Personal Recollections Of Rudolph Steiner:

Personal Recollections of Rudolf Steiner Norbert Glas, 1987-12-01 Time of Decision with Rudolf Steiner Friedrich Hiebel, 1989-12 This fascinating recollection of the early days of the Anthroposophical Society offers a unique perspective on Rudolf Steiner's work and his relationship to his students. Of particular interest to our readers will be the chapters on the Christmas Conference of 1923 for the foundation of the Anthroposophical Society. Hiebel attended the meeting and his lively descriptions and warm style let those solemn events rise up again in our souls. He recreates the solemn sacred mood of the laying of the Foundation Stone and provides insights into the structure and meaning of the Foundation Stone verses Freemasonry and Rudolf Steiner N.V.P Franklin, 2020-10-16 Today some six million Freemasons around the world continue to perform their rituals regularly, an enormous legacy of spiritual endeavour kept largely in secret. In Britain alone there are over 7 000 lodges with a quarter of a million members. What is this wealth, this appeal, and how did the philosopher and spiritual scientist Rudolf Steiner reinterpret or reconstruct Freemasonry's time-worn legacy? Unless one is a Freemason the masonic world with its arcane conventions and language remains largely unknown, an obscurity that is almost impossible to fathom. Yet understanding its traditions and style are invaluable when approaching Goethe, Mozart, Herder, Lessing, and Novalis, as well as Rudolf Steiner. Steiner himself renewed the Royal Art of Freemasonry from 1906 to 1914 through his ritual work known as Mystica terna. When Steiner invigorated education, medicine, the social order, and religion, he fully intended that committed and professional individuals should assume responsibility for the new initiatives. But this was not the case with the Masonic Order he founded, whose leadership he took upon himself. Even the celebration of his passing in 1925, led by Marie Steiner, was entirely Masonic in character. In the context of continuing resistance and misrepresentation, N V P Franklin uncovers the living heart of Freemasonry and reveals why it was and still is immensely relevant to anthroposophy. With profound research into its older rituals and teachings, this detailed and conscientious study is a unique contribution to comprehending freemasonry and anthroposophy both historically and in the present day. Rudolf Steiner's Endowment

Virginia Sease, 2012 The author's reflections emphasize especially three considerations. First, that the Endowment impulse would allow us to experience the art of interpreting in the Rosicrucian way. Second, that the best initiative, even one undertaken by a great individuality, is doomed to failure if the participants are unable to overcome their personal ambitions. And third, that we may live with the fact that despite the passage of time, the latent seeds in Rudolf Steiner's attempt still have the possibility to reach fruition in the future. A Man Before Others Rudolf Steiner Press, 1993 This illuminating collection of essays and reminiscences by Rudolf Steiner's pupils and early collaborators contains a wealth of personal details on Steiner and his work. What emerges is his great unity of purpose and breadth of thought and his ability to attend to the smallest practical details while laying the seeds for spiritual impulses that would flourish far into the future. These essays reveal him as a man of vision, practical ability, humor, and selflessness.

A Rosicrucian Soul Russell Pooler, 2009-03 Written 1904 1908 CW 11 Rudolf Steiner shows that the insoluble link between humanity and cosmos is the fundamental basis of evolution As human beings have participated in the development of the world we know today so their achievements are directly connected with the ultimate destiny of the universe In human hands rests the freedom to shape the future course of creation Knowledge of our exalted origins and of the path we have followed is indispensable if we are to evolve a future worthy of responsible human beings Through a study of Steiner's writings one can come to a clear reasonable comprehensive understanding of human beings and their place in the universe Paul Marshall Allen In the best tradition of ancient wisdom literature Cosmic Memory reconstructs from the akashic record events that span the time between the origin of the Earth and the beginning of recorded history This spiritual research includes a profound investigation of the origins achievements and fate of the Atlanteans and Lemurians the remarkable lost root races that developed the first concepts of good and evil manipulated natural forces laid the foundation for human legal and ethical systems and defined and nurtured the distinctive yet complementary powers of men and women that brought humankind many centuries ago to its highest artistic intellectual and spiritual attainments Through this discussion of our true origins Cosmic Memory offers a genuine foundation for our lives allowing us to realize our real value dignity and essence The reader is shown our human connection with the world around us as well as our highest goals and true destiny This is a key volume for understanding Rudolf Steiner's early development as a Theosophist and how his ideas terminology and formulations during that time fit into the development of his anthroposophic epistemology and Christology This volume is a translation of Aus der Akasha Chronik Rudolf Steiner Gesamtausgabe 11 Rudolf Steiner Verlag 1986

TWIN ROADS TO THE NEW MILLENIUM Hans Peter van Manen, 2014-06-03 First published in the run up to the new millennium van Manen's seminal study remains a unique and important source for understanding the spiritual and karmic background to the Anthroposophical Movement and Society as founded around the work of the twentieth century seer and scientist Rudolf Steiner In his lectures on karma given in 1924 Steiner spoke of the principal Aristotelian and Platonic traditions and the movements based on their thinking Van Manen studies the streams of destiny connected to these groups and elaborates upon Steiner's presentations also tackling the apparent contradictions in the Karmic Relationships lecture series. The author discusses the background to these groupings of destiny beginning with the cosmic Michael School in the life before birth. He throws light on many different esoteric aspects connected to anthroposophy including the archetypal representations of thinking arising from the Middle Ages, the Arthurian and Grail movements, the mystery of Old and Young souls, the individuals identified as Seekers for Christ and Servants of Michael and the Shepherds and Kings. We are led to the point at which the two principal groups of souls incarnate and meet together on earth for the first time ever, an event which is to take place within the contemporary anthroposophical movement. In an inspiring conclusion, the author presents his thoughts on a great Whitsun happening at the end of the twentieth century and expounds on the tasks of the new millennium and the future of anthroposophy.

