One Hundred Films And A Funeral:

One Hundred Films and a Funeral Michael Kuhn, 2002 This is the brilliant account of the life and death of PolyGram Films as seen through the eyes of its president Michael Kuhn The New Film History J. Chapman, M. Glancy, S.

Harper, 2007-04-25 The first major overview of the field of film history in twenty years this book offers a wide ranging account of the methods sources and approaches used by modern film historians The key areas of research are analysed alongside detailed case studies centred on well known American Australian British and European films Channel 4 and the British Film Industry, 1982-1998 Laura Mayne, 2024-04-30 This monograph offers the first ever comprehensive study of Channel 4's film production distribution and broadcasting activities and represents a significant contribution to British cinema and television history The importance of Channel 4 to the British film industry over the last 40 years cannot be overstated The birth of the Channel in 1982 heralded a convergence between the UK film and television sectors which was particularly notable given that the two industries had historically been at loggerheads In addition to its role as a broadcaster and curator of feature film programming since its inception Channel 4 has funded or co funded hundreds of feature films through its film commissioning arm Film4 The Channel's commitment to financing between 15-20 films per year helped form the backbone of the ailing film sector throughout the 1980s and early 1990s while Film4 funding has also been instrumental to the success of many companies which have become vital to the British film industry The Routledge Companion to British Cinema History I.Q. Hunter, Laraine Porter, Justin Smith, 2017-01-12 This book offers a comprehensive and revisionist overview of British cinema as on the one hand a commercial entertainment industry and on the other a series of institutions centred on economics funding and relations to government Scotland David Martin-Jones, 2010-08-18 Scotland Global Cinema focuses on the explosion of filmmaking in Scotland in the 1990s and 2000s It explores the various cinematic fantasies of Scotland created by contemporary filmmakers from all over the world who braved the weather to shoot in Scotland

The People's Pictures James Caterer, 2011-08-08 When John Major launched the UK's National Lottery in 1994 he christened it the people's Lottery and handed it to the mythical stewardship of the Everyman But when the proceeds began to be distributed to worthy causes including the British film industry this populist rhetoric came under increasing strain If Lottery funding is used to produce the type of British films which the public want to see such as romantic comedies then many question whether the market deserves such subsidy Short films and low budget experimental cinema which often require state support tend to go unwatched by large swathes of the Lottery ticket buying public This book explores the debates which were sparked by the arrival of the people's pictures and places them in historical context by examining their many precedents Is public patronage a boon or a burden for filmmakers And how do institutional cultures or political buzzwords affect the finished films Case studies include the popular hits Billy Elliot 2000 and Shooting Fish 1997 art house releases such as Love Is The Devil 1998 and Gallivant 1997 short films by Lynne Ramsey and David MacKenzie and artists film and video work by Bill Viola and Tracey Emin The Screenplay Business Peter Bloore, 2013 The development of a film script is a long and complex process initially creatively driven by the writer but managed by a producer or development executive This text examines the process and considers how to create the best processes and environments for developing stories and concepts for film Movie Geek Den of Geek, Simon Brew, 2017-10-05 A comprehensive compendium of cult website Den of Geek's most popular articles combined with new material to create the ultimate alternative encyclopedia of film The Routledge Companion to Media Industries Paul McDonald, 2021-10-04 Bringing together 49 chapters from leading experts in media industries research this major collection offers an authoritative overview of the current state of scholarship while setting out proposals for expanding re thinking and innovating the field Media industries occupy a central place in modern societies producing circulating and presenting the multitude of cultural forms and experiences we encounter in our daily lives The chapters in this volume begin by outlining key conceptual and critical perspectives while also presenting original interventions to prompt new lines of inquiry Other chapters then examine the impact of digitalization on the media industries intersections formed between industries or across geographic territories and the practices of doing media industries research and teaching General ideas and arguments are illustrated through specific examples and case studies drawn from a range of media sectors including advertising publishing comics news music film television branded entertainment live cinema experiences social media and music video Making a vital and significant contribution to media research this volume is essential reading for students and academics seeking to understand and evaluate the work of the media industries Chapter 10 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> All I Want Darcey Bell, 2025-04 A young couple with a baby on the way moves to an old Victorian house in rural upstate New York Strange happenings contribute to their disintegrating marriage and to their terrifying descent into the darker side of human nature
