My Odyssey An Autobiography:

My Odyssey Nnamdi Azikiwe, 1994 A History of Nigeria Toyin Falola, Matthew M. Heaton, 2008-04-24 Nigeria is Africa's most populous country and the world's eighth largest oil producer but its success has been undermined in recent decades by ethnic and religious conflict, political instability, rampant official corruption and an ailing economy. Toyin Falola, a leading historian intimately acquainted with the region, and Matthew Heaton, who has worked extensively on African science and culture, combine their expertise to explain the context to Nigeria's recent troubles through an exploration of its pre-colonial and colonial past and its journey from independence to statehood. By examining key themes such as colonialism, religion, slavery, nationalism and the economy, the authors show how Nigeria's history has been swayed by the vicissitudes of the world around it and how Nigerians have adapted to meet these challenges. This book offers a unique portrayal of a resilient people living in a country with immense but unrealized potential.

From the Outer World Oscar Handlin, Lilian Handlin, 1997 Oscar and Lilian Handlin show how the new voyagers in the twentieth century from Asia, Africa, Australia and Latin America record their experiences in the United States. Many accounts are newly translated from Arabic, Persian, Hebrew and Spanish and include such authors as Rabindranath Tagore, V S Naipaul and Octavio Paz.

Stories of women Elleke Boehmer, 2013-07-19 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY-NC-ND open access license. Elleke Boehmer's work on the crucial intersections between independence, nationalism and gender has already proved canonical in the field. Stories of women combines her keynote essays on the mother figure and the postcolonial nation with incisive new work on male autobiography, daughter writers, the colonial body, the trauma of the post-colony and the nation in a transnational context. Focusing on Africa as well as South Asia and sexuality as well as gender, Boehmer offers fine close readings of writers ranging from Achebe, Okri and Mandela to Arundhati Roy and Yvonne Vera, shaping these into a critical engagement with theorists of the nation like Fredric Jameson and Partha Chatterjee. This edition will be of interest to readers and researchers of postcolonial international and women's writing, of nation theory, colonial history and historiography of Indian, African, migrant and diasporic literatures and is likely to prove a landmark study in the field.

The Second Colonial Occupation Bekeh Utietiang Ukelina, 2017-07-28 In this insightful book, development historian Bekeh Utietiang Ukelina addresses the crisis of development in Africa by locating it in its colonial historical past. Using Nigeria as a case study, he argues that the nature and practice of British colonialism in this colony created social and economic deficiencies that have left a legacy of underdevelopment. Ukelina outlines the processes that led to the 1945 Nigerian Development Plan and the evolution of colonial agricultural policy and practices in Nigeria. He argues that a few key factors led to the failure of development in the late colonial period: the imperial and neocolonial imperative to exploit African resources and people, poor planning as a result of this imperative, and the racial ideologies of the colonial state that resulted in a total rejection of local African experience and knowledge in favor of Western experts. The Second Colonial Occupation uncovers and analyzes the short and long term impact of colonialism It reveals that though colonial rule was promoted as a benevolent mission at heart it was a system that guaranteed that Africans continuously paid for their own exploitation Ukelina argues that postcolonial Africa will continue to face development challenges unless it breaks free from the intellectual relics of colonial rule and the economic shackles of neocolonialism Africa in Scotland, Scotland in Africa,2014-09-25 Africa in Scotland Scotland in Africa provides scholarly interdisciplinary analysis of the historical and contemporary relationships links and networks between Scotland Africa and the African diaspora The book interrogates these links from a variety of perspectives historical political economic religious diplomatic and cultural and assesses the mutual implications for past present and future relationships The socio historical connection between Scotland and Africa is illuminated by the many who have shaped the history of African nationalism education health and art in respective contexts of Africa Britain the Caribbean and the USA The book contributes to the empirical theoretical and methodological development of European African Studies and thus fills a significant gap in information interpretation and analysis of the specific historical and contemporary relationships between Scotland Africa and the African diaspora Contributors are Afe Adogame Andrew Lawrence Esther Breitenbach John McCracken Markku Hokkanen Olutayo Charles Adesina Marika Sherwood Caroline Bressey Janice McLean Evelyn Nicodemus Kristian Romare Oluwakemi Adesina Elijah Obinna Damaris Seleina Parsitau Kweku Michael Okyerefo Musa Gaiya and Jordan Rengshwat Vicky Khasandi Telewa Kenneth Ross Magnus Echtler and Geoff Palmer Deliberative Agency Uchenna Okeja,2022-03-15 Public deliberation highly valued by many African societies becomes the cornerstone of a new system of African political philosophy in this brilliant highly original study In Deliberative Agency philosopher Uchenna Okeja offers a way to construct a new political center by building it around the ubiquitous African practice of public deliberation a widely accepted means to resolve legal matters reconcile feuding groups and reestablish harmony In cities hometown associations and voluntary organizations carry out the task of fostering deliberation among African groups for different reasons In some instances the deliberation aims to settle disputes In others the aim is to decide the best action to take to address unfortunate incidents such as death Through a measured comparative analysis Deliberative Agency argues that the best way to reimagine and harness the idea of public deliberation based on current experiences in Africa is to see it as performance of agency Building a new political center around the practice places agency at the core of a new political life in Africa The Inaugural Addresses and Ascension Speeches of Nigerian Elected and Non-Elected Presidents and Prime Minister, 1960-2010 Solomon Williams Obotetukudo,2011 From Balewa s declaration Today is Independence Day to Azikiwe s impassioned plea Let us bind the nation s wound and let us heal the breaches of the past so that in forging our nation there shall emerge on this continent a hate free fear free and greed free people to Buhari s patriotic fervor This generation of Nigerians have no other country than Nigeria to Obasanjo s confident commitment I will not spare any effort in rising to this challenge of building firmly and decisively on our achievements and to Yar Adua s clarion

