Perspectives In The History Of Religions:

Perspectives in the History of Religions Jan de Vries,1977 An introduction to the history of religions surveys the attitudes toward religion expressed by thinkers scholars and writers from classical antiquity to the twentieth century

Religious Human Rights in Global Perspective John Witte,Johan D. van der Vyver,1996 The legal traditions of Christianity Judaism and Islam have contributed much to the cultivation and violation of religious human rights around the world In this volume Desmond Tutu Martin Marty and twenty leading scholars offer an authoritative assessment of these contributions and challenge people of all faiths to adopt golden rules of religious liberty

Black Theology—Essays on Global Perspectives Dwight N. Hopkins,2017-06-15 Since its start in 1966 black liberation theology in the United States has continually engaged international developments with Africa and the entire world But after Nelson Mandela was released from prison in February 1990 there has been an almost twenty year break in books on black theology and international affairs Black Theology Essays on Global Perspectives bridges that post 1990 gap and makes a vital contact with Africa again This book conceptualizes black theology to take on the global reconfigurations and opportunities brought about by the rapidly shrinking earth of fast paced worldwide contacts In other words in the specificity of the genealogy of black theology we need to reforge ties with Africa This claim is based on tradition And in the generality of the larger worldwide intertwining of technologies and economics we need a new type of black theological leadership for the twenty first century This claim is based on today s international challenges The essays in this book draw on tradition and point forward in the midst of today s worldwide challenges and favorable possibilities given the closeness of all nations and the varieties of cultures

Religious Human Rights in Global Perspective John Witte Jr.,Johan D. van der Vyver,2023-12-11 In this Dickensian century of human rights the world has cultivated the best of religious rights protections but witnessed the worst of religious rights abuses In this volume Jimmy Carter John T Noonan Jr and a score of leading jurists assess critically and comparatively the religious rights laws and practices of the international community and of selected states in the Atlantic continents This volume and its companion Religious Human Rights in Global Perspective Religious Perspectives are products of an ongoing project on religion human rights and democracy undertaken by the Law and Religion Program at Emory University

New Religions in Global Perspective Peter Bernard Clarke,2006 This volume provides a complete guide to the global impact and cultural significance of new religious movements

New Approaches to the Study of Religion: Regional, critical, and historical approaches Peter Antes,Armin W. Geertz,Randi Ruth Warne,2004 Internationally recognized scholars from many parts of the world provide a critical survey of recent developments and achievements in the global field of religious studies The work follows in the footsteps of two former publications Classical Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Jacques Waardenburg 1973 and Contemporary Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Frank Whaling 1984 85 New Approaches to the Study of Religion completes the survey of the comparative study of religion in the twentieth century by focussing on the past two decades Many of the chapters however are also pathbreaking and point the way to future approaches

Perspectives on Method and Theory in the Study of Religion International Association for the History of Religions. Congress,2000 This volume is the adjunct proceedings on methodology from the XVIIth Congress of the International Association for the History of Religions held in Mexico City in 1995 Taken together the essays present a thorough and coherent perspective on studying religion as an item of human culture

Multi-Religious Perspectives on a Global Ethic Myriam Renaud,William Schweiker,2020-11-29 Ratified by the Parliament of the World s Religions in 1993 and expanded in 2018 Towards a Global Ethic An Initial Declaration or the Global Ethic expresses the minimal set of principles shared by people religious or not Though it is a secular document the Global Ethic emerged after months of collaborative interreligious dialogue dedicated to identifying a common ethical framework This volume tests and contests the claim that the Global Ethic s ethical directives can be found in the world s religious spiritual and cultural traditions The book features essays by scholars of religion who grapple with the practical implications of the Global Ethic s directives when applied to issues like women s rights displaced peoples income and wealth inequality India s caste system and more The scholars explore their respective religious traditions ethical response to one or more of these issues and compares them to the ethical response elaborated by the Global Ethic The traditions included are Hinduism Engaged Buddhism Shi i Islam Sunni Islam Confucianism Protestantism Catholicism Judaism Indigenous African Religions and Human Rights To highlight the complexities within traditions most essays are followed by a brief response by an expert in the same tradition

Multi Religious Perspectives on a Global Ethic is of special interest to advanced students and scholars whose work focuses on the religious traditions listed above on comparative religion religious ethics comparative ethics and common morality

Religious Conversion: An African Perspective Carmody, Brendan,2018-09-17 Religious Conversion An African Perspective includes a selection of key texts which are not easily accessible elsewhere Most of the chapters discuss the long standing thesis of Robin Horton who argues that religious change results from social transformation The contributors provide different perspectives on what remains an ongoing provocative though inconclusive debate The book has chapters on conversion in Africa from such authorities as Robin Horton Humphrey Fisher and Richard Gray It also contains chapters on Zambia by Elizaebeth Colson Brendan Carmody Austin Cheyeka Felix Phiri and W Van Binsbergen This collection of chapters provides an introduction to the discussion surrounding the query Did the Christian and Muslim messages bring something fundamentally new to the African religious horizon What has indigenisation meant What is the role of traditional religion

