Perspc Amer Past Vol 1:

A Post-Exceptionalist Perspective on Early American History Carroll P. Kakel III, 2019-08-16 This book argues that early American history is best understood as the story of a settler colonial supplanting society a society intent on a vast land grab of American Indian space and driven by a logic of elimination and a genocidal imperative to rid the new white settler living space of its existing Indigenous inhabitants Challenging the still strongly held notion of American history as somehow exceptional or unique it locates the history of the United States and its colonial antecedents as a central part of rather than an exception to the emerging global histories of imperialism colonialism and genocide It also explores early American history in an imperial transnational and global frame showing how the precedent of the North American West and its colonial trope of Indian wars were used by like minded American and European expansionists to inspire and legitimate other imperial colonial adventures from the late nineteenth through the mid twentieth centuries Slave Cultures and the Cultures of Slavery Stephan Palmié, 1995 Historians and anthropologists focus on the cultural dimensions of slavery in various geographical and historical settings They deal with conceptual and theoretical problems in current slavery studies as well as issues including Native American slaveholding the integration of former slaves into West African societies slave life on Caribbean sugar plantations slave cultures in Suriname female slave owners on the Gold Coast and Maroon communities Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Evolution: A Big History Perspective Leonid E. Grinin, Andrey V. Korotayev, Barry H. Rodrigue, 2011-09-29 This issue of the almanac aims at filling the gap in the mega evolutionary research The Editors believe that the present Almanac which brings together scientists working in different areas of the vast evolutionary field will hopefully make a contribution to this process The contributions to this volume are subdivided into three sections Universal Evolution Biological and Social Forms of Evolution Connections and Comparisons and Aspects of Social Evolution Subjects and issues of the contributions to all three sections have a great deal in common and significantly supplement each other Women's History in Global Perspective Bonnie G. Smith, 2004 The American Historical Association's Committee on Women Historians commissioned some of the pioneering figures in women's history to prepare essays in their respective areas of expertise This volume the second in a series of three collects their efforts As a counterpoint to the broad themes discussed in the first volume Volume 2 is concerned with issues that have shaped the history of women in particular places and during particular eras It examines women in ancient civilizations including women in China Japan and Korea women and gender in South and South East Asia Medieval women women and gender in Colonial Latin America and the history of women in the US to 1865 Authors included are Sarah Hughes and Brady Hughes Susan Mann Barbara N Ramusack Judith M Bennett Ann Twinam and Kathleen Brown Incorporating essays from top scholars ranging over an abundance of regions dates and methodologies the three volumes of Women's History in Global Perspective constitute an invaluable resource for anyone interested in a comprehensive overview on the latest in feminist scholarship The

A History of Modern Psychology David C. Ludden, Jr., 2025-05-28 A History of Modern Psychology The Quest for a Science of the Mind describes the evolution of psychology into the twenty first century with coverage of recent events and findings that transform our understanding of the past With a topical approach that presents key thinkers within the context of schools of thought students are able to see how philosophers researchers and academics influenced one another to create the rich and diverse landscape of modern psychology in a global context In the new Second Edition the author expands coverage of unsung pioneers philosopher Al Balkhi zoologist Charles Henry Turner psychiatrist Grunya Sukhareva and others revisits the legacy of Francis Galton explores the Vygotsky boom and includes new discussion of the impact of Philip Zimbardo's Stanford Prison Experiment Through detailed timelines and features such as Looking Back and Looking Ahead Ludden gives students a deeper appreciation for the transference of knowledge that shaped the field

An Archaeology of the Cosmos Timothy R. Pauketat, 2012-12-07 An Archaeology of the Cosmos seeks answers to two fundamental questions of humanity and human history The first question concerns that which some use as a defining element of humanity religious beliefs Why do so many people believe in supreme beings and holy spirits The second question concerns changes in those beliefs What causes beliefs to change Using archaeological evidence gathered from ancient America especially case material from the Great Plains and the pre Columbian American Indian city of Cahokia Timothy Pauketat explores the logical consequences of these two fundamental questions Religious beliefs are not more resilient than other aspects of culture and society and people are not the only causes of historical change An Archaeology of the Cosmos examines the intimate association of agency and religion by studying how relationships between people places and things were bundled together and positioned in ways that constituted the fields of human experience This rethinking theories of agency and religion provides readers with challenging and thought provoking conclusions that will lead them to reassess the way they approach the past

