Confessing Christ in the Twenty-First Century Mark Douglas, 2005-06-09 Confessing Christ in the Twenty First Century written for the layperson and for those who lead and teach them challenges the readers to think about how their confession is the basis for claiming not only a relationship to a savior but a way of living in the world a politics that is countercultural in the literal sense of that term At the same time it comforts them by reminding that the Lord they proclaim is one who opens up a way of living in genuine freedom and equality with others Douglas probes essential issues in philosophy theology worship ethics and politics in a way that offers understanding and a comprehensive view even as it stimulates readers to explore the meaning of their faith in vigorous conversation

The Prayers and Meditations of St. Anselm with the Proslogion Anselm, 2006-06-29 Mostly written between 1070 and 1080 before he became Archbishop of Canterbury the prayers and meditations of Anselm of Aosta created a tradition of intimate intensely personal devotional works written in subtle and theologically daring prose While the Prayer to God is based on the Lord s Prayer the Prayer to Christ is inspired by ardent private emotion and other prayers invest saints with individual attributes with John the Baptist as the friend Peter as the shepherd and Mary Magdalene as the forgiving lover among many others The meditations include a searching exploration of the state of the soul and a lament on the loss of purity and the Proslogion discusses the mysteries of faith With their bright imagery beautiful language and highly original thought the works of Anselm have secured a lasting place in both religious and secular literature

M. Jacob,Waltraud M.

Jacob,2002-06-20 This book investigates the part that Anglicanism played in the lives of lay people in England and Wales between 1689 and 1750 It is concerned with what they did rather than what they believed and explores their attitudes to clergy religious activities personal morality and charitable giving Using diaries letters account books newspapers and popular publications and parish and diocesan records Dr Jacob demonstrates that Anglicanism held the allegiance of a significant proportion of all people They took the lead in managing the affairs of the parishes which were the major focus of communal and social life and supported the spiritual and moral discipline of the church courts He shows that early eighteenth century England and Wales remained a largely traditional society and that Methodism emerged from a strong church which was central to the lives of most people      Women Religious Leaders in Japan's Christian Century, 1549-1650 Haruko Nawata Ward,2009 Meticulously researched and drawing on original source materials written in eight different languages this study fills a lacuna in the historiography of Christianity in Japan Ward analyzes the experience of nuns witches catechists and sisters in sixteenth century Japan bringing to light how these women utilized resources from their traditional religions to new Christian adaptations and specific religio social issues creating unique hybrids of Catholicism and Buddhism or rejecting the new religion      A History of Polish Christianity Jerzy Kloczowski,2000-09-14 This is a single volume history of Christianity in Poland a subject at the core of religious history and European secular history alike The book covers the development of Polish Christianity from the tenth century to the year 2000 placing it in the broader context of East Central European political social religious and cultural history Jewish Christian relations and the problematic religious history of the Jews in the region play an important part in the story and there are pervasive references to countries historically linked to Poland such as Lithuania Belarus and the Ukraine Jerzy Kloczowski shows how the history of Poland and Polish Christianity are embedded in the complex systems of relations with other countries and religious denominations A History of Polish Christianity should be read by anyone interested in the confrontation between Christianity and the totalitarian systems of the twentieth century and in the interplay between Eastern and Western Christianity      Death in Second-Century Christian Thought Jeremiah Mutie,2015-03-24 Death in Second Century Christian Thought explores how the meaning of death was conceptualized in this crucial period of the history of the church Through an exploration of some key metaphors and other figures of speech that the early church used to talk about this interesting but difficult topic the author argues that the early church selected modified and utilized existing views on the subject of death in order to offer a distinctively Christian view of death based on what they believed the word of God taught on the subject particularly in light of the ongoing story of Jesus following his death his burial and resurrection In short the book shows how Christians interacted with the views of death in late antiquity coming up with their own distinctive view of death Protestant Poetics and the Seventeenth-Century Religious Lyric Barbara Kiefer Lewalski,2014-07-14 Barbara Lewalski argues that the Protestant emphasis on the Bible as requiring philological and literary analysis fostered a fully developed theory of biblical aesthetics defining both poetic art and spiritual truth Originally published in 1979 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