Nationalism and African Intellectuals Toyin Falola, 2004 An examination of the attempt by Western educated African intellectuals to create a better Africa through connecting nationalism to knowledge from the anti colonial movement to the present day This book is about how African intellectuals influenced primarily by nationalism have addressed the inter related issues of power identity politics self assertion and autonomy for themselves and their continent from the mid nineteenth century onward Their major goal was to create a better Africa by connecting nationalism to knowledge The results have been mixed from the glorious euphoria of the success of anti colonial movements to the depressing circumstances of the African condition as we enter a new millennium As the intellectual elite is a creation of the Western formal school system the ideas it generated are also connected to the larger world of scholarship This world is in turn shaped by European contacts with Africa from the fifteenth century onward the politics of the Cold War and the subsequent collapse of the Soviet Union In essence Africa and its elite cannot be fully understood without also considering the West and changing global politics Neither can the academic and media contributions by non Africans be ignored as these also affect the ways that Africans think about themselves and their continent Nationalism and African Intellectuals examines intellectuals ambivalent relationships with the colonial apparatus and subsequent nation state formations the contradictions manifested within pan Africanism and nationalism and the relation of academic institutions and intellectual production to the state during the nationalism period and beyond Toyin Falola is the Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair in the Humanities and University Distinguished Teaching Professor at the University of Texas at Austin

Pan-Africanism, and the Politics of African Citizenship and Identity Toyin Falola, Kwame Essien, 2013-10-08 There is no recent literature that underscores the transition from Pan Africanism to Diaspora discourse This book examines the gradual shift and four major transformations in the study of Pan Africanism It offers an academic post mortem that seeks to gauge the extent to which Pan Africanism overlaps with the study of the African Diaspora and reverse migrations how Diaspora studies has penetrated various disciplines while Pan Africanism is located on the periphery of the field The book argues that the gradual shift from Pan African discourses has created a new pathway for engaging Pan African ideology from academic and social perspectives Also the book raises questions about the recent political waves that have swept across North Africa and their implications to the study of twenty first century Pan African solidarity on the African continent The ways in which African institutions are attracting and mobilizing returnees and Pan Africanists with incentives as dual citizenship for diasporans to support reforms in Africa offers a new alternative approach for exploring Pan African ideology in the twenty first century Returnees are also using these incentives to gain economic and cultural advantage The book will appeal to policy makers government institutions research libraries undergraduate and graduate students and scholars from many different disciplines Economic Reforms and Modernization in Nigeria, 1945-1965 Toyin Falola, 2004 Created as a result of British colonialism Nigeria emerged as a nation state during the mid 20th century Toyin Falola presents statistical data on Nigeria's economy that illustrate the nature of the changes made throughout the mid 20th century Insurgent Empire Priyamvada Gopal, 2019 Much has been written on the how colonial subjects took up British and European ideas and turned them against empire when making claims to freedom and self determination The possibility of reverse influence has been largely overlooked Insurgent Empire shows how Britain's enslaved and colonial subjects were not merely victims of empire and subsequent beneficiaries of its crises of conscience but also agents whose resistance both contributed to their own liberation and shaped British ideas about freedom and who could be free This book examines dissent over the question of empire in Britain and shows how it was influenced by rebellions and resistance in the colonies from the West Indies and East Africa to Egypt and India It also shows how a pivotal role in fomenting dissent was played by anti colonial campaigners based in London at the heart of the empire

Africans and the Exiled Life Sabella Ogbobode Abidde, Brenda Ingrid Gill, 2018-01-12 Since their early beginning in Africa as foragers hunters and gatherers humans have been on the move In modern times their movements have been compelled by geographical economic political cultural social and personal reasons However beginning in the second half of the twentieth century and into the twenty first century their reasons for and pattern of migration have been largely influenced by globalization Globalization by its very nature cuts across virtually every aspect of the human life and human society And especially in the United States African immigrants are subject to the undercurrents of globalization particularly in the areas of culture religion interpersonal relationships and the assimilation and acculturation process Relying on the vast theoretical and practical experience of academics and public intellectuals across three continents this book succinctly interrogates some of the pull push factors of migration the challenges of globalizing forces and the daily reality of relocation The everyday reality and experiences of blacks in the diaspora Latin America Caribbean and Europe are also part of the discourse and the subject matters are approached from different perspectives and paradigms Africans and the Exiled Life therefore is a compelling and rich addition to the ongoing global debate and understanding of migration and exile
