

A romantic couple is shown in profile, about to kiss. The woman is on the left, her hand near her face, and the man is on the right, leaning towards her. They are positioned over a beach at sunset. The sky is a mix of orange, pink, and blue, with the sun low on the horizon. In the background, a wooden pier with several buildings extends into the ocean. The overall mood is romantic and serene.

Modern Fiction Mary Anne Caws, 2014-07-14 Mary Ann Caws presents in detail an important feature of modern literary narrative the setting apart of passages that stand out from the flow of the prose larger than life scenes that seem to hold the essence of the work Originally published in 1985 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Metaphysical Alternatives vs.

Alternative Semantics Alex Hall, Gyula Klima, Timothy Kearns, 2025-08-18 The nineteenth volume of the Proceedings of the Society for Medieval Logic and Metaphysics honors the work of our president and founder Gyula Klima This volume of proceedings considers a host of issues relevant to key aspects of Klima s work from metaphysics to logic and epistemology Contributions include a new formalization that captures Ockham s semantics as a mathematical presheaf a response by the well known Ockhamist Claude Panaccio to objections raised by Klima to his work on intentionality a subtle and careful consideration of how genus and species are for Aquinas real accidents of being Gregory Doolan and a close look at Aristotle on demonstration by Lucas Angioni These papers add significant contributions to each of their major areas of exploration

Buddhist Logic (2 Vols.) Th. Stcherbatsky, 2008-01-01 Buddhist logic reveals itself as the culminating point of a long course of Indian philosophic history Its birth its growth and its decline run parallel with the birth the growth and the decline of Indian civilisation The time has come to reconsider the subject of Buddhist logic in its historical connections This is done in these two volumes In the copious notes the literary renderings are given where needed This will enable the reader to fully appreciate the sometimes enormous distance which lies between the words of the Sanskrit phrasing and their philosophic meaning rendered according to our habits of thought The notes also contain a philosophic comment on the translated texts The first volume contains a historical sketch as well as a synthetical reconstruction of the whole edifice of the final shape of Buddhist philosophy The second volume contains the material as well as the justification for this reconstruction Content Preface Abbreviations Introduction Part I Reality and Knowledge pramanya vada Part II The Sensible world Ch 1 The theory of Instantaneous being ksanika vada Ch II Causation pratitya samutpada Ch III Sense Perception pratyaksam Ch IV Ultimate reality paramartha sat Part III The constructed world Ch I Judgment Ch II Inference Ch III Syllogism pararthanumanam Ch IV Logical Fallacies Part IV Negation Ch I The negative judgment Ch II The Law of Contradiction Ch III Universals Ch IV Dialectic Part V Reality of the External World Conclusion Indices Appendix Addenda et corrigenda Preface Appendices Indices Errata

Day and Night Stories Algernon Blackwood, 2015-10-27 I THE TRYST As he got out of the train at the little wayside station he remembered the conversation as if it had been yesterday instead of fifteen years ago and his heart went thumping against his ribs so violently that he almost heard it The original thrill came over him again with all its infinite yearning He felt it as he had felt it then not with that tragic lessening the interval had brought to each repetition of its memory Here in the familiar scenery of its birth he realised with mingled pain and wonder that the subsequent years had not destroyed but only dimmed it The forgotten rapture flamed back with all the fierce beauty of its genesis desire at white heat And the shock of the abrupt discovery shattered time Fifteen years became a negligible moment the crowded experiences that had intervened seemed but a dream The farewell scene the conversation on the steamer's deck were clear as of the day before He saw the hand holding her big hat that fluttered in the wind saw the flowers on the dress where the long coat was blown open a moment recalled the face of a hurrying steward who had jostled them he even heard the voices his own and hers II THE TOUCH OF PAN III THE WINGS OF HORUS IV INITIATION V A DESERT EPISODE VI THE OTHER WING VII THE OCCUPANT OF THE ROOM VIII CAIN'S ATONEMENT IX AN EGYPTIAN HORNET X BY WATER XI H S H XII A BIT OF WOOD XIII A VICTIM OF HIGHER SPACE XIV TRANSITION XV THE TRADITION

GOD who Walked on Earth Rangaswami Parthasarathy, 2011-12-30 Who was Sai Baba Where did he come from and what was his message How and why was he worshipped as a God Who were his disciples and why were they attracted to him What do his devotees numbering millions all over the country think of his lilas Have they experienced his compassion and received succour and relief in their hour of need These questions are answered in this biography of a living God who charmed and captured the hearts of people from all walks of life of all religions rich and poor the learned and the illiterate Many books have been written about Sai Baba of Shirdi but this one is different For the first time a comprehensive and objective account of the life and times of Sai Baba is given in simple and easy to understand language without omitting any aspect of Baba's life and his philosophy The book presents an absorbing story of a man who came to Shirdi as a fakir was teased by children and frowned upon by sceptical villagers and remained to reign as a spiritual leader the greatest saint of all times He became a god who walked on earth It is a book which every Sai devotee would like to possess as a Bible of Baba s teachings and a remembrance of the great Master whose idol or portrait adorns the prayer rooms of millions of homes throughout the country The Magistrate of Gower Claire Robertson,2015-09-01 In the end you could choose to say no more than this that in the high summer of 1938 in a courtroom in the town of Gower in the Union of South Africa a case of arson came to an abrupt and irregular end confounding those who had followed the matter and prompting speculation that approached but did not quite deliver scandal When an illicit affair in British Ceylon comes to light in 1902 seventeen year old Boer prisoner of war Henry Vos is disgraced Months before a short film made his face widely recognisable but now he is shunned by Boer and Brit alike Three decades later Henry is the magistrate of Gower a small inland town in the Union of South Africa where he makes friends with young newcomer Adaira van Brugge Adaira s story will start to echo Henry s when she takes a secret lover Ira Gevint a Jew who fled Europe only to wind up in a town ready to experiment with its own kind of persecution As events threaten to unravel the careful life Henry has created for himself desire surfaces alongside nationalist fervour in Claire Robertson s arresting new novel about the courage to choose love over fear Law and Theory in Chemistry Douglas Carnegie,1894 The Children's Crusade Ann Packer,2016-04-05 In 1954 Bill Blair and Penny Greenway marry and have four children Thirty years later the three oldest Blair children adults now and still living near the family home are disrupted by the return of the youngest whose sudden presence and all too familiar troubles force a reckoning with who they are separately and together and set off a struggle over the family s future The Basic Ways of Knowing Govardhan P. Bhatt,1989 The book gives a penetrating and full length study of epistemology in the school of Bhatta Mimamsa The work is based on an intensive and critical study of the Sanskrit texts which have not been utilized by any other Oriental scholar so far It is very much different from other books on the subject because it not only discusses historically the epistemology of the Bhatta School but also discusses many really philosophical problems connected with epistemology in general and Indian epistemology in particular One of the most valuable features of the work is the comparative references which it makes to standard epistemologists of Western philosophy The book reaches the highest watermark in its line It compares and contrasts the Bhatta position on various issues with not only other Indian schools but also with some of the European philosophers like Russell Moore Reid Hume Mill and Kant In a sense it is an exercise in comparative philosophy This is inevitable as otherwise the position of the Bhatta School cannot be clarified and brought out in depth