N. Trakakis, 2014-09-19 The nineteenth century was a turbulent period in the history of the philosophical scrutiny of religion Major scholars such as Hegel Fichte Schelling Newman Caird and Royce sought to construct systematic responses to the Enlightenment critiques of religion carried out by Spinoza and Hume At the same time new critiques of religion were launched by philosophers such as Schopenhauer and Nietzsche and by scholars engaged in textual criticism such as Schleiermacher and Dilthey Over the course of the century the work of Marx Freud Darwin and Durkheim brought the revolutionary perspectives of political economy psychoanalysis evolutionary theory and anthropology to bear on both religion and its study These challenges played a major role in the shaping of twentieth century philosophical thought about religion Nineteenth Century Philosophy of Religion will be of interest to scholars and students of Philosophy and Religion and will serve as an authoritative guide for all who are interested in the debates that took place in this seminal period in the history of philosophical thinking about religion Teach Us to Pray Katharine Mahon, 2019-04-01 The study of liturgical reform is usually undertaken through a close examination of liturgical texts In order to consider the impact of reform on the worship life of Christians Katharine Mahon takes a wider view of liturgy by considering the worship practices of Christian churches beyond what appears in the rites themselves Looking at how Christians were taught how to pray and instructed in liturgical and sacramental participation Mahon explores the late medieval patterns of Christian ritual formation and the transformation of these patterns in the sixteenth century reforms of Martin Luther Thomas Cranmer and Roman Catholic leaders She uses the Lord's Prayer the backbone of medieval lay catechesis liturgical participation and private prayer to paint a panorama of medieval ritual formation integrated into the life of the church in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries She then follows the disintegration and reconstruction of that system of formation through the changing functions of the Lord's Prayer in the official reforms of catechesis liturgy and prayer in the sixteenth century Prayer and Embodiment in Nineteenth-Century Women's Writing Elizabeth Ludlow, 2025-02-20 In the 19th century an era that saw a reconfiguration of the relationship between the self the world and the divine women writers probed the theological depths of embodied faith in new ways through poetry fiction devotional prose and life writing Elizabeth Ludlow explores how through this process they articulated what it means to pray and thereby understand one's place in a world of individual and communal bodies The eight women writers discussed Elizabeth Barrett Browning Josephine Butler George Eliot Elizabeth Gaskell Dora Greenwell Felicia Hemans Adelaide Procter and Christina Rossetti provide accounts of prayer that stress that the only way to experience and respond to something of the transcendent is through embracing lived experience and through a recognition of the connectedness of all bodies In detailing how these writers engage with new ways of thinking about faith desire and the material world Ludlow argues that they offer models for ethical modes of being in the world and pave the way for later theologies of embodiment

Spiritually Revitalizing Your Community of Faith through Prayer Robert Arthur Hansen, DMin, 2023-08-03

As we enter a Community of Faith for the first time we are naturally drawn to a shared spirituality. It may be a congregation, synagogue, mosque, or temple. It is shared spiritually of the people at prayer which attracts us and draws us to unite with others in prayer. There are three shared stands of any Community of Faith: their shared faith, tradition, the culture of the community, and the personalities of the members. This book examines the elements of tradition, culture, and personal temperament to determine how the three become spiritually integrated at the moment of prayer. The conclusion is that through an explicit assessment of these three elements, members of the faith community can enrich their personal spiritual life, resulting in spiritual growth and can ultimately revitalize the spiritual prayer life of the community of faith. The book is a spiritual intervention of a Presbyterian congregation in Central New York in the 1980s. I am grateful for the prayer group that committed there Wednesday nights during 1986. This is their story of how they were able to revitalize the spiritual life of a 150-year-old three-hundred-member Presbyterian congregation.
