My Friends Live in Many Places Dorka Raynor, 1980-01-01 Photographs record the activities of children in many different countries

Friends' Intelligencer, 1863 The Friends' Library William Evans, Thomas Evans, 1847 The Auto Era, 1915 The Making of a Refugee

Tasoulla Hadjiyanni, 2002-03-30 Through an examination of interviews provided by 100 children of refugees in Cyprus born after their family's displacement Hadjiyanni illustrates the formation of a refugee consciousness an identity adopted by many children who never experienced the actual displacement of their family Focusing on the process by which a child born into a refugee family develops a refugee identity the book identifies nine dimensions that inform this consciousness Establishing the family as the primary transmitter of the refugee identity and the child as its constructor the author points to the power of homeplace in forming and supporting such an identity The book challenges the notion that refugee consciousness is a separate identity and a crisis by reinterpreting it as a resistance to adversity Shedding new light on what it means to be a refugee this work is a welcome addition to the field Beginning with a discussion of the meaning of the term refugee and how it has been adopted by the children of some refugees in Cyprus the author moves to an examination of the meaning of past and present to the formation of a refugee consciousness She then looks to the causes of such identity formation focusing on the transference of identity from parent to child and the effects of past loss on children who have not actually experienced displacement Housing issues are also examined as a contributing factor as refugee housing is typically distinct and constrained compared to housing for native citizens of a community The author concludes her work with a discussion of the implications of the Cyprus example for both the future and for general refugee studies

Children and Young People's Spaces Pam Foley, Stephen Leverett, 2018-06-26 This reader takes debates about children's services forward by drawing on ideas based in social pedagogy and arguing that the concept of space is crucial to relationships and practices with children and young people It will stimulate students to question and rethink and practitioners to innovate and challenge mainstream thinking

True Tales of a Traveller Volume Two Alix Lee, This book Volume Two of the True Tales of a Traveller series consists of three travel stories two substantial novella length stories separated by a story of short story length These stories can read separately but the best way to read them is to start with the first That principle applies to the whole series and also to this volume It isn't necessary however to read all the stories of Volume One to enjoy those related in Volume Two The book begins in late 1984 with the sixth tale in the series overall Culture Shock This story finds the young traveller myself taken from the relative orderliness of a life in London where he had been attempting with mixed results to pursue a career in travel related in the fifth story of the series A Career in Travel and throws him into the furious assault on the senses that constituted life in the Indian capital Delhi at that time The second story of this volume Just A Businessman is set in Indian administered Kashmir At nearly 17 000 words this account constitutes a lengthy short story which may need more than one sitting to read In addition to being a travel story Just A Businessman is also a story about religious and ethnic conflict and political upheavals and the extents to which these can affect the life of a traveller or an outsider Overlanding Part One is the third story in this volume and at over 46 000 words the longest story of the series so far for one of the shortest periods of actual travel Of all my travels in the 1980s in terms of time spent undoubtedly no journey made such a deep and lasting impression on me as this overland trip from Karachi to Rotterdam Not only did it unceremoniously blow away many of my own preconceived notions of life in Pakistan and Iran it was also a harsh lesson for me as a traveller in the virtues of being prepared for any journey into terra incognita Additionally the first part of the journey from Karachi to the Turkish border with Iran was relatively dangerous not due to involving difficult terrain but rather to man made hazards But overall the journey turned out to be something I originally had never suspected for a moment it would be an intensive course in the follies of racial prejudice and ethnic chauvinism Like all the other stories in the series these three stories provide not only entertaining reads but also information on all the places visited some relevant only to the era in which the story is set but most still relevant at the time of this book s publication