Rudolf Steiner's Foundation Stone Meditation Peter Selg, 2012. People who practice esoteric exercises grow spiritually into the future; they experience in themselves what will one day come about and what they experience in this way is what we know as the higher worlds. These represent future conditions of humankind. Rudolf Steiner, Munich 1907. Rudolf Steiner spoke the Foundation Stone meditation at the Christmas Conference of the General Anthroposophical Society in 1923, giving it to the Society members for strengthening their forces. The meditation's words contain, as Sergei O. Prokofieff states, the quintessence of the whole of Anthroposophy. Thus Rudolf Steiner was bestowing on the members the possibility of dealing resolutely with the specific tasks that awaited them. In this short, potent volume, the author suggests further that The Foundation Stone Meditation represents the concerns of every individual of our time, allowing each of us to maintain our humanity in the face of the challenges and catastrophes of both the present and the future. Steiner said that one could hear the words of the meditation sounding in one's heart. This process of hearing will acquire even more significance and reality in the future and can be of enormous help to anyone who opens themselves to it. It is against this background that Selg has written this introductory book to promote awareness of the meditation, understanding of its historic place in the catastrophic twentieth century and its critical but latent contribution to the future.

The Source of Speech Hermann Beckh, 2019-11-06. An abundance of books by Beckh came into existence whose significance perhaps will only be properly appreciated in the future. Emil Bock 1959. Hermann Beckh's lectures on language, published here in English for the first time, offer a unique and penetrating discussion of the origins and evolution of speech. Based on his professional knowledge of Tibetan, Sanskrit and Pali and complete fluency in at least six other ancient languages, not to count nine modern languages, and accompanied by a heartfelt understanding of anthroposophy, the lectures comprise an unparalleled marriage of academic and meditative insights. Further, they give a valuable introduction to the author's later works on music, the stars and the Gospels of Mark and John. The Source of Speech features Beckh's complete series of articles on the subject that were developed during the early seeding period of his life and work. These include Rudolf Steiner and the East, an unprecedented study of Steiner's relationship to Sanskrit and Buddhist spirituality, Let There be Light.

Beckh's exploration of the six Hebrew words forming Genesis 1-3 articles devoted to the origins of language Indian philosophies and the names of the Divine in sacred texts and essays published in Das Goetheanum which examine speech sounds especially those of Sanskrit and Classical Hebrew Also included are contemporaneous reviews of Beckh's articles by Albert Steffen and Eugen Kolisko and a lecture on academia materialism and the undisciplined enthusiasm for Indian spirituality held at the University of Berlin Nearly one hundred years on Beckh's perspectives and themes remain as exciting relevant and fresh as ever Man and World In the Light of Anthroposophy Stewart C. Easton, The Golden Blade, 1960

The Birth of a New Agriculture Adalbert Graf Von Keyserlingk, 2009 In 1924 at Koberwitz the estate of Count and Countess Keyserlingk Rudolf Steiner gave a key course of lectures on agriculture At a time when industrial methods were being introduced into farming Steiner had a radically different evolutionary vision Based on a revitalized relationship with nature his approach encompassed knowledge of the cosmos the elemental world and the Earth and utilized special planting methods and preparations Today biodynamic agriculture is widely valued and used around the world In addition to the lively and entertaining accounts of the agriculture course held at Koberwitz this extraordinary book features Countess Keyserlingk's memories of her meetings with Rudolf Steiner who told the Countess her form of consciousness would be usual in the third millennium Her reminiscences reflect this uncommon quality Also included are essays by the editor that incorporate rare material including communications received by Countess Keyserlingk after Steiner's death This book will be of interest to students of biodynamics as well as those interested in how Rudolf Steiner worked to develop Anthroposophy It is compiled and edited by Adalbert Graf von Keyserlingk the son of the Count and Countess who hosted the Koberwitz conference

Our Connection with the Elemental World Rudolf Steiner, 2016-11-14 The heart of this volume comprises Rudolf Steiner's commentary on the elemental forces that are responsible for our earthly nature as human beings forces that influence us through our membership of a national or geographical group When such elemental forces are not recognised and understood he states they cause conflict and chaos However Steiner indicates an important accompanying task that calls upon each human being to develop individuality emancipating ourselves from the earthly influences underlying national and racial groups These great themes are framed by Rudolf Steiner's pioneering research into the two major Northern folk poems the Kalevala and The Dream Song of Olaf steson The former tells of the elemental spirits who created the conditions for our earthly incarnation whereas the Dream Song has to do with the drama of excarnation the journey of the human soul after death Linking these vast motifs is Steiner's unique description of the mission and tasks of the Russian people and the contrast of their destiny to the North American people who he says are dominating the Earth for a brief period of increasing splendour Steiner explains how elemental beings responsible for the balance of land and sea have created conditions where various peoples are enabled to develop their gifts and fulfil their destinies Thus he speaks of Finland as the ancient conscience of Europe Russia as the future bearer of the Christ imbued Spirit Self and the differing but complementary environments of Germany and Britain Strikingly he states that no souls on Earth love one another more than those living in Central Europe and those living in the British Isles Rudolf Steiner also speaks of the necessary work of luciferic and ahrimanic beings that collaborate to enable the solid spatial forms of our physical bodies Likewise they influence our etheric and astral bodies facilitating thinking feeling and will to be imbued with life and consciousness Rudolf Steiner Stewart C.
