Perspectives on Good Writing in Applied Linguistics and TESOL Robert Kohls, Christine Pearson Casanave, 2023-09-28 Provides diverse global perspectives from seasoned scholars and teachers on systematically evaluating quality writing      Perspective on Analytical Writing a Focus on Feature and Editorial Writing Richmond S. Anderson Snr., 2021-12-10 The writing of this book Perspective on Analytical Writing a focus on Feature and Editorial writing is based on the urge for students majoring in mass communication on the African continent particularly those within the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS to have a simplistic understanding of the course feature and editorial writing It will be oblivious or a miss calculation to say that there are no texts books on feature and editorial writing on the African continent since I have not had the opportunity to extensively travel within Africa but what could be safely said is for over three decades since I completed my under graduate studies I have not seen a text book on feature and editorial writing readily Based on this experience the book first endeavored in its starting to give students an insight on what an analytical writing is beginning with a drill on perspective and gave a detailed and vivid picture of perspective thereby laying the basis to understanding what feature and editorial writing is all about Although the core focus of the book is on feature and editorial writing but as the title depicts Perspectives on Analytical Writing more emphases are placed on perspective and analytical writing in order to provide a deeper understanding for the students as a foundation to grasp the concept of feature and editorial writing Also the book featured research as a component to writing an appreciable feature and editorial piece Added to research other ingredients for writing good feature and editorials are also considered They include opinion persuasion and propaganda Furthermore since feature and editorial writings are within the scope of mass communication and journalism it became imperative for the book to touch on the ethical aspect of the profession aimed at providing students the barometer of knowing what to do and not what to do while writing feature and editorial pieces In its conclusive stage the book dealt with the impact of editorial on political actors as it relates to their involvement in the process of national development As you will come across in your reading mass communication and journalism are catalysts to agenda setting in any society therefore it is expected that stakeholders particularly those involved in the governance process of our countries in Africa to take clue from editorial articles especially those that advocate for positive change to propel them to respond to the developmental needs of Africa Now let s be practical and reflect on a simple analogy referencing a performance by a group of movie stars such as the late popular comedian Peter Ballah of Liberia Kekura Kamara with his popular movie Malawala Balawala of Liberia Salla Kamara with his movie Blood Diamond of Sierra Leone Mr Ibu John Okafor with the show Mr Ebu and his son of Nigeria or John Dumelo with the movie the tie that binds of Ghana As these movie stars are performing in their movies the viewers are fascinated with emotion amusement and are thrilled by the performances while in their seats in the theatre movie hall or in their various homes Just as the emotion of viewers is intrigued by the performances or movies so feature and editorial write ups are replica to evoking the emotion of the readers The articles must create a scenario of curiosity to arouse or entice the readers This is the drama in feature and editorial writing      Strategies for Integrating Reading and Writing in Middle and High School Classrooms Karen D. Wood, Janis M. Harmon, 2001      Ethnographic Perspectives on Academic

Writing Brian Paltridge, Sue Starfield, 2016-12-05 This book argues that adopting ethnographically oriented perspectives on research into academic writing is a valuable means of deepening understanding of the social influences on language use and individuals' experiences in academic writing contexts helping to gain insider views of writers' experiences writing practices and the contexts in which academic texts are produced and assessed Ishimure Michiko's Writing in Ecocritical

Perspective Bruce Allen, Yuki Masami, 2015-11-19 This collection of ecocritical essays is focused on the work of Japan's foremost writer on environment and culture Ishimure Michiko. Ishimure is known for her pioneering trilogy that exposed the Minamata Disease incident and the nature of modern industrial pollution. She is also regarded by many critics as Japan's most original and important literary writer. Ishimure has written over 50 volumes in a wide range of genres including novels, Noh drama, poetry, children's stories, essays, and mixed genre writing. This collection brings together the work of scholars from Japan, the U.S., and Canada who are authorities on Ishimure's writing. Contributors discuss Ishimure's writing in the context of the latest issues in ecocritical theory, arguing for an expanded, more than Western, understanding of literature theory and environmental responsibility. It will help to relate various environmental, cultural, and ecocritical issues ranging from the events at Minamata to those at Fukushima and consider how they point to future developments Positive Psychology

Perspectives on Foreign Language Learning and Teaching Danuta Gabryś-Barker, Dagmara Gałajda, 2016-05-23 This book introduces readers to the principles of a fairly new branch of psychology: positive psychology, and demonstrates how they can be applied in the context of second language acquisition in a natural environment and in instructed foreign language (FL) learning. It focuses both on the well-being and success of the learner and the professional and personal well-being of the teacher. Further, the book stresses the importance of the positive emotions and character strengths of those involved in the process of language learning and teaching, as well as the significant role played by enabling institutions such as school and at the micro level, individual FL classes Re-Imagining Writing: Interdisciplinary Perspectives Phil

Fitzsimmons, Johanna Pentikäinen, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Interdisciplinary Press in 2014. Across the globe, the nature of writing in the twenty-first century is coming under increasing scrutiny as technology becomes an ever-increasing component of everyday life and as measuring human output also takes hold in many disciplines. This book offers an alternative to these twin developments, providing instead many alternatives. Coming from an international set of authors with different world views, paradigms, and praxes, the common theme of writing is explored with deep enthusiasm, interest in productivity and human capacity, and that leads to a polyphonic and progressive inquiry to the subject matter. Each author's initial contribution suggests that writing as an object of study needs reimagining, be it connected to learning, knowledge creation, or artistic expression. Writing is a deeply person-centred process and its open, transformative, and multidimensional nature escaped definitions but can be understood through the metaphor of the gift New Perspectives on Academic writing is their lifeblood the crisis in academic writing has become existential It is not hard to diagnose the disease and its causes This book showcases what we desperately need radical alternatives experiments we can try out ways of writing that don't just tweak the system but plot a different course altogether This isn't just about finding new genres for these only change the surface appearance without altering the underlying dynamic Rather the editor and contributors focus on finding new ways to join thinking both with writing and the things of which and with which we write Each chapter brims with the kind of liveliness outspokenness and urgency that their theme demands Far from tiptoeing around the edifice of academia they are intent on stirring things up reigniting their scholarship with a fuse of activism in the hope of setting off an explosion that could send ripples throughout the academy

Perkins, 2010 Kierkegaard wrote four reflections on his literary production On My Work as an Author The Point of View for My Work as an Author The Single Individual and Armed Neutrality but he published only the first The essays in this volume of International Kierkegaard Commentary examine these writings not just as a public report to history but also as a revelation of Kierkegaard's deepest understanding of himself as an author
