Fabulating Beauty ,2005-01-01 Peter Carey is one of Australia s finest creative writers much admired by both literary critics and a worldwide reading public While academia has been quick to see his fictions as exemplars of postcolonial and postmodern writing strategies his general readership has been captivated by his deadpan sense of humour his quirky characters the outlandish settings and the grotesqueries of his intricate plots After three decades of prolific writing and multiple award winning Carey stands out in the world of Australian letters as designated heir to Patrick White Fabulating Beauty pays tribute to Carey's literary achievement It brings together the voices of many of the most renowned Carey critics in twenty essays sixteen commissioned especially for this volume an interview with the author as well as the most extensive bibliography of Carey criticism to date The studies represent a wide range of current perspectives on the writer's fictions Contributors focus on issues as diverse as the writer's biography his use of architectural metaphors his interrogation of narrative structures such as myths and cultural master plots intertextual strategies concepts of sacredness and references to the Christian tradition and his strategies of rewriting history Amidst predictions of the imminent death of postist theory the essays all attest to the ongoing relevance of the critical parameters framed by postmodernism and postcolonialism Telling Stories Jacqueline Bardolph, André Viola, Jean-Pierre Durix, 2001 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer's Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research Colonial and Postcolonial Fiction Robert L. Ross, 1999 Colonial and Postcolonial Fiction An Anthology draws from this great common wealth of writing offering 35 selections by major writers The works included reflect both indigenous and settler cultures and extend from the nineteenth century to the contemporary era BOOK JACKET

Mass Media James B. Martin, 2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes and the Everyday examines the novel as a privileged site for representing the everyday as well as a physical object that occupies public and private space This collection interrogates the relationships between these differing aspects of the novel's existence negotiating the boundaries between the material world subjective experience and strategies of representation This collection offers a wide array of innovative novelistic explorations with a focus ranging from nineteenth century fiction to contemporary literary theory and explores the portability of novels as both physical things and virtual hermeneutic devices While mimetic qualities of prose remain an integral consideration for literary interpretation this collection argues for more diverse frameworks ones that see aesthetic components of the novel in close connection with reading practices shared structures of feeling and the corporeal In this capacity this volume will argue for readings of texts that consider the capacity for literary culture to move through the world but also to make it or re make it new Encyclopedia of British Writers
