

The morning had been quiet when a noise came from the under part of the window. But I thought that was only the wind that shook the window. And in fact, unfortunately, I was wrong.
 One of the people that we had heard from the other side of the wall was there. He was not alone, but with others. I had thought that it was only the wind. But I was wrong. I had not seen any one there before.

But the next day I saw them. I saw them in the garden. They were not alone, but with others. I had not seen any one there before.
