My Creator, I am now willing that you should have all of me, good and bad. I pray that you now remove from me every single defect of character which stands in the way of my usefulness to you and my fellows. Grant me strength, as I go out from here, to do your bidding.
Amen.

My Journey from Saigon to Ottawa Alice Swann, 2018-08-01 I always had felt the deep desire to write about my unusual journey from Saigon to Ottawa which occurred during the first thirty-four years of my existence. My story is a story of faith as I converted to the Roman Catholic faith in 1962 in Belgium. As a witness of Vietnam history, thanks to my family whose many members and friends had been part of that history, I had served also the Republic of Vietnam, but my diplomatic position was cut short by the political and military tragic events happening in Saigon in 1975. My odyssey had unexpected crossroads, honors, sorrows, and love stories. I was also the first Vietnamese girl who had represented her country at a magnificent mass celebrated by Pope Paul VI in the Basilica St. Peter on December 8, 1966. I narrated how my journey had begun and what had happened which made it feel like an incredible tale. My Journey Through The Holy Bible

Robert James Oliver Jr., Robert James Oliver, 2012-03 In closing this book I would like to thank a few people. First and foremost I would like to thank my family. Without them I would not be where I am today. I want to thank Celia Reeder for inspiring me to try and start memorizing Bible verses in the Sunday school class she started. I want to thank Dr. Jay Strack for all his inspiring sermons he had done at NorthStar Community Church. I also want to thank Dr. Phillip Dunn for inspiring me to pick up my daily devotional book and start reading them every day again as I had put it up on my bookshelf for a while and hadn't read one until he mentioned it in a sermon. Lastly I want to thank everyone at NorthStar Community Church for everything they have done and are doing for my family and I. God Bless all of you. The Journey Continues

My Journey With Breast Cancer and God's Miracles That Sustained Me Cathy Suitor Riley,2007-12-05 Cathy Suitor Riley decided to write this book during her treatments for bilateral breast cancer It seemed to help to put her experiences on paper and she was hoping that her story would inspire and strengthen anyone that was going through any type of trial not just breast cancer It is obvious throughout this book that God was ever present during her journey and carried her when she couldn't carry herself The faith that Cathy was taught during her childhood from the two Christian parents she was blessed with is what made all the difference in her life She knows that without those teachings and lessons in faith she may have given up from the very first day of her diagnosis Cathy had always said she didn't see how any woman could go through breast cancer because she would have to give up her hair and breasts the two main things that make a woman feel feminine It is obvious now that the way a woman gets through this is from the strength given to her by God Only God can carry any of us through the trials we will face in this life and there will always be trials as long as we live on this earth It is this author's hope that this book will give you strength hope faith and the knowledge that your God is always with you and He is waiting for you to seek Him and depend on Him for everything He is as close as our next breath and He is our very best friend Always draw near to God and He will carry you through all things of this world May God bless you as you read and meditate on this book
