My Life Alison Bing,2004      The Last Templar Collection: Volume 1 Michael Jecks,2015-02-12 Escape into the evocative medieval world of Sir Baldwin de Furnhill and his friend Bailiff Simon Puttock as you join them on the suspenseful trail of three murder mysteries The Knights Templar Collection brings together three engrossing novels in the widely acclaimed and much loved Knights Templar series by Michael Jecks Perfect for fans of C J Sansom and Bernard Cornwell The Mad Monk of Gidleigh Book 14 As the winter of 1323 descends on Dartmoor who could blame the young priest Father Mark for seeking affection from the miller's daughter Mary But when Mary and her unborn child are found dead Mark is the obvious suspect Called to investigate Sir Baldwin de Furnhill and his friend Bailiff Simon Puttock soon begin to have their doubts And by the time their search is over life will never be quite the same again The Templar's Penance Book 15 It is the summer of 1323 and Sir Baldwin de Furnhill and Bailiff Simon Puttock have been granted leave to go on pilgrimage When a beautiful girl is found murdered on a hillside en route to Santiago de Compostela the friends are among the first on the scene As Baldwin and Simon lend their skills to the inquiry the unexpected appearance of a face from Baldwin's past could threaten the investigation as well as the future of Baldwin himself The Outlaws of Ennor Book 16 On return from pilgrimage Sir Baldwin de Furnhill and Bailiff Simon Puttock's ship is attacked by pirates and Simon sees Baldwin washed overboard On the island of Ennor Simon must investigate the murder of the island's hated tax collector while unbeknownst to his friend Baldwin begins to unpick the same murder on the other side of the island Can the pair uncover the truth in time to prevent certain massacre What readers are saying about The Knights Templar mysteries Michael Jecks is one of the best medieval writers of our times His two main characters come alive in the imagination when you're reading them The characters are richly drawn and weave in and out of the events of the early 14th century with Michael Jecks showing great knowledge of the times Good introduction to the series      Transmitting Memories in Rwanda Claver Irakoze,Caroline Williamson Sinalo,2022-10-31 Known for its breathtaking scenery the central east African country of Rwanda lived through one of the worst episodes of violence of the late 20th century the 1994 Genocide against the Tutsi in which over a million people were brutally murdered in 100 days This book recounts the personal story of Claver Irakoze who survived the genocide as an eleven year old child and like other Rwandans of his generation is now grappling with the heavy responsibility of raising children in the post genocide context Tracing the various stages of Irakoze's life experiences each chapter teases out issues surrounding childhood parenting and the transmission of memories between generations The final chapter draws on Irakoze's personal and professional experience to provide some reflections on managing memories of genocide within the family      Memoirs of a Born Adventurer D. Thomas Gochenour,2024-06-27 At the end of his illustrious career as an international adventurer and soldier of fortune Lord Higford decided he needed to write his memoirs But he decided he needed to address both his personal life and his adventures abroad describe in detail his love life as well as his battles From the start he identified the key moments in his life such as the premature death of his mother or his father's decision to send him away from home to boarding school when he was only eight years old. But the most important event in Higford's young life was when a tutor at Eton took an interest in him and applied the effort to teach him to write and afterward critically introduced him to adventure literature. Most important of these was the story of Jason and his quest for the Golden Fleece from Greek mythology. This story captivated him and drove him to read the life adventures of England's greatest soldiers and adventurers including Sir Richard Burton, Winston Churchill, and Fitzroy Maclean. Inspired by these works, Higford decided that his life's work would also be that of an explorer, adventurer, soldier, and fighter for the British Empire. Instead of going to Oxford, he joined the SAS, England's elite fighting force, and was sent to all corners of the world to fight anti-colonial insurgencies. His career culminated in the quick war against the Argentines in the Falklands. It was a war that ended his SAS career as well as spelled the end of his marriage. Afterward, he participated as a mercenary several times in Africa and decided it was better to run mercenaries than to be one, so he established one of the world's first private military companies supplying mercenaries to causes and regimes in Africa and Asia. This was how he stumbled onto his final greatest and most notorious adventure, one that nearly cost him his life, his career, his fortune, and his rank as an English peer.

Milestones and Memories Rose Kuehn, 2006-09. Rose tells how it was for her growing up on a farm in Western Kentucky in the twenties and thirties and how she had to relocate to a more peaceful environment at the age of seventeen. She records her early life with a dysfunctional mother who was not willing to let go of her when she reached the age to be free of parental control. How at an early age she meets a young soldier in the Army Air Corps assigned to the Officer Candidate School in Miami Beach, Florida, and falls in love with him. She chronicles what life was like as the spouse of a career soldier and the many places they called home in the United States and abroad during his career.

The Memory Thieves Series: Books 1 & 2 Joel Shulkin MD, 2024-03-12. Some memories are meant to be forgotten, especially when they're not yours. In this medical thriller series, Psychiatrist Cristina Silva is achieving miracles by prescribing a new memory recovery drug. Until one of her patients jumps from an eight-story window to his death. Book 1: Adverse Effects. Boston psychiatrist Cristina Silva understands her patients suffering better than most because she's lost her memories too. Desperate to become herself again, she pops the same experimental drug she prescribes to her patients. And like them, she remembers a little more each day. Until one of her patients, a successful accountant, jumps to his death. And as Cristina's memories return, with them come violent visions and an incessant voice in her head. Maybe the drug isn't safe after all. Then an enigmatic, possibly dangerous man appears at Cristina's bus stop. He seems to know more about her life than she does and says she holds a secret that puts her life in danger. If she wants to survive, Cristina must stay on the medication and unlock those memories before it's too late, even if the adverse effects of the drug could destroy her. Book 2: Toxic Effects. Neuropsychiatrist Cristina Silva receives a startling phone call from her contact at the FBI: an assassin is crisscrossing the country, killing anyone connected to the now defunct pharmaceutical company.

