

PRAYER FOR PERSONAL HEALING

Everlasting Father,
I surrender myself to you Father, I feel there is something wrong with me but I'm not sure what it is.
But I believe that you Lord knows whatever is wrong with me.
So I come before your mighty throne to surrender myself to you. I humbly ask that you heal in me whatever needs healing.

Please forgive my sins and cleanse my heart. I give to you, my mind, my soul, my body, and my heart. Please lay your loving hands on me and heal me.

Grant me strength and wisdom to know your ways and acknowledge them.

In Jesus' name, I pray,

Amen

Private Needs, Public Selves John K. Roth, 1997 Polls through the 90s show that many Americans believe the nation is in a period of spiritual decline yet public religious display and discussion often is deemed politically incorrect. Philosopher John K. Roth feels that more outward sharing of religious beliefs, thoughts, and ideas would bridge the gap between our private needs and our public selves and would give Americans of differing faiths a common identity. Finding Hope during Times of Personal Trial Marlene Bateman Sullivan, 2024-05-11 Finding Hope during Times of Personal Trial by Marlene Bateman Sullivan and Joshua M. Sullivan, LCSW, provides inspiration, hope, and practical suggestions for navigating the trials of mortality. While there is no quick fix for the challenges of living in the latter days, this book provides hope and help for those dealing with adversity through inspiring stories, quotes by church leaders, therapeutic help, and powerful scriptures. No one likes going through trials, but when we view our difficult moments from an eternal perspective, we can see our hardships as prime opportunities for our optimal growth. Oftentimes, trials are the result of a loving Heavenly Father who has laid the stepping stones that lead us back to our heavenly home. Dying, Grieving, Faith, and Family Harold G. Koenig, George W. Bowman, 2013-04-15 Dying, Grieving, Faith, and Family: A Pastoral Care Approach enables grief counselors, pastors, hospice specialists, hospital chaplains, mental health practitioners, educators, and seminary students to bring an understanding of faith development, family systems, and gender and ethnic differences into their professional practice as they work with dying and grieving persons. No other book covers all these themes. Not only a great resource for practical guidance, this book is also meant to be provocative, suggestive, and stimulating to professionals and educators charged with working with and teaching about dying and grieving persons. With 50 years of providing pastoral care to dying and grieving persons and 30 years as a pastoral educator, George Bowman understands the nature and concerns of dying and grieving persons. In Dying, Grieving, Faith, and Family, he answers the questions you should be asking yourself, including: How does faith development affect relationships of the dying person and family and friends? How does faith development affect grief management by the survivors? How does the family systems approach help the pastor or counselor work with dying persons and their survivors? What gender and ethnic issues are important to remember in helping to minister and serve persons in crises of dying and grieving? The value of Dying, Grieving, Faith, and Family lies in its approach to dying and grieving from the perspectives of faith development family systems theory gender and ethnicity Bowman's unique work proposes that personal development and faith development influence the way one deals with the crises of dying and grief work
