Perspectives on Christology ,1989      The Theology of the Cross in Historical Perspective Anna M. Madsen,2007-01-01
The theology of the cross is indisputably a trendy concept today Numerous seminars books and dissertations tackle the topic But The Theology of the Cross in Historical Perspective demonstrates that theology of the cross is no passing fancy Theologies of the cross appear at the beginnings of the church in the sixteenth century reformations of the church and in the more contemporary modernization of the church Without theologies of the cross what the church is called to be and to preach becomes unclear So then what is the theology of the cross Anna Madsen surveys the theology of the cross in the thinking of Paul and Luther She also outlines several important twentieth century contributions to the subject On the basis of her analysis Madsen suggests that the theology of the cross reveals God to be found even in death In death after all boundaries disappear The theology of the cross assures Christians that God is present in the death of sin and in the realities of suffering and uncertainty Given that it announces God's presence the theology of the cross is ultimately a theology of grace freedom and trust      Ecumenical Perspectives on the Filioque for the 21st Century Myk Habets,2014-06-19 The volume presents a range of theological standpoints regarding the filioque With some contributors arguing for its retention and others for its removal still others contest that its presence or otherwise in the Creed is not what is of central concern but rather that how it should be understood is of ultimate importance What contributors share is a commitment to interrogating and developing the central theological issues at stake in a consideration of the filioque thus advancing ecumenical theology and inter communal dialogue without diluting the discussion Contributors span the Christian traditions Roman Catholic Protestant Eastern Orthodox and Pentecostal Each of these traditions has its own set of theological assumptions methods and politics many of which are on display in the essays which follow Nonetheless it is only when we bring the wealth of learning and commitments from our own theological traditions to ecumenical dialogue that true progress can be made It is in this spirit that the present essays have been conceived and are now presented in this form      Methodius of Olympus Katharina Bracht,2017-12-04 Methodius of Olympus ca 311 CE is regarded as a key author in 3rd c Christian theology In recent years his works have become objects of intense research interest on the part of Church historians classical Greek and Paleoslav philologists and scholars of Armenia The essays in this volume examine the current state of research enhance our understanding of Methodius with valuable new information and open up new research perspectives      Index of Conference Proceedings British Library. Document Supply Centre,2003      Feminism and Christian Tradition Mary-Paula Walsh,1999-05-30 This annotated bibliography a volume in the Greenwood series Bibliographies and Indexes in Religious Studies provides access to the numerous writings from the 1960s through the 1990s on feminism and Christian tradition Major feminist theologians and sociologists are represented As a guide to further research this cross disciplinary approach presents themes and issues in both a historical and a topical framework An extensive overview of feminism in relation to the women s movement women s studies sociology and American religion introduces the literature and provides a historical context for the nearly one thousand entries that follow Cross referenced throughout the literature is presented in six thematic categories that include introductory and background materials feminism and the development of feminist theology topical literatures in feminist theology feminism and womanist theology religious leadership of women and responses and recent developments Separate author subject and title indexes complete the volume      A Constructively Critical

Conversation between Nonviolent and Substitutionary Perspectives on Atonement Hojin Ahn,2021-12-21 In the contemporary theological world traditional substitutionary accounts of Christ s atoning work have increasingly come under criticism for what is said to be their propensity for encouraging violence by a variety of theologians such as feminists pacifists and Girardians Cur deus homo the question about God s sovereign purpose in Christ s atoning work is radically transposed into who killed Jesus which is a provocative inquiry into the ethical issues surrounding divine violence from the nonviolent perspective of atonement Nonetheless in this monograph contrary to their nonviolent intention you will witness that Brock Schwager and Weaver violently damage a holistic dimension of atonement event under the human cause of the victim Jesus crucifixion by evil By contrast you will hear the harmonized voices of Anselm Calvin and Barth who adamantly proclaim the incarnated Son of God s sovereignty in his self giving death for our salvation Furthermore it is through the theological conversation between the opposite camps that you will realize how the anthropological motifs of healing scapegoat mechanism and nonviolence are to be constructively engaged with the Christological cultic context of an evangelical doctrine of substitution You will encounter the crux of Christ s saving death for us      God in Christian Perspective George M. Newlands,2008-07-17 In this book George Newlands seeks to work out a modern restatement of a Christian understanding of God Father Son and Spirit Evil on the scale experience in modern wars and the awareness of the variety of transcendent values in the pluralism of the contemporary world have tended to reinforce intellectual objections to traditional doctrines If the whole picture must remain partly obscure to us nevertheless we must continue to reflect on the character and activity of the God of the Christian faith and renew our attempts to describe and state beliefs In the first part of his study Professor Newlands considers the sources of a Christian understanding of God and analyses the substantive content of the doctrine of God as creator and reconciler of the cosmos as personal self differentiated transcendent being The second part reflects on christology and examines the social and ethical dimensions of the cost of discipleship Throughout Professor Newlands demonstrates the importance of thinking about God not in unreflecting slogans but with all our intellectual resources      Journal of Biblical Literature ,1991      Pro Ecclesia Vol 20-N3 Pro Ecclesia,2011-08-22 Pro

