Phillips, 2006-11-24 Two time Academy Award winner Sir David Lean 1908 1991 was one of the most prominent directors of the twentieth century responsible for the classics The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957 Lawrence of Arabia 1962 and Doctor Zhivago 1965 British born Lean asserted himself in Hollywood as a major filmmaker with his epic storytelling and panoramic visions of history but he started out as a talented film editor and director in Great Britain As a result he brought an art house mentality to blockbuster films Combining elements of biography and film criticism Beyond the Epic The Life and Films of David Lean uses screenplays and production histories to assess Lean's body of work Author Gene D Phillips interviews actors who worked with Lean and directors who knew him and their comments reveal new details about the director's life and career Phillips also explores Lean's lesser studied films such as The Passionate Friends 1949 Hobson's Choice 1954 and Summertime 1955 The result is an in depth examination of the director in cultural historical and cinematic contexts Lean's approach to filmmaking was far different than that of many of his contemporaries He chose his films carefully and as a result directed only sixteen films in a period of more than forty years Those films however have become some of the landmarks of motion picture history Lean is best known for his epics but Phillips also focuses on Lean's successful adaptations of famous works of literature including retellings of plays such as Brief Encounter 1945 and novels such as Great Expectations 1946 Oliver Twist 1948 and A Passage to India 1984 From expansive studies of war and strife to some of literature's greatest high comedies and domestic dramas Lean imbued all of his films with his unique creative vision Few directors can match Lean's ability to combine narrative sweep and psychological detail and Phillips goes beyond Lean's epics to reveal this unifying characteristic in the director's body of work Beyond the Epic is a vital assessment of a great director's artistic process and his place in the film industry Voices from Captivity Robert C. Doyle, 1994 Doyle shows that though setting and circumstances may change POW stories share a common structure and are driven by similar themes Capture incarceration isolation propaganda torture capitulation or resistance death spiritual quest escape liberation and repatriation are recurrent key motifs in these narratives Continuator Leonard J. technology of radio and gramophone that at the start of Lean's career were becoming indispensable household items for the home. The book begins and ends with a motif running from the early more domestic films locally situated in the English home to the later more extensive epics of colony, commonwealth and empire. The fidelity/infidelity relationship defined by marriage extends to the loyalty/betrayal relationship regarding countries of war and peace, after which this relationship is extended to the witty British manner of making film as a perfected and not so perfected symphonic work of a great cutter's art. Here, as in few other books on Lean, the influence of Noel Coward on Lean cannot be overestimated.

When Daddy Came Home Barry Turner, 2014-07-17. Compelling and moving real-life accounts of the impact on family life of the return of the troops at the end of the Second World War. Summer 1945: Britain was in jubilant mood. At last, the war was over. Soon, the men would be coming home. Then everything would be fine; life would get back to normal. Or would it? Six long years of war had profoundly changed family life. For years, Dad had been a khaki figure in a photograph on the wall, a crumpled letter from overseas, an occasional visitor on weekend leave. Now he was here to stay, a stranger in a group that had learned to live without him and was not always prepared to have him back. Most homecomings were joyful, never to be forgotten moments of humour and hope. Others were hard. And there was no one to deal with the tears and the trauma. It would take hope and courage for families to live and love together again.

