, Missing Persons Derek Congram, 2016-08-01 The work of finding and identifying missing persons is complex and requires the expertise of many people such as historians hunting through archives biological anthropologists reconstructing skeletons and psychologists preparing investigators to interview families of the disappeared Uniting the voices of 22 experts from around the world Derek Congram's collection of original papers centres its attention on those who are engaged in the location identification and repatriation of missing persons The contributors to this timely volume represent multiple disciplines and various fields including academia government and civil service but are connected by a shared conviction that accounting for the missing is vital for a just society The chapters concentrate on victims of physical or structural violence including armed conflict repressive regimes criminal behaviour and racist and colonial policies towards Indigenous persons and minority populations Some contexts are familiar morgues mass graves and battlefields while others are surprising such as schoolyards and a museum in Canada Although the circumstances of the disappearances vary greatly Missing Persons illustrates the connections between these disparate contexts Multidisciplinary in scope this edited collection is a valuable comparative resource for students academics and practitioners in forensic anthropology anthropological archaeological ethics forensic psychology criminal justice and human rights

Extraits clés de jurisprudence : cour européenne des Droits de l'Homme Gilles Dutertre, Council of Europe, 2003-01-01 La première requête transmise la Commission européenne des Droits de l'Homme date de 1955 et la Cour européenne des Droits de l'Homme a rendu son premier arrêt en 1961 La publication de tous ces arrêts et décisions représente plusieurs centaines de volumes une abondance qui en rend la consultation parfois difficile L'auteur de cet ouvrage juriste extrait l'essentiel de cette vaste jurisprudence pour la rassembler en un volume unique En effet celui-ci représente pour chaque article de la Convention les passages clés d'arrêts de la Cour et de certaines décisions de la Commission assortis de leurs commentaires L'objectif est de fournir en un seul document le maximum de citations d'arrêts en une consultation concrète et directe Ce livre offre ainsi un accès pédagogique synthétique et clair la jurisprudence de la Cour du Conseil de l'Europe Par ailleurs une table des matières détaillée et un index donnent au lecteur différentes voies d'accès cet ouvrage qui devient ainsi un outil indispensable tant pour le novophyte que pour le spécialiste plus expérimenté de la Convention communauté internationale se doit de mobiliser tout l'arsenal juridique dont elle dispose pour sauvegarder et faire respecter les règles qui protègent l'humanité. Ce livre est une réédition du texte original avec une introduction et une préface nouvelles. Eminent expert en droit international qui a consacré sa carrière à la réflexion et l'action humanitaire, mon collègue Mohamed El Kouhene est idéalement placé pour présenter la complémentarité du droit international humanitaire et du droit international des droits de l'homme. Son ouvrage est un outil essentiel pour comprendre les règles et les mécanismes qui nous permettent de mieux protéger notre humanité. À lire absolument. Catherine Bertini, Directrice exécutive du Programme alimentaire mondial des Nations Unies de 1992 à 2002. Couronné par le Prix Paul Reuter 1985 Dcerné par le Comité International de la Croix Rouge. Summary in English: The protection of the individual in situations of armed conflict and his protection in situations of peace were split for historical, social, political and legal reasons. Dr Mohamed El Kouhene confronts these two branches of international law that recent developments have brought closer in a substantial way. He compares them from the perspective of the most fundamental rights of the person and puts them in relationship under their most sensitive aspect, namely the protection systems, their scope, their interdependencies. Although they are two separate legal systems, humanitarian law and human rights constitute more than ever a set of complementary standards and protection mechanisms. This complementarity approach defended by the author in the first edition of the book in 1986 has not wavered over the years. On the contrary, it flourished under the mutual influence of the doctrine and the international legislators and judges. The topic is still relevant more than ever should we say because in the dark environment where we live, the international community must mobilize all legal arsenals available to it to safeguard and enforce the rules that protect humanity. This book is a reissued version of the original text with new introduction and preface.

Yearbook of the European Convention on Human Rights/Annuaire de la convention européenne des droits de l'homme, Volume 48 (2005) Council of Europe/Conseil de l'Europe, 2006-12-25. The Yearbook of the European Convention on Human Rights, edited by staff of the Council of Europe, is an indispensable record of the development and impact of the world's oldest binding international human rights treaty. It reviews the implementation of the Convention both by the European Court of Human Rights and in national legislation and practice. The Yearbook includes: Full text of any new protocols to the Convention as they are opened for signature together with the state of signatures and ratifications; Full listing of Court judgments, judgments broken down by subject matter and extensive summaries of key judgments handed down by the Court during the year; Selected human rights DH resolutions adopted as part of the Committee of Ministers' work supervising the execution of the Court's judgments; Enquiries by the Secretary General carried out under Article 52 of the Convention; Other work of the Council of Europe connected with the European Convention on Human Rights carried out by the Committee of Ministers, the Parliamentary Assembly and the Directorate General of Human Rights; A summary survey of the implementation in certain member states of the Convention in the form of both legislation and case law; Bibliographic information from the library of the European Court of Human Rights.