Arabs in Treatment: Yana Korobko,2016-08-19 When I was only starting the therapeutic work with the Middle Eastern patients I was looking for some kind of guidance to enable my genuine understanding of the Muslim patient cases However the material was scarce haphazardly scattered and mostly referring to the traditional therapies That was not helpful and was even more confusing With time I managed to amass my own systemized data based on regular observations practical cases reflections and exchanges with the colleagues This material helped me to approach each case individually while respecting the cultural environment of a patient Eventually the book was published This is the kind of book that I have always wanted to find and I had to write it eventually by myself The work contains the systematized knowledge on the evolution of scientific psychology in the Islamic world which starts with the prophetic times and continues until now The book reveals the signifiers which form a structure of a Muslim psyche It also exposes the recurrent mental health complaints of the Arab patients and investigates their unconscious roots The book is intended first of all for professionals who are directly related to the Muslim mental health care system Secondly it is for anyone who is considering undergoing a personal analysis And certainly the edition is for everyone interested in the subject This book does not intend to bring the answers It rather continues the dialogue regarding the necessity of creating the psychological counseling culture in the Muslim world

The British Industrial Revolution in Global Perspective Robert C. Allen,2009-04-09 Why did the industrial revolution take place in eighteenth century Britain and not elsewhere in Europe or Asia In this convincing new account Robert Allen argues that the British industrial revolution was a successful response to the global economy of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries He shows that in Britain wages were high and capital and energy cheap in comparison to other countries in Europe and Asia As a result the breakthrough technologies of the industrial revolution the steam engine the cotton mill and the substitution of coal for wood in metal production were uniquely profitable to invent and use in Britain The high wage economy of pre industrial Britain also fostered industrial development since more people could afford schooling and apprenticeships It was only when British engineers made these new technologies more cost effective during the nineteenth century that the industrial revolution would spread around the world

Development Centre Studies The World Economy A Millennial Perspective Maddison Angus,2001-06-12 Angus Maddison provides a comprehensive view of the growth and levels of world population since the year 1000 when rich countries of today were poorer than Asia and Africa The gap between the world leader the US and the poorest region Africa is 1000 Events that Shaped the World, 2008 In a sweep of history this book brings you what National Geographic has introduced into households for more than a century the world and all that is in it Concise narratives each focused on one event and numbered chronologically from 1 to 1 000 walk you through the story of civilization from the first evidence of life 3 8 billion years ago to the discovery of the first known planet beyond the solar system that could harbor life as we know it Accompanied by hundreds of illustrations events famous infamous and little known offer insight into how and why the world has grown and changed as it has BOOK JACKET Us Catholic Historian V 19 1 Christopher Kauffman, 2001 The Economic Future in Historical Perspective Paul A. David, Mark Thomas, 2006-02-23 The essays in this volume demonstrate the power of using history to improve our understanding of the economic and social challenges of the present and future A distinguished group of authors provide new perspectives on the dynamics of economic growth the challenges of economic and political transitions and the relationships between economic growth institutional development and individual well being in mature industrial societies A Dancing People Clyde Ellis, 2003 This volume is a comprehensive history of of Southern Plains powwow culture an interdisciplinary highly collaborative ethnography based on more than two decades of participation in powwows addressing how the powwow has changed over time Being Scioto Hopewell: Ritual Drama and Personhood in Cross-Cultural Perspective Christopher Carr, 2022-01-05 This book in two volumes breathes fresh air empirically methodologically and theoretically into understanding the rich ceremonial lives the philosophical religious knowledge and the impressive material feats and labor organization that distinguish Hopewell Indians of central Ohio and neighboring regions during the first centuries CE The first volume defines cross culturally for the first time the ritual drama as a genre of social performance It reconstructs and compares parts of 14 such dramas that Hopewellian and other Woodland period peoples performed in their ceremonial centers to help the soul like essences of their deceased make the journey to an afterlife The second volume builds and critiques ten formal cross cultural models of personhood and the self and infers the nature of Scioto Hopewell people s ontology Two facets of their ontology are found to have been instrumental in their creating the intercommunity alliances and cooperation and gathering the labor required to construct their huge multicomunity ceremonial centers a relational collective concept of the self defined by the ethical quality of the relationships one has with other beings and a concept of multiple soul like essences that compose a human being and can be harnessed strategically to create familial like ethical bonds of cooperation among individuals and communities The archaeological reconstructions of Hopewellian ritual dramas and concepts of personhood and the self and of Hopewell people s strategic uses of these are informed by three large surveys of historic Woodland and Plains Indians narratives ideas and rites about journeys to afterlives the creatures who inhabit the cosmos and the nature and functions of soul like essences coupled with rich contextual archaeological and bioarchaeological taphonomic analyses The bioarchaeological taphonomic method of l anthropologie de terrain new to North American archaeology is introduced and