Ecclesia is a quarterly journal of theology published by the Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theology      Paul and the New Perspective Seyoon Kim,2001-11-08 Understanding Paul and his conversion to Christianity is imperative for a thorough knowledge of the New Testament In Paul and the New Perspective Seyoon Kim develops his argument that the origin of Paul

s gospel lies in two places his radical conversion at Damascus and his usage of the Jesus tradition in light of Damascus This new way of looking at Paul further explains how Paul made strong distinctions between the Spirit and the flesh law with further implications for his doctrine of justification A departure from the New Perspective School represented by James D G Dunn Kim s Paul and the New Perspective offers a thorough and extensive argument for the foundation of the gospel that Paul spread in the first century The Cumulative Book Index ,1996 A world list of books in the English language

Leim,2015-10-19 Are the identity of God and Jesus Christ inseparably related in Matthew s Gospel Joshua E Leim argues for this relationship in Matthew s narrative by attending to two linguistic patterns woven deeply into the entire narrative s presentation of Jesus Matthew s christological use of worship language and his paternal filial idiom Back cover The Promise of the Trinity B. Hoon Woo,2018-09-10 The doctrine of the pactum salutis covenant of redemption offers the idea of a covenant between the very persons of the Trinity for the redemption of humanity The doctrine received most of its attention in seventeenth century Reformed theology and has been criticized and almost totally forgotten in dogmatics since the eighteenth century Most recent Reformed dogmatics tend to ignore the doctrine or disparage it from biblical trinitarian christological pneumatological and soteriological perspectives namely the doctrine lacks scriptural basis it is tritheistic it leads to subordination of the Son it omits the role of the Holy Spirit and it applies a deterministic idea for the Christian life The theologies of Witsius Owen Dickson Goodwin and Cocceius portray a very robust form of the doctrine Witsius argues with the help of a peculiar methodology of cross referencing and collation of related scriptural texts that the doctrine is firmly based on biblical exegesis that was passed on from the patristic era The doctrine formulated by Owen endorses the doctrines of inseparable operations and terminus operationis so as to give deep insight into the Trinity In Dickson s doctrine the Son s voluntary consent and obedience to the will of the Father are highly emphasized Likewise Goodwin s depiction of the Holy Spirit secures the divinity of the Spirit as well as his indispensable role for the transaction and accomplishment of the pactum The doctrine in the theology of Cocceius sheds much light on the vibrant dynamic of the Christian life in accordance with the ordo salutis The doctrine of the pactum salutis of the five Reformed theologians clearly shows that the doctrine is both promised and promising for theology and the life of faith

Christians Meeting Hindus

Bob Robinson,2004 With rare exceptions serious intentional reflective and sustained inter faith encounter is a novel and recent enterprise This book looks in detail at one such encounter the intentional recent Hindu Christian dialogue in India and asks why and how the practice of dialogue came to replace previous attitudes of confrontation and monologue especially on the part of Christians Unlike many other works in the area of inter faith studies this work combines both descriptive detail of the actual encounter and critical theological analysis of the strengths and weakness of the dialogue model

Johannine Sectarianism in Perspective Kåre Sigvald Fuglseth,2005-09-01 The central aim of the investigation is to evaluate the claim that the Gospel of John was a product of a sectarian milieu Fuglseth is using methods primarily derived from sociology and the study of new religious movements today He discusses in particular the cult model as an alternative to sect and compares the Johannine texts with texts from two contemporary milieus Philo and the Dead Sea Scrolls The thesis is embedded in a comprehensive survey of research and discussions of methods and of the existence of a Johannine community There are still serious debates going on about the existence and nature of the Johannine group its Jewish roots and settings the attitude to the Jews and the synagogue and the two levels of meanings in the Johannine text according to Martyn and Brown In this situation Fuglseth s investigation is of great current interest and gives new answers to central questions in the Johannine research

The Spirituality of Following Jesus in John's Gospel Sean Seongik Kim,2017-10-12 Research on following Jesus has mostly been done in terms of what Jesus followers ought to do In this unprecedented study Kim presents following Jesus in John s Gospel through the perspective of what Jesus does for his followers Following Jesus is a journey towards the place where Jesus leads his followers that is to a relationship with the Father It is ultimately participating in the Son s communion with the Father Jesus who was in the bosom of the Father descended from him and ascends to him taking his followers with him so that they may be with him where he is with the Father in glory and love Kim develops this thesis by examining the term akolouthein to follow and correlated motifs in John s Gospel
