

We can hide from the danger and glory of our humanity. Or, we can open ourselves completely to the fascinating, awesome, and delightful thrill of being human. When we live and love out of a free and responsible commitment to be God's person, specters of danger may appear around us. In our newly-found freedom we seem to be separated from them only by a fragile-looking fence, but when we are in touch with our source of courage, we know it to be the armor of faith.
