Bond of Love Amy Suzanne,2013-12-06 As a picturesque mother and wife forty one year old Avery Richards seems to have it all Married to a successful veterinarian named Noah and mother to a spunky daughter named Kara her life is far from awful but she is stuck With the recent move of their daughter who has just flown the coop for college this story examines the deep and often tumultuous bond between mother and child and the lengths we are willing to go to as mothers to sacrifice our own happiness for the ones we love As we watch Avery walk through her new way of daily life without her ambitious and stubborn child around to mother any longer we are given a very unique opportunity to tip toe in the front row of their lives from three VERY separate views We will see life as it plays out through Avery s mature and motherly eyes through Kara's young and sheltered heart and then through someone else's eyes that has a deeply vested interest in them both As Avery's well hidden web of lies come crashing down in an unexpected way her secrets that she's safeguarded for years will threaten to rip her peaceful world apart as well as the world of the ones she loves most As readers we will watch how ONE single choice can alter everything Each character will then be forced to examine what the true meaning of love and forgiveness means to them Every gamut of emotion will be explored humor sadness love joy betrayal hate and forgiveness Bond of Love will leave you pondering the age old question How well do YOU actually know the ones you love most     The Lost Journal of Christopher Columbus William Elihu Palmer,2013-10-22 As Columbus sets sail on his first voyage to the Indies from the Spanish port of Palos de la Frontera he writes to his son Diego When we return Diego you will no longer be the son of a penniless vagabond No Diego you will be the son of the Admiral of the Ocean Sea As we cross the bar and leave the land to enter the great Ocean Sea I speak this promise to you and to the wind we will leave our mark Diego and our name Many will remember this day and this place     Freedom Climbers Bernadette McDonald,2013-02-20 CLICK HERE to download the first chapter from Freedom Climbers Provide us with a little information and we'll send your download directly to your inbox One of the most important mountaineering books to be written for many years Boardman Tasker Prize See this book trailer for Freedom Climbers made by RMB Books its publisher in Canada where the cover is slightly different from the Mountaineers Books U S edition Behind the Iron Curtain Cold War mountaineers found freedom on the world's highest peaks and paid an awful price to achieve it Winner of the Boardman Tasker Prize Banff Grand Prize and American Alpine Club Literary Award Freedom Climbers tells the story of Poland's truly remarkable mountaineers who dominated Himalayan climbing during the period between the end of World War II and the start of the new millennium The emphasis here is on their golden age in the 1980s and 1990s when despite the economic and social baggage of their struggling country Polish climbers were the first to tackle the world's highest mountains during winter including the first winter ascents on seven of the world's fourteen 8000 meter peaks Everest Manaslu Dhaulagiri Cho Oyu Kanchenjunga Annapurna and Lhotse Such successes however came at a serious cost 80 percent of Poland's finest high altitude climbers died on the high mountains during the same period they were pursuing these first ascents Award winning writer Bernadette McDonald addresses the social political and cultural context of this golden age and the hardships of life under Soviet rule Polish climbers she argues were so tough because their lives at home were so tough they lost family members to World War II and its aftermath and were so much more poverty stricken than their Western counterparts that they made much of their own climbing gear While Freedom Climbers tells the larger story of an era McDonald shares charismatic personal narratives such as that of Wanda Rutkiewicz expected to be the first woman to climb all 8000 meter peaks until she disappeared on Kanchenjunga in 1992 Jerzy Kukuczka who died in a fall while attempting the south face of Lhotse and numerous other renowned climbers including Voytek Kurtyka Artur Hajzer Andrej Zawada and Krzysztof Wielicki This is a fascinating window into a different world far removed from modernity yet connected by the strange allure of the mountain landscape and a story of inspiring passion against all odds This title is part of our LEGENDS AND LORE series Click here to learn more