ReMind people like Cristina The literal femme fatale known as Dama Branca is unsure what's preventing her from killing Cristina but she senses their fates are entwined with any luck not fatally Cristina's spurned lover Wilson is investigating the suspicious deaths of local teens and there are now terrified whispers of a hooded boogeyman called Sack Man And when Cristina's in danger Wilson is never far away With at least one killer in their wake they must quickly determine what's real and what's not Unlocking Cristina's memories could save many lives her own included After the Gulag Tyler C.

Memories of Dress Alison Slater,Susan Atkin,Elizabeth Kealy-Morris,2023-04-06 Memories of clothing feature prominently in auto biographies yet traditionally they have not been subjected to the same level of academic scrutiny as other sources Memories of Dress redresses this imbalance by bringing auto biographical memories to the centre of a new methodology for understanding fashion history material culture and other disciplines Presenting a comprehensive overview of theoretical and practice based approaches the book invites readers to explore the relations between clothing and memory through diverse examples ranging from oral histories of Madchester men and Hungarian socialist sewing to a quilt making autoethnography into the complexities of American racial heritage and imagined memories within museum collections Chapters by leading and emerging experts consider the ways in which dress is remembered and the ways that memories and nostalgia in turn influence everyday dress practices unpicking the meanings and motivations both collective and public personal and private behind the clothes we wear in different times places and life stages and the impact of class gender ethnicity and disability on material identities Uniquely weaving personal recollection with theory this multidisciplinary book offers new ways of understanding clothing material culture and memory      In Search of Lost Time - The Complete Seven-Book Series Marcel Proust, 2023-12-28 Marcel Proust's monumental series In Search of Lost Time is a profound exploration of memory, time, and consciousness elegantly rendered in rich introspective prose. Spanning seven volumes, this literary masterpiece intricately weaves the narrator's reflections on the intricacies of life, societal change, and the fleeting nature of love. Proust's style is characterized by long, flowing sentences and vivid imagery, allowing readers to immerse themselves in the psychological depths of his characters and the nuances of their experiences within the Belle époque era. Through detailed observations and a unique narrative structure, Proust invites readers to contemplate the passage of time and its intimate effects on human identity and relationships. Marcel Proust (1871-1922), a prominent French novelist, drew upon his own life experiences and social milieu to craft this extensive work. His background in the affluent Parisian elite and his struggles with illness presented him with a unique perspective on the transience of life and the power of recollection. Influenced by his own introspective nature, Proust became fascinated with the workings of memory, which served as a catalyst for this profound exploration of human experience. Readers seeking a deep philosophical engagement with themes of time, loss, and desire will find In Search of Lost Time an essential addition to their literary canon. Proust's insights into the human condition resonate with timeless relevance, making this complete seven-book series an indispensable journey for anyone eager to delve into the complexities of life and memory.

Writology: The Return: Volume IV of the Writologist Series (economy style) H.A. Calahan, 2016-11-13 Welcome to the third installment of the Writology series. The Return Writology takes you, the reader, on a journey of chronological and evolutionary writing. Volume IV, The Return, collected in this book, contains all the junior year high school works of the author. There is a self-imposed journal collection and many informational essays, all of which lay the ground work for Volume V, Final Marks. As with previous volumes, the author provides original artwork and commentary along the way. There is a bonus never-before-seen Civil War Sketch Diary based on a mock Civil War battle experienced by the school circa 1996-1997. It concludes, as do all previous volumes, with an exercise appendix based on either original assignments or the creations themselves. The journey started bashfully with time warps and love ants. It was continued with a petition, many letters, and a Rain Bear. Geologic findings and impressionism continue the journey; the journey continues now.

Memory and Understanding Renate Bartsch, 2005-05-09 This book treats memory and understanding on two levels: on the phenomenological level of experience, on which a theory of dynamic conceptual semantics is built, and on the neuro-connectionist level, which supports the capacities of concept formation, remembering, and understanding. A neuro-connectionist circuit architecture of a constructive memory is developed in which understanding and remembering are modelled in accordance with the constituent structures of a dynamic conceptual semantics. Consciousness emerges by circuit activation between conceptual indicators and episodic indices with the sensory, motor, emotional, and proprioceptual areas This theory of concept formation remembering and understanding is applied to Proust's A la recherche du temps perdu with special attention to the author's excursions into philosophical and aesthetic issues Under this perspective Proust's work can be seen as an artistic exploration into our capacity of understanding whereby the unconscious the memory is exteriorized in consciousness by presenting the experienced episodes in the conceptual order of similarity and contiguity through our capacity of concept formation Series A      Sunlight and Shadow ; Or, Gleanings from My Life Work John Bartholomew Gough, 1882      Performing Memories Gabriele Biotti, 2021-04-26 What is memory today How can it be approached Why does the contemporary world seem to be more and more haunted by different types of memories still asking for elaboration Which artistic experiences have explored and defined memory in meaningful ways How do technologies and the media have changed it These are just some of the questions developed in this collection of essays analysing memory and memory shapes which explores the different ways in which past time and its elaboration have been and still are elaborated discussed written or filmed and contested but also shared By gathering together scholars from different fields of investigation this book explores the cultural social and artistic tensions in representing the past and the present in understanding our legacies and in approaching historical time and experience Through the analysis of different representations of memory and the investigation of literature anthropology myth and storytelling a space of theories and discourses about the symbolic and cultural spaces of memory representation is developed
