Second to analyze the social and cultural environments that make these representations possible and problematic Masculinities and Hong Kong Cinema presents a comprehensive picture of how Hong Kong mainstream cinematic masculinities are produced within their own socio cultural discourses and how these masculinities are distributed received and transformed within the setting of the market place This volume is divided into three interrelated parts the local cinematic tradition the transnational context and reverberations and the larger production reception and mediation environments The combination of these three perspectives will reveal the dynamics and tensions between the local and the transnational between production and reception and between text and context in the gendered manifestations of Hong Kong cinema
