Dictionary of International Biography ,2001 A biographical record of contemporary achievement together with a key to the location of the original biographical notes The Life Writing of Otherness Lauren Rusk,2012-12-06 Focusing on innovative works by Woolf Baldwin Kingston and Winterson the author analyzes how they each represent the self as unique collectively other and inclusively human and how these conflicting aspects of selfhood interact Conduct Books and the History of the Ideal Woman Tabitha Kenlon,2020-03-31 The longest running war is the battle over how women should behave Conduct Books and the History of the Ideal Woman examines six centuries of advice literature analyzing the print origins of gendered expectations that continue to inform our thinking about women's roles and abilities Close readings of numerous conduct manuals from Britain and America written by men and women explain and contextualize the legacy of sexism as represented in prescriptive writing for women from 1372 to the present While existing period specific studies of conduct manuals consider advice literature within the society that wrote and read them Conduct Books and the History of the Ideal Woman provides the only analysis of both the volumes themselves and the larger debates taking place within their pages across the centuries Combining textual literary analysis with a social history sensibility while remaining accessible to expert and novice this book will help readers understand the on going debate about the often contradictory guidelines for female behavior Genre and Women's Life Writing in Early Modern England Michelle M. Dowd,Julie A. Eckerle,2016-04-15 By taking account of the ways in which early modern women made use of formal and generic structures to constitute themselves in writing the essays collected here interrogate the discursive contours of gendered identity in sixteenth and seventeenth century England The contributors explore how generic choice mixture and revision influence narrative constructions of the female self in early modern England Collectively they situate women's life writings within the broader textual culture of early modern England while maintaining a focus on the particular rhetorical devices and narrative structures that comprise individual texts Reconsidering women's life writing in light of recent critical trends most notably historical formalism this volume produces both new readings of early modern texts such as Margaret Cavendish's autobiography and the diary of Anne Clifford and a new understanding of the complex relationships between literary forms and early modern women's selves This volume engages with new critical methods to make innovative connections between canonical and non canonical writing in so doing it helps to shape the future of scholarship on early modern women

Femmes Et L'état Canadien Caroline Andrew,Sanda Rodgers,1997 A collection of essays presented at a conference to commemorate the twentieth anniversary of the release of the Report of the Royal Commission on the Status of Women Women and the Canadian State both celebrates and critically assesses the Report Women bureaucrats activists and academics consider the impact successes and failures of the Report from a variety of viewpoints and reflect on the experience of Canadian women since its publication in 1970 The Woman Scientist Clarice M. Yentsch,Carl J. Sindermann,2013-11-11 Shades of Grey - Domestic and Sexual Violence Against Women Anna Carline,Patricia Easteal,2014-09-19 Arguing that law must be looked at holistically this book investigates the hidden gender of the so called neutral or objective legal principles that structure the law addressing violence against women Adopting an explicitly feminist perspective it investigates how legal responses to violence against women presuppose maintain and perpetuate a certain context that may not in fact reflect women's experiences Carline and Eastaill draw upon relevant legislation case law and secondary studies from a range of territories including Australia England and Wales the United States Canada and Europe to contextualize and critique different policy responses They go on to examine the potential and limits of law making recommendations for best practice models of policymaking and law reform Aiming to help improve government community and legal responses to women who experience violence Shades of Grey Domestic and Sexual Violence Against Women Law Reform and Society will assist law makers academics policymakers and a wider audience in understanding the complexities of violence against women

Writing and Editing for Women Ethel Maude Colson, 1927 Fallenness in Victorian Women's Writing Deborah Anna Logan, 1998 Logan's study is distinguished by its exclusive focus on women writers including Charlotte Bronte George Eliot Elizabeth Gaskell Harriet Martineau Elizabeth Barrett Browning Florence Nightingale Sarah Grand and Mary Prince Logan utilizes primary texts from these Victorian writers as well as contemporary critics such as Catherine Gallagher and Elaine Showalter to provide the background on social factors that contributed to the construction of fallen woman discourse

