

14 Prayers to pray for your children

A prayer for their relationship with God

"I am the vine, you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit, apart from me you can do nothing."

JOHN 15:5 (NIV)

Father, be with my child their hearts and minds for they do not know you as savior, help them to come to you as personal savior. As I know you, Lord, strengthen their faith. Help them to be connected to you in spite of the world. In Jesus' name Amen.

A prayer for their relationship with siblings

"Anyone who loves their brother and sister lives in the light, and there is nothing in them to make them stumble."

1 JOHN 4:12 (NIV)

God, grow my children's relationships with one another. Help them to love each other and treat each other with kindness. Give them grace and compassion for one another. Build their relationship with each other so that they may be friends as well as siblings. Lord, keep hard feelings from growing and festering in them. In Jesus' name I pray.

A prayer for their physical health

"Dear friend, I pray that you may enjoy good health and that all may go well with you, even as your soul is getting along well."

1 JOHN 2:2 (NIV)

God, please be with my children physically. Meet their physical needs and help them to remain healthy in every way. Lord, let their bones continue to grow strong and their bodies function well. Help them to enjoy good health. And if they do have health struggles, Father, help us to turn to you and remember that you are always in control and always good. In Jesus' name I pray, Amen.

Prayers of Jewish Women Markus H. McDowell, 2006 Markus McDowell examines how the literature of the Second Temple period portrays women at prayer through an examination of the literary context and character of those prayers The goal of this work is a greater understanding of how women were portrayed in literary sources and an offering of some fresh insights for the study of women's religious and social roles in the ancient world The texts are analyzed and categorized within five areas social location content form occasion and gender perspective The prayers are also compared and contrasted with men's prayers in the same sources The analysis includes locating as much as possible the historical literary and cultic context of each document in which these prayers appear By examining all prayers in these texts uttered by women not just prayers of named or prominent women and then comparing them with all the prayers of men in those same texts certain patterns appear This study adds to our knowledge of women and religion in Second Temple Judaism by primarily exploring patterns that appear among the prayers in the literature of the Second Temple period While there are fewer prayers by women than men in this literature the prayers of women are not portrayed as significantly different from those of men in terms of social location content form or occasion At the same time the prayers of women exhibit other patterns of language and in a minor way form and occasion that differ from the prayers of men Prayers for Public Worship, Private Devotion, Personal Ministry Abbie Clemens Morrow, 1902 Children and Prayer Penelope White, 2003-08 Powerful Prayers to
