians blend the goals of saving lost people and moving the culture toward equality for everyone Ministry Well written and meticulously researched The Christian Century

A Common Journey George C. L. Cummings, 2010-01-01 A Common Journey provides the first comprehensive critical comparison of two of theology's most influential movements Black theology in the United States BTUSA and Latin American liberation theology LALT The near simultaneous emergence and growth of these two movements is only the most obvious of the similarities between them More importantly both have fostered a new theology from the perspective of the disenfranchised the powerless and the oppressed

Voices in the Wilderness John L. Thomas Jr., 2018-01-30 FINALLY a scholarly description of the development of Black preaching in the United States that is accessible to the average reader but also contributes to the academic conversation about both style and theological content Written from the perspective of a seasoned practitioner and tenured practical theologian Thomas surveys Black preaching as it has responded to various social and historical time periods Starting with the brutality of chattel slavery early formations in segregated Southern life rapid migration to and urbanization in Northern cities and various events throughout the post civil rights era the book gives convincing details and examples of how the Black preacher helped to guide and sustain the masses of African American people through the wilderness of social change At the heart of the book three prime examples are presented as models of the real genius of Black preaching The reader will never again think about Reverend Martin Luther King Jr Malcolm X and the Reverend Jesse Jackson in the same way A special chapter is devoted to the contributions of Black women preachers along with a closing chapter that makes new proposals for the future The book is a provocative and critical analysis of why Black preaching still matters

No Shame in Wesley's Gospel Dr. Edward P. Wimberly, 2011-05-01 As an African American who was a senior pastor in both white and black churches between 1966 and 1974 Edward Wimberly encountered shame as the feeling of being unloved and being unlovable primarily when his parishioners and counselees experienced a loss of a loved one Grief was the dominant psychological category for talking about loss in those days and the feeling of shame of being abandoned and resulting in feelings of being unloved were described as temporary However in the middle 1980s pastoral theologians began to recognize shame as a dominant psychological and spiritual long lasting experience that needed to be addressed Thus pastoral counselors and pastoral theologians began to explore psychological object relations theory self psychology and the psychology of shame to understand the persistence of the experience of shame Today shame as the feeling of being unloved and unlovable is a major experience of many modern people given the nature of the loss of relational connections and close knit communities Many psychologies are surfacing focusing on cultural narcissism or selfish love the cult of self admiration which is replacing self actualization and the equating of wealth and social status with being loved Growing up in the Methodist tradition in an African American church Wimberly was sensitized to John Wesley s small group experience hearing about the class meetings Moreover he had been exposed to the use of small groups in Zimbabwe Africa in 1998 based on African Methodists attempts to recover the village which was disappearing on account of technology industrialization and the colonialism s destruction of the family Thus based on the author s family of origin community s fascination with Wesley s small group and witnessing this same phenomenon in Africa Wimberly decided to explore Wesley s cell group practical theology for its contribution to twenty first century ministry to people who could be classified as relational refugees

My Journey Percy Jones, 2019-01-29 I want to thank God and the Lord Jesus Christ for using me to write such a great story I was in the music business for twenty six years and had only minor success and I retired from the business with the satisfaction that I gave it my best effort but also a what if I would have made it sigh in my heart I loved God and served him for many years but nothing could prepare a person for something like this The table cracking during the writing sessions reminded me of a teacher hitting the desk with a ruler to get the class to be quiet Make no mistake about it the good Lord loved for me to sing to him the different gospel songs that I mentioned in the book and even some of my own songs from time to time but playing around and joking were not taken kindly of when it was time to go to work I was disobedient one time during the process and I felt a burning pain in my foot after one of the writing sessions that I talked about in the God will not be mocked chapter of the book The bottom line is we really are made in the image of God and we were intended to dwell with him on a daily basis My point is that the veil was gone That s how close we are to God We think of God in some faraway place and he is but he is also right beside us and he really wants to commune with us as a Savior who understands what we go through and feel I want to thank everyone that helped me along the way especially my fianc e Diamond I also want to acknowledge my roots from southern Virginia to my current home in Fort Washington MD The events in my journey were incredible but the main point was what my Savior Jesus Christ told me on the day he blessed me to have his spirit Tell my children to get right I am coming back soon Look at the events in the world now Hey children of God get right

