Models of Online Journalism Michael Fusco,2010-06-29 From a small town paper in Pennsylvania to the largest international news network in the world the field of journalism has been revolutionized by the advent of new digital technologies Since the early 1990 s a new breed of reporting has emerged called online journalism which utilizes the latest technological tools After a very successful initial investment companies like CNN The New York Times and Tribune are beginning to seek new strategies for a profitable future From a variety of success stories emerges a single hybrid model that is set to once again change the way the publishing industry conducts business Author Michael Fusco explains how news rooms have overcome the initial hiccups of the transition to new medias and are now seeking to maximize profitability Michael Fusco is a graduate of Lehigh University holding a Bachelors of Arts degree in Journalism English and History

Organizational Behaviour in a Global Context Albert J. Mills,Jean C. Helm Mills,John Bratton,Carolyn Forshaw,2006-01-01

At last there is a lucid well written OB book which covers key issues required in OB teaching but which has a mind of its own Students and faculty will recognize this is more than standard fare Bill Cooke Manchester Business School Routledge International Handbook of Rural Studies Mark Shucksmith,David L. Brown,2016-05-20 Rural societies around the world are changing in fundamental ways both at their own initiative and in response to external forces The Routledge International Handbook of Rural Studies examines the organisation and transformation of rural society in more developed regions of the world taking an interdisciplinary and problem focused approach Written by leading social scientists from many countries it addresses emerging issues and challenges in innovative and provocative ways to inform future policy This volume is organised around eight emerging social economic and environmental challenges Demographic change Economic transformations Food systems and land Environment and resources Changing configurations of gender and rural society Social and economic equality Social dynamics and institutional capacity Power and governance Cross cutting these challenges are the growing interdependence of rural and urban the rise in inequality within and between places the impact of fiscal crisis on rural societies neoliberalism power and agency and rural areas as potential sites of resistance The Routledge International Handbook of Rural Studies is required reading for anyone concerned with the future of rural areas Grade R in Perspective Anel Pepler,2015-12-01 Grade R in Perspective is a structured academic guide for students educators and practitioners in the field of early child development It is compiled according to the Curriculum and Assessment Policy Declaration CAPS of the National Department of Education 2011 and presents the latest tendencies of international sources The focus is put on preparing the student to understand the principles of the informal teaching approach and to implement them Clear directions are given to develop knowledge skills and attitudes in the young child so that each learner can achieve self realisation Information is given on organising the classroom and the play area to create optimal learning opportunities for the learners The different levels of development and cultures of the learners are taken into consideration Valuable suggestions for teaching in practice are illustrated with appropriate examples and photos Theologies of Childhood and the Children of Africa Jan Grobbelaar,Gert Breed,Alfred Brunsdon,Marcia J. Bunge,Sam Ndogo,Hannes (J.J.) Knoetze,Nico Vorster,2016-12-31 The purpose of this book is to combine perspectives of scholars from Africa on Child Theologies from a variety of theological sub disciplines to provide some theological and ministerial perspectives on this topic The book disseminates original research and new developments in this study field especially as relevant to the African context In the process it addresses also the global need to hear voices from Africa in this academic field It wants to convey the importance of considering Africa s children in theologising The different chapters represent diverse methodologies but the central and common focus is to approach the subject from the viewpoint of Africa s children The individual authors varied theological sub disciplinary dispositions contribute to the unique and distinct character of the book Almost all chapters are theoretical orientated with less empirical research although some of the chapters refer to empirical research which the authors have done in the past Most of the academic literature in the field of Theologies of Childhood is from American or British European origin The African context is fairly absent in this discourse although it is the youngest continent and presents unique and relevant challenges This book was written by theological scholars from Africa focussing on Africa s children It addresses not only theoretical challenges in this field but also provides theological perspectives for ministry with children and for important social change Written from a variety of theological sub disciplines the book is aimed at scholars across theological sub disciplines especially those theological scholars interested in the intersections between theology childhood studies and African cultural or social themes It addresses themes and provide insights that is also relevant for specialist leaders and professionals in this field No part of the book was plagiarised from another publication or published elsewhere before
