Rivera, 2018-10-31 Enfleshing Theology honors and engages the life work of M Shawn Copeland whose theology is groundbreaking and prophetic traversing the fields of Catholic Theology Black Theology Womanist Thought and Semiotics The book opens with a brief introduction and then moves to an interview with Copeland which connects her theology to her life stories The conversation with Copeland also provides a backdrop to the seventeen essays that follow extending Copeland's theological worldview The contributions are divided according to the following sections embodiment discipleship and politics The essays in the section entitled Engaging Embodiment critically reflect on the importance of embodiment in Christian theology and contemporary culture Following Copeland's lead authors in this section theorize and theologize the body particularly but not limited to Black women's bodies as a locus theologicus that reveals mediates and shapes the splendor and suffering reality of human existence The next section entitled Engaging Discipleship focuses on the concrete challenges of following Jesus in today's world The essays included in this section reflect on Copeland's focus on Jesus particularity in terms of his solidarity with and for others Discipleship is about modeling and mentoring so scholars in this section also comment on Copeland's contribution to teaching and pedagogy The last section entitled Engaging the Political interrogates the political implications of the theological It is noteworthy that there are two trajectories of the political here one is Copeland's development of political theology through the lens of Canadian Jesuit theologian Bernard Lonergan The other trajectory focuses on the work of theology in contemporary art and politics These three sections are fluid and overlap with one another Several of the articles on embodiment speak to questions of solidarity and a few of the essays on discipleship clearly present as political The ways in which each of the contributions in this volume overlap with each other attests to the complex nature of doing constructive theology today and even more how Copeland's work is at the forefront of that multi-layered polyvalent intersectional theological work Transformed Lives Cynthia S. Kinn, 2018-07-23 This book is for anyone who now meditates regularly or who practiced meditation in the past As we grow in our prayer life John of the Cross is an excellent and encouraging guide to show us the way to the practice of contemplative prayer Many of us learned about meditation from spiritual directors or books We practiced a reliable form of meditation for some years with varying degrees of success Over time however our prayer slowed down and became simplified We didn't find many new ideas to occupy our intellect and our emotions quieted down In time many of us experienced a crisis in our prayer life our prayer became so simple that it almost disappeared We tried different forms of prayer but we seemed to be reaching a dead end Throughout all of this we were never told that our prayer was developing naturally and positively What we were experiencing was not a dead end but the threshold of a new way of prayer What we needed was an experienced guide to show us the road ahead Enter John of the Cross He encourages us to see that the place we came to is a necessary state of our progress in prayer John teaches us that we come to contemplation not by struggling harder to pray but by calming remaining quiet before God He encourages us to realize that we have not come to the end of the road but are being made ready to be transported on a wonderful journey There is no better or more encouraging guide for us on this journey than John of the Cross The entire focus of this book is quite narrow it concentrates on John s teaching about the beginning of contemplation

Today's Parish ,1988 Embracing Travail Cynthia S.W. Crysdale,1999-05 In Embracing Travail Cynthia Crysdale explores the mystery of redemption through the central Christian symbol of the cross Traditionally the cross has been understood by male theologians as redeeming humankind from sin as arrogant ambition Yet the difficulties of understanding sin primarily in this way especially for women and those on the underside of history has been recognized for several decades Rather argues Crysdale by virtue of life experience people women as well as men enter the drama of the cross and resurrection at different points some through repentance seeking forgiveness and others through a courageous claiming of self identity seeking healing In an approach that is both anecdotal and analytical personal and theological Crysdale provides a renewed understanding of Christian redemption for preachers and Christian educators as well as the general public