Tolerance in World History Peter Stearns,2017-06-26 This relatively short book will work to connect different periods and a number of key regions to help clarify the record and the relationship between current tolerance patterns and those of the past

History and Religion Bernd-Christian Otto,Susanne Rau,Jörg Rüpke,2015-08-31 History is one of the most important cultural tools to make sense of one s situation to establish identity define otherness and explain change This is the first systematic scholarly study that analyses the complex relationship between history and religion taking into account religious groups both as producers of historical narratives as well as distinct topics of historiography. Coming from different disciplines the authors of this volume ask under which conditions and with what consequences religions are historicised. How do religious groups employ historical narratives in the construction of their identities? What are the biases and elisions of current analytical and descriptive frames in the History of Religion? The volume aims at initiating a comparative historiography of religion and combines disciplinary competences of Religious Studies and the History of Religion.

Confessional Theologies History of Science and Literary Studies By applying literary comparison and historical contextualization to those texts that have been used as central documents for histories of individual religions their historiographic themes, tools and strategies are analysed. The comparative approach addresses circum-Mediterranean and European as well as Asian religious traditions from the first millennium BCE to the present and deals with topics such as the origins of religious historiography, the practices of writing and the transformation of narratives.

Academic Study of Religions in a Cognitive, Anthropological and Sociological Perspective Tomáš Bubík, Jakub Havlíček, Silvie Kotherová, Dušan Lužný, Rudolf Havelka, 2021. The book deals with current issues of the study of religion as an academic discipline, especially cognitive, anthropological and sociological research of religious thought and behaviour. Publikace pojednává o aktuálním problému religionistiky jako akademické disciplíny zejména o kognitivním, antropologickém a sociologickém výzkumu náboženství.

India's Religions Madan, 2011-12-08. This well structured and organized collection of readings examines different facets of religion and religious life in India from ethnographic and historical perspectives. The second edition includes a new Appendix with a comparative regional perspective and a new Preface.

Regional, Critical, and Historical Approaches Peter Antes, Armin W. Geertz, Randi R. Warne, 2008-12-19. Internationally recognized scholars from many parts of the world provide a critical survey of recent developments and achievements in the global field of religious studies. The work follows in the footsteps of two former publications: Classical Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Jacques Waardenburg (1973) and Contemporary Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Frank Whaling (1984/85). New Approaches to the Study of Religion completes the survey of the comparative study of religion in the twentieth century by focussing on the past two decades. Many of the chapters, however, are also pathbreaking and point the way to future approaches.

Religious Knowledge and Positioning David Kabisch, Kerstin von der Krone, Christian Wiese, 2023-11-06. What should one know in order to position oneself vis-à-vis other religions and confessions? What is religious knowledge and how should it be taught? This volume sheds light on educational media in Judaism and Christianity such as catechisms, children's bibles and sermons, as well as Jewish and Protestant teacher training in 19th century Germany and explores the methodological potentials of educational media as a source for inter-religious history. It reflects on broader processes of knowledge production and the impact of science and scholarship on religious education and knowledge production within

Christian and Jewish contexts The volume draws on an interdisciplinary conference that took place in 2018 and brought together scholars associated with two transdisciplinary research projects The German Israeli research group Innovation through Tradition Jewish Educational Media and Cultural Transformation in the Face of Modernity associated with the German Historical Institute Washington and Tel Aviv University funded by the German Research Foundation DFG 2014 2019 and the LOEWE research hub Religious Positioning Modalities and Constellations in Jewish Christian and Muslim Contexts at Goethe University Frankfurt and Justus Liebig University Giessen funded by the Hessian Ministry of Science and Art 2015 2021

Perspectives on Method and Theory in the Study of Religion Russell T. McCutcheon, 2000 John Hick's Religious Pluralism in Global Perspective Sharada Sugirtharajah, 2023-01-01 This volume contains fresh scholarly contributions to mark the birth centenary of John Hick the internationally well known philosopher of religion whose works continue to have significant global relevance in today's religiously diverse and conflict ridden world His writings have reset the parameters of religious pluralism Up till now Hick's religious pluralism has been mainly seen in relation to the Western context where Christianity is the predominant religion This volume includes both Western and non Western engagement with his thinking in contexts such as Japan China Korea Nigeria and India where Christianity is a minority religion with little political power Its distinctiveness lies in widening the debate on religious pluralism by bringing Hick's pluralistic hypothesis into a constructive cross cultural and interreligious conversation with scholars of Hinduism Jainism Daoism Judaism Christianity Islam and African traditional religions In doing so this collection examines how Hick's philosophy of religious pluralism has been received appropriated and appraised by these scholars It has been appreciated and critiqued in equal measure and continues to impact on current thinking on religious pluralism This volume makes a significant contribution to the debate initiated by Hick