40 Days & 40 Hikes Nicola Ross, 2024-04-09. Travel the Bruce Trail in day hikes with Loops. Lattes author Nicola Ross, best known for her detailed Loops Lattes hiking guides, Nicola Ross has inspired tens of thousands of people to lace up their boots and explore Ontario's trails. In 40 Days 40 Hikes, this adventurer, author, and environmentalist sets herself a new challenge to hike the Bruce Trail from Niagara to Tobermory in her own creative way. In 40 cleverly crafted day loops, Ross covers over 900 kilometers, mostly following Canada's longest marked trail, taking you with her on an insightful journey to the Niagara Escarpment's remarkable sights. As Ross walks, she reveals stories of the trail's flora and fauna, geology, and history. The Bruce Trail becomes the central character as she ponders her role in protecting the fragile corner of the planet that she contends is entwined in her DNA. Despite long days on the trail, encounters with bears, ticks, and a deadly derecho, her passion for her beloved Niagara Escarpment mounts as she explores Ontario's ribbon of wilderness. Perfect for hikers, non-hikers, and anyone who loves an adventure, 40 Days 40 Hikes is both a captivating travelogue and a useful companion for those who Ross will undoubtedly inspire to follow in her footsteps Japan's Contested War Memories Philip A. Seaton, 2007-03-12 Japan's Contested War Memories is an important and significant book that explores the struggles within contemporary Japanese society to come to terms with Second World War history Focusing particularly on 1972 onwards the period starts with the normalization of relations with China and the return of Okinawa to Japan in 1972 and ends with the sixtieth anniversary commemorations Analyzing the variety of ways in which the Japanese people narrate contest and interpret the past the book is also a major critique of the way the subject has been treated in much of the English language Philip Seaton concludes that war history in Japan today is more divisive and widely argued over than in any of the other major Second World War combatant nations Providing a sharp contrast to the many orthodox statements about Japanese ignorance amnesia and denial about the war this is an engaging and illuminating study that will appeal to scholars and students of Japanese history politics cultural studies society and memory theory Connections Jennifer Dixon, 2017-11-13 This memoir begins with a brief description of the author's life detailing the connection to music that she shared with her sister Maureen Throughout their difficult childhood they had shared a common bond in their love of music and this connection continued long after she had left the UK and begun travelling the world When she received the news of her sister's illness there was an initial slide into despair then she decided to run the London Marathon to raise funds for Multiple Sclerosis MS research Training in the tropical conditions in Thailand was not easy but the author eventually ran the race successfully Later races were undertaken and donations were made to the Myelin Project made famous by Augusto Odone and detailed in the film Lorenzo's Oil However nothing could alter her sister's fate and when Maureen died the author stepped off the music tracks and lost herself completely in the dark maze of grief Within four months her aunt died and then her father Shortly afterwards during a 500 mile trek Santiago de Compostela commonly known as The Camino as she was attempting to walk into oblivion she experienced the astounding power of music to transcend her grief and re connect her with her sister and her own life When her brother in law and her mother died just four years later the author embarked on her second Camino and was provided with yet more proof of the healing power of music and its positive affirmation of life The story is peppered with music tracks and these are listed at the end together with mention of some of music's other therapeutic effects Keywords Music Life force Connections Poetry Travel Grief Walking Re evaluating Dreams Revelations Thermodynamics Re connection Healing The Year I Followed the Sun Laurie J. Rutherford Pederson, 2012-01-10 While many contemplate roaming the world at 22 Laurie Rutherford Pederson embarked on a solo journey of 365 days beginning in December 1976 She recorded her many adventures sublime to horrific in twenty seven journals from which this book emerged The Victoria B C native worked as a travel agent creating her own itinerary to countries that intrigued her She explored these exotic locations each replete with its historic and often perilous political landscapes using all means of transport from a luggage rack on a train in India to rickshaws to horseback even a boat on the Canal du Midi Family friends in several countries provided respites of gracious hospitality and rollicking entertainment but to her credit Pederson writes with equal appreciation of the many strangers, locals and fellow travellers she encountered along the way. Her prose sparkles with hilarious interior monologues and a cinematographer's attention to detail. From a near fatal motorcycle accident on Bali to a brush with death at the Israel-Lebanese border, there is adventure, romance, fear and reflection. The author left her secure home in Victoria as a young adventuress; she returned a woman. Pederson's memoir is contemplative yet spontaneous, capturing a time of great change in the world.

Crashing the Party Scott Savitt, 2016-11-01. It's 1983. Scott Savitt, one of the first American exchange students in Beijing, picks up his guitar and begins strumming "Blackbird." He's soon surrounded by Chinese students who know every word to every Beatles song he plays. Scott stays on in Beijing, working as a reporter for Asiaweek Magazine. The city's first nightclubs open, rock n' roll promises democracy. Promoted to foreign correspondent for the Los Angeles Times, then United Press International, Scott finds himself drawn into China's political heart. Later, at 25 years old, Scott is the youngest accredited foreign correspondent in China, with an intimate knowledge of Beijing's backstreets. But as the seven-week occupation of Tiananmen Square ends in bloodshed on June 4, 1989, his greatest asset is his flame-red 500 cc Honda motorcycle, giving Scott the freedom to witness first-hand what the Chinese government still denies ever took place. After Tiananmen, Scott founds the first independent English language newspaper in China, Beijing Scene. He knows that it's only a matter of time before the authorities move in, and sure enough, in 2000, he's arrested, flung into solitary confinement, and after a month in jail, deported. Scott Savitt's memoir turns this complex political/historical subject into an extraordinary adventure story.

Farmer's Son, Military Career Clarence Vold, 2022-08-01. The book is done; it is published, and now it is ready for you to read and enjoy my story. I am happy to share my experience growing up on the plains of South Dakota, completing grade school in a one-room school, surviving blizzards (including getting lost in our yard). I have virtually all positive memories; for example, I remember being in severe pain, but I don't remember the pain. I can look back and see points where a different decision by me would have changed my life, but not necessarily better for me. Achieving the highest enlisted grade in the Air Force is, in ways, the culmination of my military career. This career included service as an electronics technician, combat crew member, military training instructor, and scheduler for aircrews, missile crews, and administrative airlift missions within 5th Air Force and aircraft operations management. I followed the tradition of my late brother Robert in serving a hitch in the military: 3 years for Robert and 30 years for me, and then graduating from college. Of course, life went on after the Air Force, and I have included pictures throughout the time of my story to help you understand my story.