Migrant Masculinities in Women's Writing Ashwiny O. Kistnareddy, 2021-09-17 This book examines the representation of masculinities in contemporary texts written by women who have immigrated into France or Canada from a range of geographical spaces Exploring works by L onora Miano Cameroon Fatou Diome Senegal Assia Djébar Malika Mokeddem Algeria Ananda Devi Mauritius Ying Chen China and Kim Th y Vietnam this study charts the extent to which migration generates new ways of understanding and writing masculinities It draws on diverse theoretical perspectives including postcolonial theory affect theory and critical race theory while bringing visibility to the many women across various historical and geographical terrains who write about immigration and the impact on men even as these women too acquire a different position in the new society

Writing the Wrongs Elizabeth Faue, 2018-05-31 Eva McDonald Valesh was one of the Progressive Era's foremost labor publicists Challenging the narrow confines placed on women Valesh became a successful investigative journalist organizer and public speaker for labor reform Valesh was a compatriot of the labor leaders of her day and the right hand man of Samuel Gompers president of the American Federation of Labor Events she covered during her colorful unconventional reporting career included the Populist revolt the Cuban crisis of the 1890s and the 1910 Shirtwaistmakers uprising She was described as bright even comet like by her admirers but her enemies saw her as a pest who took all the benefit that her sex controls when in argument with a man Elizabeth Faue examines the pivotal events that transformed this outspoken daughter of a working class Scots Irish family into a national political figure interweaving the study of one woman's fascinating life with insightful analysis of the changing character of American labor reform during the period from 1880 to 1920 In her journey through the worlds of labor journalism and politics Faue lays bare the underside of social reform and reveals how front line workers in labor's political culture reporters investigators and lecturers provoked and informed American society by writing about social wrongs Compelling insightful and at times humorous Writing the Wrongs is a window on the Progressive Era on social history and the new journalism and on women's lives and the meanings of class and gender

Contesting Feminisms Huma Ahmed-Ghosh, 2015-09-01 Creates a new space for hybrid feminist analysis of Asian Muslim women's lives Contesting Feminisms explores how Asian Muslim women make decisions on appropriating Islam and Islamic lifestyles through their own participation in the faith The contributors highlight the fact that secularism has provided the space for some women to reclaim their religious identity and their own feminisms Through compelling case studies and theoretical discussions this volume challenges mainstream Western and national feminisms that presume homogeneity of Muslim women's lives to provide a deeper understanding of the multiple realities of feminism in Muslim communities Contesting Feminisms attempts to offer nuanced understandings of Muslim women's struggles that are firmly rooted in close attention to local social economic and historical contexts with an eye to opening up theoretical spaces in which to examine local and transnational feminist Muslim activism As such the volume offers rich insights into women's lives and struggles in moving away from the reductionist frame of a strictly Qur'anic view of women that is mobilized by both Western detractors and Islamic normativizers to constrain women's agency and instead brings into view the heterogeneity of Muslim women's lives and struggles Zayn Kassam editor of Women and Islam

Writing the Lives of Painters Karen Junod, 2011-01-27 Writing the Lives of Painters explores the development of artists' biographies in eighteenth and early nineteenth century Britain During this period artists gradually distanced themselves from artisans and began to be recognised for their imaginative and intellectual skills The development of the art market and the burgeoning of an exhibition culture as well as the foundation of the Royal Academy of Arts in 1768 all contributed to redefining the rank of artists in society This social redefinition of the status of artists in Britain was shaped by a thriving print culture Contemporary artists were discussed in a wide range of literary forms including exhibition reviews art critical pamphlets and journalistic gossip columns Biographical accounts of modern artists emerged in a dialogue with these other types of writing This book is an account of a new literary genre tracing its emergence in the cultural context of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries It considers artistic biography as a malleable generic framework for investigation Indeed while the lives of painters in Britain did not completely abandon traditional tropes the genre significantly widened its scope and created new individual and social narratives that reflected and accommodated the needs and desires of new reading audiences Writing the Lives of Painters also argues that the proliferation of a myriad biographical forms mirrored the privileging of artistic originality and difference within an art world that had yet to generate a coherent British School of painting Finally by focusing on the emergence of individual biographies of British artists the book examines how and why the art historiographic model established by Giorgio Vasari was gradually dismantled in the hands of British biographers during the Romantic period
