Personality And Christian Faith:

Personality and Christian Faith Lowell G. Colston, Paul Emanuel Johnson, 1972 Alienation the deadening of man's sensitivity to man is a deep fundamental problem of modern life According to Drs Colston and Johnson the solution lies deeper than in the institutional structure it lies within the individual They believe the Christian gospel speaks to the alienated condition of man and that it affirms the value of personal creativity and responsibility as prerequisites to healing his estrangement Here they present a unified description of personality development and relate it to achieving mature personhood from a Christian perspective they discuss the causes of alienation fragmentation and some of the theories and methods intended for overcoming it They trace psychic and social interactions that affect persons in their struggle for creative growth focusing upon the crises and demands in each stage of life And they examine ways in which people can relate creatively to one another to bring vitality to personal and social transformations Publisher The Psychology of Christian Personality Ernest Mayfield Ligon, 1935 Interpretation of the teachings of the Sermon on the Mount in terms of psychology

Basic Training for Spiritual Warfare Steven Wiederwax,2018-10-15 The Personality of God is the first book in a planned series called the Basic Training for Spiritual Warfare The Personality of God is based on Paul s writing to the Corinthians 1 Cor 14 12 and 2 Cor 3 18 and his comparison of looking into a mirror we see unclearly the face of God and how it becomes clearer and more distinct as we are changed into the image of God This reflection we see is of the spiritual image of God and not his physical image This truth begs for the answer to what is God s spiritual nature or what are the personality traits of God that comprise this nature The Personality of God strives to answer this question by addressing the nature of God as it is revealed in the Bible Using both historical and modern Bible commentaries on scripture that documents God s personality the traces the evolution of thought concerning God s individual personality traits is explored Additionally where appropriate the book cites Biblical dictionaries and lexicons to explore the original Hebrew and Greek meanings of the various words to describe God s personality and the challenges facing the translators of the various Bible versions faced in accurately portraying what was written by the authors of the different books of the Bible Isaiah wrote that God teaches us and that we learn precept upon precept line upon line a little here and a little there Is 28 10 Thus the Personality of God is intended to help teach us new precepts that our knowledge of God may increase The Personality of God is intended to help Christians to a greater knowledge and understanding of what it means to be more like God For Pastors and Sunday School teacher in can be used as a reference to help strengthen and encourage their congregation and students of becoming a strong witness for Christ The Foundations of the Christian Faith Charles Wesley Rishell,1899 Religion and Mental Health ,1980