Imagining Grace Kimberly Rae Connor, 2000 In this subtle and illuminating study Kimberly Rae Connor surveys examples of contemporary literature drama art and music that extend the literary tradition of African American slave narratives Revealing the powerful creative links between this tradition and liberation theology s search for grace she shows how these artworks profess a liberating theology of racial empathy and reconciliation even if not in traditionally Christian or sacred language From Frederick Douglass's autobiographical writings through Richard Wright's imaginative reconstruction of slavery to Ernest Gaines's Autobiography of Miss Jane Pittman and the candescent novels of Toni Morrison slave narratives exhort the reader to step into the experience of the dispossessed Connor underscores the broad influence of the slave narrative by considering nonliterary as well as literary works including Glenn Ligon's introspective art Anna Deavere Smith's one woman performance pieces and Charlie Haden's politically engaged Liberation Music Orchestra Through these works readers listeners and viewers imagine grace on two levels as the liberation of the enslaved from oppression and as their own liberation from prejudice and willed innocence Calling to task a complacent white society that turns a blind eye to deep seated and continuing racial inequalities Imagining Grace shows how these creative endeavors embody the search for grace seeking to expose racism in all its guises and lay claim to political intellectual and spiritual freedom Journey to That Great Day Sharon E. Wilkerson-Gilpin, 2012-08 Journey to that Great Day Stories of Families of Faith is the inspiring story of families who triumph over life's trials in our changing world through their active faith in God Their stories will deepen your faith and fuel your hope An inspirational book for people of all races and ages Journey to that Great Day unfolds the power of faith among families in American culture and history spanning from the South's reconstruction period to the 21st century Bringing to life the stories of dynamic families Journey to that Great Day explores the theme of families as ambassadors of peace hope unity and love Journey to Faith Doug Hammer, 2024-07-19 Over forty days and forty nights Doug brings us alongside him as he relives the extreme highs and lows spiritually as he desperately reaches out to God as he fasts knowing that this was to be his last chance to change his life around For years he had tried everything there was to reach out to God and to find favor in His heart never realizing that the answer was there all along right in front of him in the perfect words of the Holy Bible Stripped down to literally nothing but a few worldly possessions broke divorced rejected by his daughter and standing all alone in a world that cared nothing about him Doug thought that this was as good as it was going to get He was to be the world's punching bag for all the winners in life and was resigned to the reality that he was to be the loser everyone else would walk on to get what they wanted Little did he realize that in all the hurt frustration and hopelessness God was forcing him to take the only road left to him fasting God's thundering velvet hand was rebuilding him on His terms to be the spiritual warrior that he was always meant to be and whether Doug liked it or not God was going to reach into his heart and pull him into a relationship that fifty seven years of suffering and hurt could never stand up to God locked onto Doug and no matter how hard Satan attacked or Doug felt beaten God was there to pick him up and brush him off like a loving father with an unconditional love only a dad could give to his son In all of his desperate pleas to God for help Doug was being held at arm's length by God until he realized that what his Father in heaven was demanding of him was not perfection but a relationship built on love and faith God's hand was now locked on to Doug and as painful as life was in every facet of his being it was now as clear as the words of the Bible God had Doug right where He wanted him and there would be no more yesterdays of pain and failure but now a life drawn deep into God's heart and there's no looking back Pastoral Care Dr. Karen D. Scheib, 2016-02-16 Christian pastoral care is a narrative ecclesial theological practice NET As a narrative practice pastoral care attends to the inseparable interconnection between our own lifestories others stories the larger cultural stories and God's story As a ministry of the church pastoral care is an ecclesial practice that derives its motivation purpose and identity from the larger mission of the church to bear witness to and embody God's mission of love that extends beyond the church for the transformation of the world As a theological practice pastoral care is grounded in God's love story God's profound love for humankind heals our brokenness when human love fails and invites us into an ongoing process of growth in love of God self and neighbor Intended for those who provide care with and on behalf of religious communities author Karen Scheib focuses on listening and restorying practices occurring in the context and setting of congregations By coauthoring narratives that promote healing and growth in love pastoral caregivers become cocreators and companions who help others revise and construct life stories reshaped by the grace of God What Karen Scheib has done in this book is to reposition pastoral care as a theological activity performed in the context of the church She draws deeply upon her Wesleyan theological heritage upon an understanding of life in its fullness as growth in love and grace and upon a communion ecclesiology undergirded by a communal understanding of the Trinitarian life of God Thus grounded she envisions pastoral care first as a rhythm of the life of the whole church and secondarily as a work of trained pastors In her vision pastoral care is rescued from a narrow understanding of it as exceptional acts of intervention performed only in moments of dire crisis Instead it becomes a daily practice of pastoral care an attending in love to the stories of others and a listening for ways God is already present in a life story Solidly theological grounded in the life of the church and eminently teachable Karen Scheib has given us a great gift in this book from the Foreword Thomas G Long Bandy Professor of Preaching Emeritus Candler School of Theology Emory University Atlanta GA In a wonderfully engaging reflective and useful way Karen Scheib captures something absolutely essential to pastoral care and yet often overlooked the utter centrality of storytelling listening the power of stories to heal and their vital connection to bigger stories told within religious communities This book is a real milestone reclaiming the importance of narrative knowing and grounding care not only in community but also within a comprehensive theological framework Bonnie J Miller McLemore E Rhodes and Leona B Carpenter Professor of Religion Psychology and Culture The Divinity School and Graduate Department of Religion Vanderbilt University Divinity School Nashville TN Implementing narrative personality and therapy theories and anchored in ecclesiology and Wesleyan theology NET Karen Scheib's book advances a long awaited and holistic approach to pastoral care Her NET approach presents the embodiment of pastoral care by emphasizing both narrative and paradigmatic knowing proposes the subjectivity of our stories in pastoral care by pointing out the interchangeability between us and our stories as subject and object and underscores the dynamic process of pastoral care through the interconnection of the storyteller listener and context Scheib's image of story companion contributes to the field as a new paradigm of pastoral care and promises to be a significant resource in generating hope and growth in love for both pastoral caregiver and receiver Angella Son Associate Professor Drew University Madison NJ Pastoral theologian Scheib describes a narrative ecclesial and theological approach for listening to people's life stories in such a way as to engender spiritual formation and growth in love Scheib clarifies the connections between caring conversations and Christian theology Clear and accessible prose as well as helpful exercises and discussion starters make this a fine teaching text The Christian Century Sept 29 2016

