Personal Health Perspectives And Lifestyles By Floyd 2nd Edition:

Personal Health Pat Floyd, Patricia A. Floyd, Sandra E. Mimms, Caroline Yelding-Howard, 2003 This book emphasizes the individual's personal responsibility for wellness by presenting general core and current health information to guide decision making. The focus of the text is to present health topics including cultural, racial, ethnic, and gender diversity, identify risk factors, and give students useful and sensible suggestions to reduce their risk for preventable diseases and conditions in order to achieve optimal levels of wellness for themselves, friends, and family. Filled with practical advice, stimulating discussion questions, and self-assessment exercises, this text takes an applied approach and empowers students to take control of their own health. Concentrated emphasis on health issues as they relate to various cultural differences makes this text one of the most up-to-date resources for health-related culture, gender, ethnic, and age issues. The Dimensions of Health John Hjelm, 2010-10-25 The Dimensions of Health: Conceptual Models is an introductory text that examines the five dimensions of personal health: physical, social, emotional, intellectual, and spiritual. Each chapter provides context for the study of that dimension, includes examples of how experts think about that dimension, presents two or more models developed by scholars and professionals, discusses identifiable characteristics associated with each dimension, and by incorporating a variety of perspectives, The Dimensions of Health enables students to formulate their own answer to the question: What is health? This text is perfect for use in conjunction with a personal health text or as a standalone for any personal health course. Personal Health: Health Education, Personal Wellness, Health Studies 2010, 98 pages. Skills Based Health Education - Book Only Mary Connolly, 2011-01-06 Skills Based Health Education provides pre-service and practicing teachers with the pedagogical foundation and tools to develop a comprehensive PreK-12 health education program using the National Health Education Standards. Rather than solely focusing on teaching content, an approach which can prove ineffective in developing healthy behaviors, readers learn to teach the content and skills their students need to be healthy and prepared for the 21st century. The book addresses each one of the national standards with specific directions regarding how to apply the standard and performance indicators to plan and implement performance tasks that target instruction to a student's need. Readers are shown how to establish student need, select content, and skill performance indicators to meet the need, and plan and implement assessment and instruction. PowerPoint presentations and a TestBank are available as free instructor downloads. Companion website includes lessons, units, and other support materials to enhance teaching and learning. Therapeutic Recreation Leadership and Programming Robin Kunstler, Frances Stavola Daly, 2010-06-14 Therapeutic Recreation Leadership and Programming will help students learn the essential aspects of professional practice while developing a leadership mind-set. The book focuses on the day-to-day responsibilities of the therapeutic recreation specialist (TRS) while integrating ethical considerations into each aspect of the job. Readers will learn how to perform the daily work of a TRS while maintaining the highest ethical standards of the profession. The book details the principles, theories, and codes of ethics that will form the foundation of specialists understanding of the field and set the stage for practice the knowledge skills and leadership principles that TRSs will need in order to help their clients accomplish therapeutic outcomes strategies that will guide TRSs in planning a wide range of programs and services including information on frequently encountered health problems major program areas facilitation strategies and client and program evaluation and methods for program organization and delivery that will prepare specialists to offer a regular schedule of therapeutic recreation programs that meet the needs of all of their clients whether in group or individual settings The book will arm students with the information and tools they need in order to succeed as therapeutic recreation specialists It familiarizes students with their future clients by describing the health concerns most often encountered in therapeutic settings Case studies for the most common concerns provide students with concrete examples of how programming works in various clinical settings The book also provides specific recreation activities from five major program areas along with information on the effectiveness of the activities risk management concerns and implementation strategies Step by step instructions for structuring planning and leading both group and one on one sessions will prepare students to implement programs in a wide variety of settings Stories from professionals in the field examples of real and hypothetical clients and case studies show students how to use the principles they ve learned when leading programs Learning activities help them to further explore the concepts in each chapter and highlight boxes emphasize key ideas related to each chapter s content An instructor guide is available to course adopters at www.HumanKinetics.com/TherapeuticRecreationLeadershipandProgramming
