Lydia Schumacher, 2020-06-22 For generations early Franciscan thought has been widely regarded as unoriginal a mere attempt to systematize the longstanding intellectual tradition of Augustine in the face of the rising popularity of Aristotle This volume brings together leading scholars in the field to undertake a major study of the major doctrines and debates of the so called Summa Halensis 1236-45 which was collaboratively authored by the founding members of the Franciscan school at Paris above all Alexander of Hales and John of La Rochelle in an effort to lay down the Franciscan intellectual tradition or the first time The contributions will highlight that this tradition far from unoriginal laid the groundwork for later Franciscan thought which is often regarded as formative for modern thought Furthermore the volume shows the role this Summa played
