Violence and Abuse Issues Lee Ann Hoff, 2009-06-29 After centuries of being considered a private matter in most societies violence and its profound effect on the physical health mental health and social well being of victims and their families as well as on the assailants themselves has started to take centre stage as a public issue of worldwide concern Health and social service providers are in pivotal positions to provide preventive and restorative services to those affected by violent and abusive behaviour This comprehensive textbook presents theoretical background and practical strategies for doing so providing a solid knowledge base for good practice in this area It emphasizes the interdisciplinary aspects of violence and victim survivor care and addresses violence over the lifespan covering child sexual and physical abuse sexual assault of adults battering and emotional abuse of intimate partners elder abuse perpetrators of violence and abuse violence in learning and work environments vicarious trauma and self care interconnections between various forms of violence including socially approved violence in the media and in war This text is an essential resource for qualified practitioners wanting to learn more about this area and for students starting out in health and social care Each chapter includes case studies and thinking points and suggestions for application in practice settings A companion website provides materials for students and educators enabling the inclusion of violence issues in an already busy curriculum Lee Ann Hoff is a nurse anthropologist and crisis specialist She has published widely and is the author of the award winning textbook People in Crisis She has extensive experience as an educator consultant clinician and crisis service manager Art, Creativity, and Psychoanalysis George Hagman, 2016-12-08 Art Creativity and Psychoanalysis Perspectives from Analyst Artists collects personal reflections by therapists who are also professional artists It explores the relationship between art and analysis through accounts by practitioners who identify themselves as dual profession artists and analysts The book illustrates the numerous areas where analysis and art share common characteristics using first hand in depth accounts These vivid reports from the frontier of art and psychoanalysis shed light on the day to day struggle to succeed at both of these demanding professions From the beginning of psychoanalysis many have made comparisons between analysis and art Recently there has been increasing interest in the relationship between artistic and psychotherapeutic practices Most important both professions are viewed as highly creative with spontaneity improvisation and aesthetic experience seeming to be common to each. However, differences have also been recognized especially regarding the differing goals of each profession: art leading to the creation of an art work and psychoanalysis resulting in the increased welfare and happiness of the patient. These issues are addressed head on in Art Creativity and Psychoanalysis Perspectives from Analyst Artists. The chapters consist of personal essays by analyst artists who are currently working in both professions; each has been trained in and is currently practicing psychoanalysis or psychoanalytic psychotherapy. The goal of the book is to provide the audience with a new understanding of psychoanalytic and psychotherapeutic processes from the perspective of art and artistic creativity. Drawing on artistic material from painting, poetry, photography, music, and literature, the book casts light on what the creative processes in art can add to the psychoanalytic endeavor and vice versa. Art Creativity and Psychoanalysis Perspectives from Analyst Artists will appeal to psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists, theorists of art, academic artists, and anyone interested in the psychology of art.