Faith and Struggle in the Lives of Four African Americans Randal Maurice Jelks, 2019-01-10 In 1964 Muhammad Ali said of his decision to join the Nation of Islam I know where I'm going and I know the truth and I don't have to be what you want me to be I'm free to be what I want to be This sentiment the brash assertion of individual freedom informs and empowers each of the four personalities profiled in this book Randal Maurice Jelks shows that to understand the Black American experience beyond the larger narratives of enslavement emancipation and Black Lives Matter we need to hear the individual stories Drawing on his own experiences growing up as a religious African American he shows that the inner history of Black Americans in the 20th century is a story worthy of telling This book explores the faith stories of four African Americans Ethel Waters Mary Lou Williams Eldridge Cleaver and Muhammad Ali It examines their autobiographical writings interviews speeches letters and memorable performances to understand how each of these figures used religious faith publicly to reconcile deep personal struggles voice their concerns for human dignity and reinvent their public image For them liberation was not simply defined by material or legal wellbeing but by a spiritual search for community and personal wholeness

An Ethic for Enemies Donald W. Shriver, 1995 The author of this text examines how former enemies learn to live together in peaceful political association despite their suffering at each other's hands He seeks to reclaim the concept of forgiveness from personal and religious realms and restate its significance in political life

My Christian Journey: In Places Lived Marianne Dorman, 2016-01-06 Over the years people have commented Why don't you write about your life To write a chronological autobiography never appealed to me Thus I abandoned the idea until about five years ago when having morning tea with my Byzantium scholar friend in Sydney We were discussing some aspect of Classical Roman history when the subject of genius loci spirit of the place entered our conversation On the bus back to my flat in Lane Cove this idea kept niggling at me Perhaps I could write about the places loci in which I have lived and the effect of these on my Christian journey firstly as a child then as a student wife mother educator writer and an admirer of all that is beautiful as expressed in most music worship in the Eastern and some Western traditions literature painting people and the natural world The result is this book beginning in a small country town Cowra some three hundred kilometres south west of Sydney Australia then to a smaller island Great Britain where I lived mainly in Oxford and ending on yet a smaller island in Puget Sound Whidbey close to the Canadian border As well as being influenced by various places so by people These include Fr John Hope of Christ Church St Laurence Sydney as a teenager and the Lady Margaret Professor in Oxford Dr Rowan Williams when I first arrived in this University City Perhaps the person who influenced me mostly was not one I actually met in person but came to know through my research He is the divine Lancelot Andrewes who has been part of my life for more years than I can remember and whose sermons and devotions are embedded in my being In later years I have been grateful to the renowned biblical scholar Fr Raymond Brown who gave me a fresh and scholarly understanding of the New Testament Last but not least has been the Franciscan Fr Richard Rohr who has taught me the necessity of non dualistic consciousness for spiritual growth As much as places and people have helped to shape me none has more than the Potter and Pantocrator who has moulded and reshaped this lump of clay constantly in my Christian journey
