The Song of My Dance and the Dance of My Dreams John A. Theodore,2008-11-14 After reading all his works and critically reading his collection of poetry I can say that his poetry can be compared to that of John Keats and William Blake Reading the Epilogue of this book will give you a glimpse of the poetic mind of the poet Theodore Hope that he continues to write poetry till the end of his life His contribution shall always be for the mind of those who search for the truth Going beyond the limits of institutionalised religions he seeks the truth and it gives a sense of the mystery to all his writings It attracts me and gives me a sense of satisfaction He asks the reader Does a raindrop find itself when it falls in the river Are you really present to the life you have On the paths mildly lighted by angels I walk along to see at the end light pure That is exactly his life He lives in a world of dreams and in his own world of ideas He can love like a child and smile like a child Simplicity to the core is his way I built a golden tent and called all my friends of nature to come and rejoice with me like little lambs The gift of imagination is his great strength In his ordinary talks or prepared lectures or preaching in his churches he dances with the steps of a fairy He writes again perceive the soul of beauty in you sustain the imaginative perceptions and wonder like a child To understand his poetry one has to sit and think and get the meaning of the symbols he uses There is always a mystical philosophy in his mind The naked observation of nature dealing with myths visionary ideas romantic ideals faith in the divine power the dignity of natural man and woman spirit and compassion all that you can read here in this bouquet of poems Professor Rudolf Rohr These are poems of depth with imaginative power and quality It is a joy for the mind Jain Jordan It is lyrical and inspiring He draws from the great wisdom traditions and leads his ideas into a culmination of ecstasy Michelle Godson It is an ecstasy of true romance a romance of the soul with the God of love Jeremiah Rosenthal Passion romance God and nature life and its pains innocence and beauty are the constant themes of this poetry It is like the songs of a morning bird singing in your soul Paul Kowalski

Keats and Philosophy Shahidha Bari,2012-09-10 John Keats remains one of the most familiar and beloved of English poets but has received surprisingly little critical attention in recent years This study is a fresh contribution to Keats criticism and Romantic scholarship positioning Keats as a figure of philosophical interest who warrants renewed attention Exploring Keats s own Romantic accounts of feeling and thinking this study draws a connection between poetry and the phenomenological branches of modern philosophy The study takes Keats s poetic evocation of touching hands wandering feet beating hearts and breathing bodies as a descriptive elaboration of consciousness and a phenomenological account of experience The philosophical terms of analysis adopted here challenge the orthodoxies of Keats scholarship traditionally characterised by the careful historicisation of a limited canon The philosophical framework of analysis enhances the readings put forward while Keats s poems in turn serve to give fuller expression of those ideas themselves Using Keats as a particular case this book also demonstrates the ways in which theory and philosophy supplement literary scholarship
