Keeley,2004-06 Whether one is a mother hen who loves feathering her nest a mastermind who sets goals with schedules to match a creative spirit who adds color and flair before elbow grease or a starry eyed dreamer who watches it all happen Hannah Keeley s remarkable new guide shows how easy it can be to organize and decorate a home that nurtures the spirit and frees up time to spend with family and friends The Arts ,1923 The Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature, Science, and Art ,1893 THE GUQIN CULTURE AND THE CHINESE PEOPLE'S LIFESTYLE Geng Yanxia,2024-12-10 As early as in the primitive times Chinese people began to use musical instruments which has evolved today into three main types wind string percussion categorized by the way they are played The string instruments could also be divided into two types the one is two stringed represented by er hu jinhu etc the other is represented by guqin and guzheng played unconventionally by plucking the strings with fingers

Guqin is one of China's oldest and most revered musical instruments which was listed as one of the masterpieces of the oral and intangible heritage of the world by UNESCO in 2003 also named as seven stringed qin or sitong etc with a history of over 3000 years In Chinese history there are significant body of literary works ancient stories and theories related to it Records indicate that it has been a favorite of the literati for more than 2500 years Confucius himself was a great lover of the instrument Over centuries it became a representative of the life taste and pastime of the Chinese literati In addition to its contribution to solo and orchestral musical arrangements a wealth of symbolic meaning also accrued to it over time Not only was the knowledge of the instrument reserved for the literati but its learning was also believed to be conducive to meditation and have an ability to facilitate intellectual enlightenment The guqin is so deeply embedded in the Chinese culture that to study it is to embrace an all encompassing moral philosophy known as the Dao of qin or the Way of the qin essentially a lifestyle of moderation self cultivation and decorum A sincere follower of the Way of the qin does not seek fame but like Boya² prefers a select audience of fragrant pines craggy peaks swirling mists and the occasional discerning human if he cannot find a bosom friend who can truly understand his sound like Ziqi Indeed a true guqin devotee does not have to play the instrument at all He can simply possess it and appreciate its soundless music
